HIGH BOYS LOST GOOD GAME TO PARADISE

Mt. Joy High team journeyed Paradise Friday evening and lost the team there in the Class High School league, 41-52. Mt. Joy was distinctly at a dis

lvantage on the cramped Paradi floor and missed many chances to score while nearly every attemp vas made good by the Paradis lads. The contest was hard fough from beginning to end with the M Joy lads holding their own until th final quarter. Walsh, with 36 point to his credit, was the big ace for Paradise, while Heilig and Captain Halbleib featured for Mt. Joy. The score:
