

You Can't Live Without Eating; A Car Won't Run Without Gas; A Business Won't Prosper Without Advertising

Several Raids By State Police

HOME OF ELI RANDLER IN MT. JOY TWP. AND THE FARMERS' INN HERE WERE VISITED.

A battle with a huge police dog guarding a supply of moonshine featured raids staged by the state police from Manheim amidst a swirling snow storm in Mt. Joy township at 8 o'clock Saturday morning.

The contest with the dog occurred at the home of Eli Randler, 45 years old, Mt. Joy township, north of town.

Corporal Davis and Constable Rodgers arrived at the place with the search warrants and started in to look for the liquor. They soon discovered two gallons of moonshine in the kitchen of the house, but when they went for it a large

(Turn to Page 5)

GUARDSMAN JAILED FOR MISSING DRILLS

Constable P. J. Bauer Wednesday afternoon arrested Robert Singleton of this borough. He was committed to the county jail to serve 20 days for being absent without leave from drills of Battery E, 213th Coast Artillery, Harry Shank, commander. Singleton had been absent and was later court-martialed and given the above sentence. He evaded the officers until Wednesday.

Seeks $7,000 Alleged Due

Zimmerman, Myers and Keady, attorneys for the Keystone National Bank, Manheim, have brought a suit in Common Pleas Court against J. B. Beamesderfer, of this place, to recover $7,000 alleged to be due on a promissory note.

A Tragedy Victim

The body of John J. Shaw, aged 56, of Felton, R. I., York, was found badly mutilated from exposure and frozen in the ice on the Susquehanna river near York Haven by two skaters.

Republican Women's Leader

Miss Maude Halleman, of Marietta, was elected president of the Women's Republican Club of Lancaster county at the annual banquet at Hotel Brunswick Thursday evening.

Stole His Coal

Mr. Raymond Rahn who resides near the borough pumping station had a ton of coal stolen from his coal shed several days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers Given A Shower

WERE THE RECIPIENTS OF MANY GIFTS—VERY LARGE NUMBER OF THEIR FRIENDS PRESENT.

A miscellaneous shower was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Geisheit, W. Main street, in honor of their daughter, Mildred, who was married to Paul Myers on Christmas Day. Mr. and Mrs. Myers spent the earlier part of the evening at the home of a friend and on returning home found over eighty friends assembled. Mrs. Myers received many gifts, including silver, linens, aluminumware and china. Refreshments were served to the following: B. Irene Wise, Ada Bower, Freda Snyder.

(Turn to Page 5)

Landisville Man Arrested

Charles Garber, of Landisville, was arrested Thursday by Constable Hartman on a charge of malicious mischief and surety of the peace, preferred by Christian George, of Landisville. The accused was held for a hearing before Alderman Burkhardt. Garber is charged with breaking into the stable of George a few days ago.

Granted a Divorce

The Court on Saturday granted Florence Shearer a divorce from Harry Shearer, charging cruel treatment. The family formerly resided here.

Visited Marietta Lodge

Two auto loads of members of Caspigha Lodge of this place, journeyed to Marietta Monday evening where they paid the Masons of that borough a visit.

Sues to Obtain $378

John G. Grove, of Elizabethtown, has entered suit in Common Pleas Court against the Sinclair Oil Company to recover $378.47 alleged to be due in commissions.

Hand May Be Fractured

John Kopp, 28, of East Petersburg, sustained a possible fracture of the right hand in cranking an automobile.

A Neat Sum Remains

There is a balance of $25,811.17 for distribution in the estate of Susanna S. Brandt, late of East Donegal township.

MISS ETHEL SHANK OUR COMMUNITY NURSE

Miss Ethel Shank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shank on West Main street, has received the appointment as Community Nurse for Mount Joy.

Miss Shank attended our Public Schools and was a member of the graduating class of 1925 of the Nurses' Training School of the Lancaster General Hospital, Lancaster.

She is highly capable and efficient as a nurse and her vast host of friends wish her unlimited success in her appointment.

E'town Corn Show Was A Success

LANCASTER COUNTY WON CUP BY DEFAULT—MUCH FROZEN CORN FOUND AMONG ENTRIES.

Good, buyable seed corn will be more limited in Lancaster county this year than in many years, according to F. S. Bucher, County agent of the Farm Bureau, who announced winners in the corn show held at Elizabethtown on Saturday. According to Mr. Bucher, owing to the extremely bad weather there was a small attendance at the show, but so far as the type and variety goes, the exhibits at the show were better than ever before. A large number of samples were thrown out because of frozen ears. The percentage of frozen ears this year

(Turn to Page 4)

MISS GLADYS ZINK GIVEN BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Zink, on Mount Joy street held a birthday party on Saturday afternoon in honor of their daughter, Gladys, who celebrated her ninth birthday anniversary.

The following tots were present: Dora Walker, Caroline Schneider, Ethel Myers, Ruth Heilig, Beulah Smith, Thelma and Mildred and Janice Zink, Ruth Good.

She received many remembrances from her little friends. Refreshments were served to the little folks.

35 BABIES AND 27 MOTHERS ATTEND BABY CLINIC

The Baby Clinic met Tuesday afternoon at the Legion Home. There were 35 babies present and 27 mothers. Total registration 301.

The visitor Mrs. J. J. Newpher. The hostesses were: Mrs. O. J. Longcocker, Mrs. E. W. Garber, Miss Hauck, state nurse was in charge and Dr. A. F. Snyder was the physician in attendance. Mrs. C. E. Knickle acted as secretary.

Fell Down Stairs

Mrs. M. M. Leib met with a painful accident on Saturday forenoon at her home on West Donegal street. She had gone up stairs and on the way down slipped and fell to the bottom. When picked up she was unconscious. An examination showed that her right arm is badly sprained and possibly fractured, and her right shoulder, temple and right eye badly bruised. Her neck is also strained. An X-ray will be taken of her right arm.

STARTED REMODELING FORMER MAGNESIA BUILDING

On Monday employees of John G. Wickersham, contractor of Lancaster, started remodeling the large brick building owned by H. S. Newcomer & Son and which was formerly the Mt. Joy Magnesia plant. It will be converted into a modern warehouse. Mr. Wm. Miller, of this place, has charge of the work.

Money Loaned by Farmers

Last year the Lancaster county Farm Loan Association loaned $118,000 to farmers of Lancaster county. This makes a total of $665,000 worth of mortgages this concern now carries with our farmers.

Reported Road Bad

At Court Monday, Constable Geo. S. Vogel, Mount Joy township, reported the road leading from Ridge Road to College avenue, in Elizabethtown, as being in bad condition.

Sent to Reformatory

Thomas E. Goidard and Carlton Simonson, who assaulted Lois Newcomer, aged 13, on an island in the Susquehanna river, were sentenced to the Huntingdon Reformatory.

Opened Branch Here

The Lancaster Sanitary Milk corporation opened a branch receiving station here on Saturday. This will be quite a convenience for their many patrons around here.

A Ripe Old Age

Donna Petra Mora died at Pomona, Cal., aged 122 years. She has two living brothers, each being over 100 years old.

Case of Scarlet Fever

Richard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Miller, is quarantined for scarlet fever.

Institute Here Next Saturday

WILL BE HELD IN MOUNT JOY HIGH SCHOOL—GOOD PROGRAM WILL BE RENDERED

A local teachers' institute, comprising the teachers and directors of Mount Joy and Elizabethtown boroughs and West Ronegal and Mount Joy townships, will be held in the High school building here on Saturday, January 29. There will be a morning session at 9:30 A. M., and an afternoon session at 1 P. M.

Forenoon Session

Opening Exercises, Rev. C. B. Segelken; What is Your Most Difficult Problem in School This Term; Rufus Eby, Cora Kraybill, Grace Henderson, Ruth Kraybill, Florence Cawley, Martha Swartz; Open Discussion; Recitation, Martha C. Engle; Music, Institute; What Can We Do to Improve the Local Institute or What Can Take Its Place? Irvin Riest and Katharine McCulloch; Open Discussion; Business Session.

Afternoon Session

To What Extent is the School Responsible for Citizenship? Discussion Opened by E. E. Sloat; Piano Solo, Sarah Poorman; Address, Dr. P. M. Harbold; Adjournment.

Officers

The officers of the association are: President, Grover C. Bair; V. President, Mervin W. Brandt; Secretary, Katie O. Miller; Treasurer, Edna Martin.

Committee

The committee in charge is appointed: Marion Hombright, Chairman; Mabel Hackenberger, Martha Zercher, and Clara Bolster.

HOGS WERE LARGER THAN WE STATED

Last week we published a news item concerning hogs that were killed by Christian Lease, of near town. Mr. Lease says the hogs were not his property but were raised by his son-in-law Roy Lindemuth, both parties living on the same premises. There were but four hogs instead of five, they were 14½ months old and dressed 1889 pounds to be exact. The largest weighed 550 pounds.

Driving On the River

Due to the cold spell, the Susquehanna river at Washingtonboro is frozen over. Wednesday and Thursday people were driving teams and autos around in the ice.

General News for Quick Reading

INTERESTING HAPPENINGS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY FOR THE BENEFIT OF BUSY PEOPLE

Miss Laura Hamilton has started work at the Le Blanc Co.

Miss Martha Gibbons has discontinued her work at the Le Blanc Co. The Lancaster General Hospital is considering a $500,000 building project.

Approximately 5,000 dog licenses have been issued in the county to date.

Mr. Charles Good has recently started work at George Brown's Mills.

Bart township dedicated its new $40,000 High school building on Friday.

Mr. Harry Brubaker, of Rapho, slaughtered a hog that dressed 635 pounds.

The family of Sam Miller on North Barbara street, is quarantined with Chicken pox.

Mr. Eli Engle of Newtown is on the sick list, he is a student at Elizabethtown college.

Mr. M. S. Potter and family have moved into the DeWiler homestead on East Main street.

Mr. Christ Sheik on North Barbara street has started work at Grey Iron Casting Co.

Miss Esther Stauffer, of Stauffer-town, has started work at the Gerberich-Payne Shoe Co.

Miss Lillian Felker, a former clerk at Hauer's Department store, has resigned her position.

Mr. Frank Germer, East ward carrier, is off duty with grippe. Mr. Bysshe Heilig is substituting.

Goldie Mumma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mumma, is confined to her home with chicken pox.

Mr. Abram Waltz, on West Donegal street, has started work at the New Standard Hardware Works.

Miss Fanny Hoerner and Mrs. Sam Flowers have started work at Geo. Brown's Sons Cotton Mills.

The Rowenna Farris Company was dissolved by the Court on Saturday. This concern has gone out of business.

A prayer meeting service will be held on Saturday.

(Turn to page 8)

Damaged By Fire

River View Mansion, the home of Colonel James Duffy in East Donegal near Marietta, was slightly damaged by fire Sunday evening.

LOCAL PASTOR WILL SPEAK AT WASHINGTON

Rev. C. E. Knickle has been selected as one of the speakers on the National Crusade, which is being held throughout the Episcopal Church. Mr. Knickle will conduct his mission at the Epiphany Church, Washington, the largest church in Washington D. C. He will leave on Saturday and will be away for a week.

Mr. Knickle is highly honored to be chosen as there are only one or two men from each state or diocese, and out of the 6000 clergy of the Episcopal church, there are only about 150 selected as the preachers for this important mission.

Local Doings Around Florin

ENGINE ON TRAIN NO. 20 WAS BROKEN HERE SATURDAY MORNING—OTHER NEWS NOTES

Will Hold Banquet

The Florin Foot Ball team will hold its annual banquet at Keener's Park, near Elizabethtown, on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Engine Was Broken

The engine on train No. 20, St. Louis to New York was badly broken at Florin, Saturday about 10 A. M. The engine was broken down on both sides and delayed about one hour and thirty minutes. Another engine was sent to Florin to pull the train to New York. No one was hurt and there was no damage to the track.

Railroaders Injured

Mr. Nathan M. Greiner, aged 56 years of Elizabethtown, was injured while working on the P. R. R. tracks near the station here. He was assisting in laying a modern type switch along the tracks at the plant of the Florin Foundry and

(Turn to page 4.)

THE MEN'S FEDERATION ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

The Men's Federation of this place held a meeting on Sunday which was the beginning of many more in the future. The feature of the meeting was not only men, but women, were invited.

Rev. Regass, of Columbia, gave a very interesting address to a fine audience.

An election of officers was held with the following results.

Pres. Ralph Eshleman, Vice Pres. Dr. E. W. Garber, Secretary, Lester Brubaker; Treasurer, H. N. Nissly.

COUNTY SETS ASIDE $2,000 FOR BRIDGE

The county commissioners appropriated $2,000 to Rapho township and $2,000 to West Hempfield township, on account of the construction of the inter-township bridge over the Chiques creek at Newcomer's Mill. The bridge was built under the State Reward plan, with the state, county and townships entering the project.

JURY ACQUITS SHELLY IN HIS LIQUOR CASE

The jury in the case of William Shelly, of near Marietta charged with violating the liquor law returned a verdict of not guilty. The costs were imposed on State Trooper W. J. Berggoun. The jury deliberated the entire afternoon and into the night before reaching an agreement.

Celebrated Birthdays

Mrs. Rachel Givens had a birthday on Sunday.

Mr. Clayton Sprecher had a birthday the past week.

Master Clarence Wagner had a birthday on Saturday.

Mrs. Philip Greiner celebrated her birthday the past week.

Mrs. Harry Wintermyer celebrated her birthday anniversary on Monday.

Visited by the Stork

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Nolt, Landisville, announce the birth of a son at St. Joseph's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schaeffer, on Old Market street, announce the birth of a daughter, at the Lancaster General hospital, on Saturday evening.

25 Converts Thus Far

The revival services at Shank's Church are continuing into their fourth week. The meetings are very well attended. On Sunday evening, the house was filled to capacity and many were turned away. Rev. W. J. Myers, of Ohio, is the able speaker. About twenty-five converts are reported.

Calvin Gets Package Surprise

A package surprise was given Calvin Kramer, a clerk at the local post office on Thursday, when he celebrated his birthday, and he wishes to thank all who sent him birthday greetings. His wife also entertained a few friends at their home on Lumber street, Thursday evening in his honor.

The G. Moyer sale was largely attended Friday afternoon.

Road We Must All Travel Sometime

MANY WELL KNOWN PEOPLE HAVE PASSED TO THE GREAT BEYOND

Margaret, wife of John C. Connolly, died at Columbia, aged 51 years.

Fred Joost

Fred Joost, 57, of Landisville, died in the Lancaster General hospital Monday night at 11:15 o'clock, of pneumonia. He had been admitted that morning.

Jean Marie Hendrix

Jean Marie Hendrix, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hendrix of this place, died of infant troubles.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the house. Interment was made in Mt. Joy cemetery.

Isaac B. Brubaker

Isaac B. Brubaker died at his home, at Elizabethtown, on Thursday evening, at 9 o'clock, from a complication of diseases, aged 76 years. He is survived by his wife, Annie, and the following children: Walter, Robert and Anna, at home, and Nelson, of South Dakota. Services were held on Monday afternoon at the home, with interment in Mt. Tunnel cemetery.

Lemon Leisley

Lemon Leisley, proprietor of Miller's Hotel, at Wernersville, and one of the most prominent men in Berks county, both in the hotel business and in the Democratic party, died at his home. He was sixty-six. On several occasions he was a candidate for prison inspector. He served on the borough council some years ago. Deceased is very well known here, as he conducted the hotel at Florin for some time.

(Turn to page 8)

LITERARY SOCIETY MEETS AT NEWTOWN

The Newtown Literary Society rendered its program Friday evening. An interesting debate was given: "Resolved: That Reading is Better than Travel." The affirmative will be upheld by C. Nissley Greider and Lester Divet, and John R. Brinser, Jr., and Eli M. Engle, the negative. Music was given by the Collegian Four from Elizabethtown college.

A business meeting was held recently at which time Earl Shell was elected treasurer to succeed Miss Alice Strickler, who has resigned.

The following committee were also appointed: Lester Divet, Clara Bolster, Kathryn Nissley on the program committee; J. Avey Engle and Alice Strickler, constitutional committee; and Irene Forrey, and Paul Engle, membership committee.

MISS LAVERNA GERBER ENTERTAINS HER FRIENDS

Miss Laverna Garber entertained a number of friends at her home on New Haven street on Friday evening. The evening was enjoyed by all in attendance as follows: Martha Breneman, Elizabeth Lane, Effie Mrower of Landisville; George Gamber, Clara Bogue, Kitty Lehman, Mary Schaller, Clarence Gammeter all of Lancaster, Dwight Shoop, Nora Gronnall, Erma Reed, Elizabeth Metzler, of Elizabethtown; Anna Brandt of Phoenix; Christian Risser of Hershey; Mary Peoples, Laverna Gerber, Walter Kuhn, Irwin Geber, Warren Bates, and Merl Hoffer, all of this place.

LOCAL AUTOIST HEARD ON LAW VIOLATION

Mr. John H. Siegrist, of Mt. Joy R. D., was given a hearing at Squire Elwood Grimm's office, upon the charge of driving a motor vehicle without a driver's license.

Sergeant Thomas, of Harrisburg, issued the charge of complaint, when Siegrist was asked to produce his operators license for inspection, but was unable to comply with the request.

He pleaded guilty at his hearing and was fined $10 and costs which were paid and the case dismissed.

Awarded $1,800 Damages

Mrs. Anna Schlegelmilch and children, East Donegal township, were awarded a total of $1,800 damages for land taken in the relocation of State Highway No. 280, thru the Schlegelmilch property, in a report of a Board of Viewers filed on Monday in Court.

Had Finger Crushed

Paul Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Walker, on Mount Joy street, had his finger badly crushed while working at Kaylor's garage on Marietta street. Dr. Stoner is attending him.

Two Games Monday Night

On Monday evening the Big Five will oppose the Rialto Five of Lancaster. As a preliminary the All Scholastic Girls will play the Y. W. C. A. of Lancaster.

JOHN S. FISHER
THIRTIETH GOVERNOR OF PENNSYLVANIA
Who Was Inaugurated at Harrisburg Yesterday

ALL ABOUT THE SICK AND THE AFFLICTED

Mr. Myers Wenger is suffering with a severe cold.

Mrs. Irvin Gruber, of Elm Tree is confined with sickness, to her home.

Mrs. Sarah Smith, on Mount Joy street, is improving from a severe attack of pleuro-pneumonia.

Rev. H. S. Kiefer, who has been confined to his home on account of illness, filled his pulpit at the United Brethren Church Sunday.

Mrs. Andrew Bachman, of Indiana West, Chester Co., who has been at the West Chester hospital, was removed to her home. Her condition is slightly improved.

Masterson—Frank

Mr. Paul Frank, of the firm of C. S. Frank & Bro., and Miss Frances Masterson, daughter of John Masterson of Florin, were married last Tuesday at Elizabethtown. The ceremony was performed at the Catholic parsonage by the priest.

They were attended by the groom's brother Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Frank, of near town.

Immediately after the ceremony they left on a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., points throughout Virginia and also at Philadelphia. They returned home Monday and will reside with the bride's father at Florin for the present.

COUNTY FAIR WILL CEASE TO FUNCTION

The Lancaster County Fair has ceased to exist under the sponsorship of the Lancaster County Fair Association.

A resolution determining that the organization will not sponsor an exhibition this year and that the grounds on the Harrisburg pike just outside the city shall be sold, was passed at a meeting of the board of Directors Monday afternoon.

AUTO CLUB DIRECTORS INCREASE THE BENEFIT

The Lancaster Automobile Club directors doubled the personal accident benefit in the blanket insurance carried by the organization for its membership at their meeting Friday evening.

This means that in case of death the club member's estate will get $1000, or in case of personal injury in an automobile accident, the member will receive $15 per week during the period of disability.

LOCAL BANK STOCK BRINGS $240 A SHARE

At a sale of stocks and bonds at Elizabethtown on Saturday, the following of local interest were sold: 1 share Bainbridge National Bank stock to Isaac Hershey at $101.

11 shares Marietta National Bank stock to F. S. Graybill, Mount Joy, at $175.

9 shares First National Bank, of Mt. Joy, to B. S. Stauffer at $240.

Treated His Help

Mr. Enos Rohrer, local garage man, and distributor of Hudson-Essex Motor cars, and his employees, attended a banquet at Philadelphia on Sunday. It was held by Hudson Motor Company and is an annual event.

Banquet This Evening

The Men's Club of Geo. Brown's Sons mills will hold their annual banquet at the Oaklyn Tea House, west of Elizabethtown this evening. Officers will also be elected for the coming year.

Quarantined For Chicken Pox

The two small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weidley west of Florin are quarantined for chicken pox.

DR. O. G. LONGENECKER LECTURES TO ROTARIANS

Dr. O. G. Longenecker, one of our local dentists, made an interesting address to the members of the Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon at the Garden Spot restaurant last evening at 6 o'clock. His talk on teeth was illustrated by a large number of radiogram pictures.

The club decided to observe Boys' week April 30 to May 7 and Chairman Jno. A. Bachman appointed a committee to arrange for a ladies' night in the near future.

MR. AND MRS. BROWN'S TWELFTH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brown celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary on Saturday evening in their newly built home on South Market street by entertaining a number of their friends and relatives. A very lovely evening was had by all and refreshments in honor of the occasion were served the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were the recipients of many useful gifts.

FIFTY-THREE MASONS ATTEND A BANQUET

The Caspigha Lodge of Masons of this place, held their monthly meeting on Friday evening in their Lodge Rooms above Dr. E. W. Garber's Drug Store. After the business session, the members were served a banquet at the Garden Spot Restaurant on West Main street. Covers were laid for fifty-three.

Tobacco Buyers are Circulating in these parts at present, many offering 12 cents.

On Monday Mr. Kibler, a farmer in the Elk farm near Newtown, sold his crop to Mumma Bros., of Landisville, for 13½ and 2½ cents a pound.

Executive Board Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Executive Board of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion will be held on Monday evening, January 24th, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Roy B. Sheetz. All members of the Board are urged to be present at this meeting. Matters of importance are to be discussed.

Quarantined For Chicken Pox

The two small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weidley west of Florin are quarantined for chicken pox.