Monthly Session of Boro Council

PUMPING ENGINEER'S SALARY RAISED—LEGION EXONERATED—WANT BIDS FOR STONE AND OIL.

Borough council met in regular session on Monday evening with the following members present: Messrs George B. Zeller, Ross Eshleman, Joseph Witmer, Harvey Hawthorne, John Mearby, S. H. Miller and Burgess. In the absence of clerk Jacob Zeller, Mr. Ross Eshleman filled the chair.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Elizabethtown Borough asked permission to use the scarifier a week in May. Left in hands of street committee.

Report of Burgess
Mr. Engle reported the following collections during the month: $162 for pole tax, $5.50 from Southern Pipe Line Co., $14.50 license fees from peddlers, $29.50 for pole tax from Columbia Telephone Co.

Street Committee
Mr. Miller reported snow shoveling and stated work on repairing our streets will start as soon as weather permits.

The street committee was ordered to purchase patching oil. The committee was also instructed to get bids for road oil and stone and present them at the next regular meeting.

Water Committee
Mr. Hawthorne reported a number of repairs made at water works. The American Legion asked to be exonerated from paying water rent. Granted.

Finance Committee
Mr. Witmer reported the approval of all bills.

Property Committee
Mr. Eshleman reported check on door at Council chamber repaired and all other property in good condition.

Light Committee
Mr. Miller stated all lights in good shape. The light ordered placed on Henry street will be put up in the very near future.

Our pumping engineer George Shatz was given an increase of $7.50 per month to his present salary making his wages $92.50 per month. Friendship Fire Company asked council to have the name on the equipment fire insurance policy changed from Mount Joy Fire Company to Friendship Fire Company No. 1. So ordered.

Upon motion $1,000 was transferred from the water account to the sinking fund.

A motion passed to transfer $500 from the water account to the boro account.

The auditors' reports of the boro and water accounts were read and approved, ordered printed in the Mount Joy Bulletin and posters printed and distributed as usual.

The past few weeks numerous complaints have been presented that motorists going thru the boro deliberately ignore the traffic lights and other rules and regulations pertaining to traffic.

Future violations will be dealt with according to the full measure of the law, and any further threats made to the local police, will be dealt with as an extremely serious charge.

Council has decided that every possible effort would be made, in assisting the Burgess and the police to enforce the traffic laws and regulations.

After payment of bills council adjourned.

Consolidation of Schools Planned

TAXPAYERS AND SCHOOL DIRECTORS OF CONY TOWNSHIP WILL MEET TO DISCUSS IT MARCH 11

On Friday evening, March 11, the School Directors of Cony township will meet with the taxpayers and school patrons to consider plans for consolidating the schools of the township.

The "consolidation idea" looked upon as the correct method of operating township schools, has many followers in Cony and to get the matter in definite form, the school directors have issued the following statement:

At the solicitation of a number of citizens of Cony township a public meeting of all concerned has been called for March 11, 1927, at 7:30 P. M., in the Methodist church, Bainbridge, to discuss the advisability of building additions to our Bainbridge school, with the idea of consolidating the schools of said township.

Men prominent in social affairs in Pennsylvania, including Prof. A. P. Mylin, Superintendent of Schools, will address the meeting and lead the discussions.

Illustrated lectures will be given by Dr. Lee Driver, Superintendent of Consolidation of schools in Pennsylvania.

As a taxpayer you will be interested and nothing should keep you from attending this meeting. Remember the date, March 11th.

Following are the members of the Board: B. E. Hoffman, president; A. H. Engle, vice president; I. Scott Smith, secretary; Jos. K. Shoop, treasurer; and Harry M. Fink.

A SUNDAY IN THE EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Sunday, March 6, was another day of good things for Trinity Evangelical church. The Sunday School attendance was the highest for the quarter and three more new scholars were enrolled.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed in the morning service when Rev. N. Barr, a former pastor of the church, assisted the pastor in the sacrament. This was the largest communion for year with the reception of four new members into church fellowship.

All services of the day were attended beyond the average attendance, and were witnessed with interest and sincerity.

Next Sunday the offerings of the day continue to go toward the Annual Self-denial collection of the conference, which always is received during Lent.

There are seven more Sundays in this conference year, after which the pastor goes to Annual Conference. We invite you to share these Sundays with us.
