Mt. Joy's Recruits In The Civil War

OLD PAPER FOUND CONTAINING A LIST OF THE MEN DRAFTED AND AMOUNTS SUBSCRIBED.

It was while making alterations on the former Eberle building, on East Main street, that a copy of the Mt. Joy Star and News dated Friday, August 12, 1892, was found that contains some interesting history concerning Mount Joy citizens during the Civil War. There was a double floor in one part of this building and the paper referred to above was one of many that was found between the floors.

An article in the paper states that Dr. A. Gerber kindly furnished a report of the Finance Recruiting committee of Mount Joy for 1864. It gives a report of the committee appointed at a town meeting on the evening of the 22nd of January, 1864, to relieve the boro of Mount Joy from draft under the call for 500,000 troops by filling the quota with recruits obtained by means of local bounty.

Following are the names of all those who were included in the draft and the amount contributed by each:

Atlee, Joseph B., $15; Allys, F. H., $10; Brady, L. P., $20; Brady, David, $20; Brewer, W. C., $10; Breneman, John J., $10; Brunner, Peter, $10; Brandt, Michael, $10; Boyce, David, $10; Barr, Henry, $30; Buohl, Christian, $25; Beckley, S. P., $20; Bear, S. R., $30; Barnhart, Israel, $25; Culp, Abram, L., $20; Culp, Abram, B., $10; Coble, H., $20; Cook, H., $15; Cassel, Jac. E., $20; Dean, Benjamin E., $10; Dellinger, Andrew, $25; Donovan, $10; Dunlap, H. B., $25; Eshleman, Samuel, $20; Donaghy, William, Samuel, $25; Eckart, Samuel H., $20; Evans, John, $20; Easho, S. S., $10; Ebersole, Franklin, $15; Frank, Philip, $5; Fullerton, Henry, $10, Fairst, Daniel, $15; Fach, George, (Turn to page 4.)

Planning For The Family Reunion

ENGLE CLAN WILL MEET AT ELIZABETHTOWN COLLEGE JULY 11TH-PRELIMINARY MEETING HELD.

A number of the Engle family met at the home of Mr. Simon Engle at Elizabethtown to consider holding a family reunion this summer.

On motion Mr. Morris Engle, of Hummelstown was named and elected president; H. H. Engle, Mt. Joy, vice president; Mrs. C. C. Keiser, Maytown, secretary; Mr. Paris Engle, Bainbridge, treasurer; Mr. Jno. K. Miller, historian and chorister.

The president appointed a number of heads of committees, who will report at a meeting to be held at the home of C. C. Keiser Maytown, Thursday, April 7.

The date when the reunion will be held was fixed on July 14, at Elizabethtown College.

Further particulars as to the reunion will be published from time to time and it is earnestly hoped that everybody connected with the family directly or indirectly will realize that he or she has been invited not only to attend, but to pass the word along so all may hear that there will be an Engle reunion next July 14 at Elizabethtown College—the first the family has ever had, and matters of real interest to every one of the family will be brought to their notice.

Kidnapping In Town Last Sunday

MOTHER TAKES DAUGHTER FROM HOME HERE WITHOUT ANY INTERFERENCE—CHILD IS AT LITITZ

There was quite a lot of excitement on West Donegal street here Sunday afternoon when a lady kidnapped her daughter. There was no interference, however, although all kinds of reports were circulated.

Little Miss Anna Gibbons, aged about five years, was living with the family of C. Gibbons, corner Donegal street and Comfort Alley. This little girl also spent some time with other relatives at intervals.

Late Sunday afternoon, when the family of Clarence Gibbons were seated at the table, a car drove up to the front door and the girl's mother quickly alighted, came into the house and snatched the child without saying a word to anyone. The child was rushed into the car followed by the mother, who then hastened the child to Lititz.

There will be no interference on the part of anyone as the mother is really entitled to her child, the only excitement being the manner in which the little one was taken.

BROUGHT SEVERAL CHARGES AGAINST HERMAN SNYDER

A warrant for the arrest of Herman Snyder, Rheims, for violating the automobile laws was sworn out in Elizabethtown Monday, said Chief of Police Pastorius, of that place, after Snyder's car had crashed into another driven by E. Albert, 425 Broad street, Harrisburg, on the Harrisburg pike at the intersection of the Colebrook road, just east of Rheims.

The two motorists are said to have engaged in a fight after the crash, after which Snyder ran and disappeared in a nearby field.

Albert appeared before Chief of Police Pastorius and Sergeant Thomas and Snavely of the State Highway patrol and signed a complaint. Snyder is accused of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor and failing to render assistance after an accident. Both cars were badly damaged. Albert charges that Snyder was driving on the left side of the road.

At a hearing before Justice of the Peace Elwood S. Grimm, of Elizabethtown, Snyder was held for trial in the April term of Quarter Sessions court on three charges. In default of bail he was committed to jail.

Boys' Week Will Be Observed Here

WONDERFUL PREPARATIONS ARE BEING MADE TO SHOW THE BOYS A REAL BUSY TIME ALL WEEK.

A big parade on Saturday afternoon April 30th, will formally inaugurate Boys Week in this part of Lancaster County. This same feature will take place at the same time all over the United States, Canada, Mexico and about thirty five foreign countries. Millions of boys will be on parade that afternoon.

This end of Lancaster County is counting on your help to put on a big parade. We urge every organization in this vicinity to marshal its boys, enter them in the parade and help show the country that we are going to help our boys grow up into useful citizenship.

Decide as promptly as possible how many boys you can enter, help them organize a marching club build a float, or a stunt of some kind. The more original you make your entry the better it will be. If (Turn to Page 5)
