Appraisers Fix Hoffmans' Assets

THEY ESTIMATE THAT ACTUAL VALUATION IS $700,000 LESS THAN THE SCHEDULE FILED

John E. Longenecker, of this town, Benn E. Mann, Manor township, and T. Roberts Appel, of Lancaster, appraisers in the bankrupt estate of the Hoffman Leaf Tobacco Company, and M. R. Hoffman, Sr., M. R. Hoffman Jr., and Guy S. Hoffman, filed their report with referee in Bankruptcy Redmond Conyngham. It showed a total valuation of their property in this State and Ohio, of $566,679.42.

This is less than half their schedule of assets filed when they went into bankruptcy, the figures given being $1,281,568.43.

When the petition in bankruptcy was filed, it showed total liabilities of $1,332,883.52, divided as follows: Hoffman Leaf Tobacco Co., $1,207,004.71; M. R. Hoffman Sr., $9,500; M. R. Hoffman Jr., $104,875; Guy S. Hoffman, $11,503.81. Their schedule of assets was as follows: Hoffman Leaf Tobacco Company, $632,028.99; M. R. Hoffman Sr., $602,464.44; M. R. Hoffman Jr., $33,175; Guy S. Hoffman, $3,900.

The report filed with the referee is lengthy, and goes into detail of all real estate and personal property of whatever kind in possession of the tobacco company or the individuals.

In the appraisal, the property of the Hoffman Leaf Tobacco Company is listed at $147,236.51, which includes miscellaneous articles valued at $8,919.14; notes receivable, $4,800; book accounts receivable, $3,256.83; office furniture and fixtures, $732; tobacco in warehouses in Maytown, Marietta, Wrightsville and Locust Grove, $130,528.54. The appraisal of the individuals is listed as follows: M. R. Hoffman Sr., miscellaneous articles, $16,186.50; stocks and securities, $4,225.22; crops, stock and farm equipment, $20,242.50; real estate in Pennsylvania, $181,100, a total of $221,754.32.

M. R. Hoffman Jr., had miscellaneous articles appraised at $75, while his brother, Gus S. Hoffman, had real estate worth $12,000; miscellaneous articles valued at $275; stocks and securities, $1,750, making a total of $14,025.

SALUNGA MAN ACCUSES HIS WIFE OF BIGAMY

Mrs. Anna Poe Young, 32, of 230 Perry street, Columbia, was arrested late Wednesday afternoon at her home by Constable Walter Harman, of Lancaster, on a charge of bigamy preferred by her husband, Emerson Young, of Salunga.

The charges were brought by Young before Alderman Burkhart. In default of $1,000 bail Mrs. Young was committed to the Lancaster county jail to await a hearing before the alderman.

Young alleges that his wife left him some time ago and had never returned.

Last week it is declared Mrs. Young and Amos Warfel, of Columbia, were married in Lancaster. Young then made the charges against his wife.

Seaboard Petroleum Terminal

LOCAL INDEPENDENT CO. WILL BUILD TIDEWATER TERMINAL AT WILMINGTON, DEL., TO RECEIVE PRODUCTS

The following appeared in Friday's issue of Morning News, of Wilmington, Del., concerning the Independent Oil Company, of this place, and of which Mr. Clarence Schock is the head:

City Council last night approved a lease between the Board of Harbor Commissioners and the Schock Independent Oil Company whereby the latter will be empowered to construct piers and bulkheads along the Delaware River adjoining the Marine Terminal for the purpose of gaining access to their recently purchased site of 23 acres where they will erect a plant valued at one-third of a million dollars for the importation and distribution of petroleum products.

The piers will facilitate the unloading of petroleum products from the Pacific Coast and Gulf Coast points to this city from where they will be distributed throughout Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and other nearby territory.

Construction Starts at Once
Construction will start immediately on the piers, pipe lines and storage tanks and buildings. This opening is on page 3.

DINNER ON LAWN AT FAMILY REUNION

The third annual reunion of the Long clan was held in Manheim on Sunday. About 50 members of the family were present and at the same time helped celebrate the 82 birthday anniversary of N. W. Long at whose residence the reunion took place, and the 11th birthday anniversary of his grand nephew, Earl Long. Dinner was served on the lawn of the home and a large cake decorated with 82 candles and baked by Mrs. Long's grandniece, Mrs. Walter Hershey of Sporting Hill, was placed on the table. Mrs. Long also made a cake with 11 candles in honor of her son's birthday. Devotions were in charge of Daniel Bradley. Members of the clan were present from Ohio, Middletown, Eden, Lititz, East Petersburg and Manheim.
