

OWL-LAFFS

O. W. L.
(On With Laughter)

Now that our dedication, unveiling and Memorial Day celebrations are over, let's settle down to business till the Fourth of July.

Talkin' about business reminds me: A certain spiritualist was trying to convince one of our business men that there is no hell. The business man said: "Well, if there ain't no hell, where has all the business gone to lately?"

During exams back at school a teacher asked a girl who succeeded Edward the Sixth and she said: "Mary." Then the teacher said: "Who followed Mary?" and the girl said: "Her little lamb."

I asked a certain poultryman whether hens sit or set when they hatch. "That don't concern me at all. I am more interested to know when I hear one cackling if she is laying or lying."

A funny one happened at a certain place in Florin recently. When I walked into a certain business place, one of the clerks was sitting there with both pant legs tied near his shoe tops. I said: "What's the idea?" He replied: "Oh, there's a darn mouse running around here."

A young fellow here went to the clerk of the orphans' court at Lancaster yesterday and said: "Are you sure that was a marriage license you gave me recently?" The clerk said: "Yes, but why do you ask?" The fellow replied: "Well, I've been leading a dog's life ever since."

They say that two can live cheaper than one but it's a cinch that two will get madder than one.

Since we're talking about the girls, did you ever notice that fat girls don't want to take on much and shapely girls don't want to put on much. One of our local doctors told a man near here as follows: "I am extremely sorry to say that your wife's mind is completely gone." The man, not greatly astonished, replied: "Well, I'm not a bit surprised. She's been giving me a piece of it daily for the past eighteen years."

You can say what you please, there is one very sensible woman to boast of. Her husband took her to Lancaster for a new hat. She tried several on. One was marked $35 and another $4.98. She took the latter because she thought it looked better on her.

They say the wood-workers never made any trouble in this world; it was the wouldn't-workers.

Fellows, here's the best way I know of to save time. Fasten it securely on a chain and to your vest.

Young fellows, here's a tip. A young chap near town, who was recently married says that if courtship is an institution, marriage must be a finishing school.

A woman called at the grocery store to register a complaint. "I ordered a dozen oranges from you today," she said sharply, "and you only sent me eleven. How was that?" "Well, ma'am," explained the grocer, "one of them was so bad that I took the liberty of throwing it away for you."

With zest I bip the pages over Of all the magazines I buy; Then pause content as pig in clover— The stocking ad has caught my eye.

Such art, alluring, rich and glowing, I'm glad in magazines to meet, Though I prefer, when winds are blowing, The living ads that walk the street.

The fellows say that our office devil wrote that one.

But at that he's no piker. Howard says that only the church bell knew they were married and then it tolled.

A Heck of a Spring
I love the gentle springtime,
But I could love it better
If I could don a Palm Beach suit
And don't my heavy sweater.

The New York man who was fined $25 for kissing a girl on the car would probably have been given a prize for locating it.

One of our local business men told me that a hair on the head is worth two in the brush any old time and I'm getting to the age that it's true. Of course, that's true but then you know that corns grow on all kinds of toes except mistletoe and for that same reason there is a time when a baby is not a baby that's when it's a little bare.

101 RANCH WILL EXHIBIT AT LANCASTER SATURDAY

Unparalleled in modern circus history is the feat of Miller Brothers in contracting the entire Imperial Cossack circus, which showed the London Olympia all winter as a sensational and complete show of unprecedented hugeness and novelty, for their 101 Ranch Real Wild West and Great Far East.

This mighty attraction, assembled in the Balkan and other border countries froc scattered Imperial hosts of the late Czar of the Russias, was acclaimed by the London Daily Graphic as "the finest show of its kind that London has ever had." The London Daily Express said: "One of the most thrilling spectacles ever seen in London opened at the Olympia last night. The riding feats of the cowboys at Wembley were outdone by 260 lean, tough Cossacks. The London Daily Mail remarked: "The Cossacks piled thrill upon thrill. They take away your breath, they are almost too much for your eyes. They must be seen to be believed." The London Morning Post stated: "The whole immense production is something entirely new. Nothing like it has ever been seen in London before. The performance is simply prodigious. The feats of horsemanship must be seen to be believed."

That was London's opinion of the Cossack circus as a show in itself—a huge circus in a mighty city. Now, Miller Brothers are adding this same Imperial Russian Cossack circus—horsemen, band, choir, acrobats, tumblers, dancers, cavalry units and all—to the huge 101 Ranch Real Wild West and Great Far East.

So, Miller Brothers' 101 Ranch Real Wild West and Great Far East comes to Lancaster, Saturday, June 5, with a tremendous big show program, with 1,400 people, cowboys and cowgirls, picturesque and exotic; with 600 horses, elephants, camels, buffalo (from the ranch herds), burros, oxen and longhorns; with every famous Indian chief and warrior in America among its contingents of 300 Redskins; with the largest spread of canvas in circus history—some fifteen acres in all—and a magnificent opera chair grandstand which, with its supplementary tiers, seats 14,000. And, ignoring the retrenchment policy of the circuses they bring to town the largest and most picturesque street parade ever seen in the land.

OLD "NUMBER 60"

By J. ROY MARTIN
Night Crossing Watchman, Florin, Pa.

Stop. Wait and LIVE. My friend this means just YOU; For Old No. 60's coming now, And she's "Fifteen" OVER-DUE. Yes, Old No. 60's coming, With her steed so sturdy and strong;

And, when old man Brady's at his place in the cab, She shuffles right along. Old man Brady, an engineer of renown, No doubt you often hear him As he pushes through your town.

Ah, there's folks of culture and refinement, In their berths at peace and rest; And a Little Blue-eyed Baby Nestling close to it's mother's breast.

But they never worry on No. 60, Neither passengers nor crew; For they trust that Old Man Brady Will take them safely through.

Yes, Old No. 60's coming, and chalk this on your slate; She'll go like the very dickens, 'Cause she's running "Fifteen" Late.

So stay back now, Hudson Super-six, N' keep your foot jammed on the brake; 'Cause if Old "No. 60" shakes hands with you, why—

—We'll all attend a "wake" For Old No. 60's on the straight line now, —and coming with a will; Don't try to Beat her NOW "Bo", Or you'll sleep on Maple Hill.

Careful there, now Lady, please, And keep those "Children" back; For if Old No. 60 takes a shot at you, You'll receive an awful whack.

You'll circle the moon 'bout five—six times, —see STARS 'n' everything; She'll break every bone that belongs to you, And, damage your wedding ring.

Stand back now, Willie McCutchen Brown, —Don't think you're behind the PLOW; For Old No. 60's running "Fifteen" Late,

Coming here on the straight line NOW. Yes, Old No. 60's on the straight line now, And THIS FACT remember well; When Old Man Brady's got hold of the throttle, why

Consistent advertising always pays.

LOCALS LOST A GOOD GAME HERE SATURDAY TO THE KREIDER SHOE CO. TEAM OF E-TOWN

The Kreider Shoe Company nine of Elizabethtown turned in an 8 to 6 victory over Mt. Joy team at this place Saturday afternoon in a ten inning fray.

Four runs in the second frame and two in the fourth sent the Mt. Joy team away to a safe lead, but they were unable to hold it. The Elizabethtown aggregation collected two more in the ninth to deadlock the score and collected their winning tallies in the tenth.

Painter's timely hit in the 10th, scoring Seidler and Coble, gave the shoemakers the victory. Score:

John Hartig, Marietta, has been found guilty to a charge of larceny sentenced to confinement in the county jail in default of bail. The plaintiff, Jacob Kline, charges that the defendant dug out and planted in his own garden several hundred sweet potatoes that the plaintiff had planted in his garden.

QUICK and EASY CORN GELATIN

Quick & Easy is for folks with corns. The way it puts corned feet into cornless condition would make Houdini pale with envy. Now you see 'em—and now they're gone.

Just a drop to the acher at bedtime for two or three nights. Then hot water and serve. OUT comes the little joker, roots and all.

Like magic, only it's REAL, and satisfying, and your corn-pestered customers "Charleston" in and thank you for steering them straight. That's all, and that's enough. This non-curling, non-cracking, quick-drying and perfectly flexible base is the secret of good Corn Paint. Quick & Easy is put up in quarter ounce French Square Vials, with sealed cork and glass applicator. Individual Cargons. It is an iodized Salicylated Colloid, with flexible base. If it evaporates we take it back, if it thickens we take it back, if it comes off on the sock we take it back. But we don't take our Statement, "It's the best Corn Paint on the market."
