Home Health Club

WEEKLY LETTER WRITTEN EX-PRESSLY FOR THE BULLETIN BY DR. DAVID H. REEDER

SPRING MEDICINE: In the years gone by most people thought they must take a "spring medicine" in order to prepare for the change in the season and be ready for the spring and summer work. Happily, the idea is passing and it is be of education.

The Home Health Club has been one of the educational factors but there are still many people who do not realize that changed conditions and changed methods of living have chonged the diet of the people as well as their habits.

I can, myself, remember the time when the people prepared for winter by the fall butchering. I have This morning I met one of the worst crabs I ever heard of. He was very much down in the mouth and knocked everything and everybody. About the only time that guy will be satisfied with his It is when he is buried in it.

Just because the police found a certain bootlegger hiding in a hen coop is pretty good evidence that he is a bad egg.

A woman from Landisville came to town Saturday wearing a heavy black veil and at that I heard her ask a lady friend if her nose was shiny. It do beat all.

One of our doctors told a lady patient recently that she would have to be operated on for appendicitis. She appeared very much excited and said: "Oh, doctor, will the sear show?"

The doctor said: "Not unless you go into the movies."

When the people prepared for winter by the fall butchering. I have seen seven or eight big hogs, a large steer, and several sheep slaughtered at these fall roundups, and all for the use of the family, their hired help and guests. Then a load of wheat and a load of corn was taken to the neighborhood grist mill and ground for the family bread. A cellar was filled with potatoes, onlons, turnips, cabbage, carrots, and after that the family spent the day going to town for the fall buying. All kinds, of food not produced on the farm was purchased in quantities sufficient to last through the winter.

An enormous woodpile was the next move, and then let the winter come. The windows are all sealed the only thing that prevented a serious disaster was the fact that they only thing that prevented a serious disaster was the fact that there were very few stoves, no furnaces and no gas. The open fireplace served as a splendid source of ventilation and carried poisoned air out of the living rooms, but not from the bed rooms.

"Although she was only an elec-

Then began a season of physical idleness, nothing to do but eat, pork, spring medicine.

Today, even in the smaller towns If we ever have another war, it will be between the wets and the drys. At least, that's what a certain man on West Main street thinks, but if he would loaf around the postoffice some evening he'd think the war had already started.

Today, even in the smaller towns of the northern states, we find no such hibernating. Fresh fruits and vegetables may be easily procured the year around and there is practically no change in the physical activities. Even the farmer finds plenty to do and a much better plan to wear out than to rust out. When proper dief is used the When proper diet is used, the human machine will not wear out in two or even even three hundred

In this time, we will all know how to live in order to retain a healthy normal body as well as a healthy normal mind for several centurie and not guess work or idle dreaming is easily proven by observation of scientists who have investigated the condition of a race of people in the far East. No really old people, such as we see daily, were found and yet it was not at all found and yet it was not at all uncommon for both men and wo-

In Pennsylvania oat smut caused loss of more than two bushels er acre last year. Pennsylvania State College specialists say that seed treatment, costing two cents an acre, prevents smut and so ac-tually increases the yield by two

A little girl down town was heard tell her mother something heard tell her mother something like this: "Mama, please don't starch my petticoats so much. So much starchiness makes the stiffness scratch my bareness."

I know a young lady in this town who has a very magnetic personality. Every darn thing she wears is charged.

That's just about the same as the little girl from town who went to Lancaster on the train. She was so small that her mother did not buy a ticket for her. The "Henny" Garber, the west end baker, tells a very good story about snow in May, but Henry Stauffer knows a good one too on ductor came along and asked the little girl how old she was. She said: "I'd rather pay my fare and keep it a secret."
