Auto Accidents Over Week End

AMOS RIEGEL'S CAR SKIDDED AND LANDED IN CREEK—CAR UPSHET—OTHER MISHAPS.

There were quite a number of auto mishaps throughout our community during the past week, mostly due to the icy highways.

Their Car Upset
Mr. and Mrs. Jay Caskey, Landisville, suffered cuts and bruises when their machine skidded on the Harrisburg pike at Brubaker's curve, and overturned into a ditch. Other occupants of the machine escaped injury. The accident occurred on Friday evening.

Car in Creek
On Saturday morning while Amos Riegel, of Newtown was on his way to work, his car skidded on the icy hill near the home of Horace Detweiler. The machine slid into the creek and as the stream was nearly bank full only the top of the car was exposed. Mr. Riegel was fortunate in getting out of the car and escaped unhurt.

Girl Run Down
Miss Ethel Miller, 17 years old, of Elizabethtown, suffered cuts and bruises, when struck and knocked down by an automobile operated by Raymond Oliver, of Mt. Joy street Elizabethtown. She was walking in the street because of the icy sidewalks. She was treated by Dr. T. M. Thompson. Police Chief Pastorius investigated the accident.

Skidded Into Curb
An accident occurred on Friday night about 11 P. M. when an Essex Coach, owned and driven by Mr. Henry Amand turned the corner from North Barbara street, west on Mt. Joy street and skidded into the gutter and onto the curb. Near the Misses Witmer home on North Barbara street. The rear right wheel was broken off and the front right wheel was damaged. Mr. Amand, his wife and her sister, Miss Smeltzer, were returning from Lancaster. Fortunately, no one was hurt but the car required two new wheels.

BABY HEALTH CLINIC MET AGAIN YESTERDAY

The Baby Health Clinic met as usual Tuesday afternoon at the Legion Home. Dr. A. F. Snyder was in charge of the clinic and made very thorough examinations of the babies. There were 41 babies in attendance and 27 mothers and two visitors. Miss Mary Newpher and Mrs. Clarence Schock were hostesses. Miss Hauck the State nurse was in attendance with Mrs. C. E. Knickle. The clinic is held every Tuesday, from 2 to 4 p. m. The new children registered were Anna Felker and Bobbie Felker, of Reading.

MR. HARRY LEEDOM LEASES COAL YARDS

Mr. Harry Leedom, a very well known resident and former farmer, has leased the S. R. Snyder coal yards, until recently conducted by E. H. Zercher in the east end of town. Mr. Leedom has various sizes of coal for sale now and will be pleased to have a share of your patronage. He will also handle fertilizer, certified seed potatoes, salt, lime, etc. See his ad in another column.

Local Institute Held On Saturday

FORTY-FIVE COUNTY SCHOOL TEACHERS MET AND DISCUSSED VARIOUS TOPICS OF INTEREST.

On Saturday forty-five of the sixty teachers in the boroughs of Mt. Joy and Elizabethtown and Mount Joy and West Donegal townships, met in two very interesting sessions of local institute here.

Devotional Exercises were conducted by Rev. C. B. Segelken of town. The questions discussed at the morning sessions were, "What is Your Greatest Problem This Term?" and "What Can Be Done To Improve the Local Institute or What Can Take Its Place?" The discussions of these topics by members of the Institute were interesting and worth while. One problem stated was that of home study by the pupils.

All teachers were concerned about the quality of work accomplished and parents can do much to improve this by insisting on a certain amount of home study on the part of their children in the upper grades and High school.

In the business session which closed the morning program the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, I. L. Ebersole; Vice Pres., Rufus Eby; Sec., Florence Cavley; Treas., Edna Martin. In the afternoon session Mr. E. E. Sloat, of Elizabethtown, opened the discussion on the question, "To What Extent Are the Schools Responsible for Training for Citizenship?" An open discussion followed after which Dr. P. M. Harbold delivered a very able address on our modern educational problems. A few visitors were present at the session of the institute. It would be good if more of our people attended our educational meetings. Don't forget that you are always welcome to visit the schools. The institute adjourned at 3:00 o'clock.
