

The Mount Joy Bulletin

VOL. XXVII, No. 22

MOUNT JOY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1927

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

You Can Not Stimulate Your Business This Fall Without Advertising. Just Try These Columns

Prize Awards At Community Show

LIST OF SUCCESSFUL ONES AT OUR SIXTH ANNUAL EXHIBIT WHICH CLOSED SATURDAY NIGHT

Following is a complete list of all the awards made at the Sixth Annual Community Exhibit held here on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week:

Fancy Work
Braided Rugs: Mrs. Allen Coble, 1st; Mrs. C. J. Musser, 2nd; Mrs. D. C. Felker, 3rd. Hooked Rugs: Mrs. Amanda Binkley, 1st; Mrs. Walter Brosey, 2nd; Mrs. Elias Bradley, 3rd. Towels: Barbara Nissley, 1st; Mrs. D. C. Felker, 2nd; Esther Rohrer, 3rd. Pillow Cases: Barbara Nissley, 1st; Mrs. D. C. Felker, 2nd; Mrs. Richard Zook, 3rd. Table Scarf: Mrs. Geo. Brown, 1st; Mrs. Richard Zook, 2nd; Mrs. Arthur Mumma, 3rd. Dolly Crocheted edg.: Mrs. Richard Zook, 1st; Mrs. George Brown, 2nd; Mrs. Ralph Whye, 3rd. Pillow Cases: Mrs. P. S. Brubaker, 1st; Mrs. D. C. Felker, 2nd; Mrs. Norman Nissley, 3rd. House Dress: Mrs. D. C. Felker, 1st; Mrs. Clarence Garber, 2nd.

Luncheon Sets
Barbara Nissley, first; Esther Rohrer, second; Mrs. Wm. Diefenderfer, third; colored vanity set, A. Mary Stoner, first; Mrs. R. Whye, second; Mrs. D. C. Felker, third; colored buffet set, A. Mary Stoner, first; Edna Young, second. Embroidered doily, Ellen Longenecker, first; Mrs. Ellen Rider, second; A. Mary Stoner, third. Nightgown, Mrs. A. E. Felker, first; Mrs. D. C. Felker, second.

THE TRAINING CAMP AT MT. GRETTA WILL REMAIN

All talk of removing the National Guard Training Camp at Mount Gretna was quieted when bids were called by the State Arsenal Department for the erection of 29 combination mess halls and kitchens and extra target ranges at Mount Gretna.

These bids are to be in by November 3.

Marriage Licenses
Jacob S. Geltmacher, of Newton, and Beulah I. Mumma, of this borough, were granted a marriage license at Harrisburg Saturday.

Road We Must All Travel Sometime

MANY WELL KNOWN PEOPLE HAVE PASSED TO THE GREAT BEYOND

John K. Myres, aged 81, died at the Oreville Mennonite Home.

Eva, wife of Leonard Birk, died at Mountville Saturday night aged 42 years.

Mary, widow of Christian C. Kraft, died at Columbia, aged 72 years.

Thomas E. Richards, aged 35, died at Columbia. He was operated on for appendicitis.

Mrs. Charles E. Murray, formerly of Columbia, died at Harrisburg aged 82 years.

Robert Boone
Robert Boone, of the Masonic Homes, Elizabethtown, died on Friday afternoon at the Lancaster General Hospital of a complication of diseases, aged 81 years. Services were held Tuesday at the Homes, with interment in the Masonic cemetery.

Miss Anna F. Ruhl
Miss Ann F. Ruhl, daughter of Mrs. Sara Ruhl, died on Friday (Turn to page 5)

Postmaster Examination
The U. S. Civil Service Commission will hold an examination of applicants for the position of Postmaster at Bainbridge, such persons to appear at the Marietta Post office. The receipt of application blanks will close November 23. The office pays $1,085 yearly. Blanks may be secured at the Bainbridge office.

Good Quartette Coming
Mr. I. C. Snyder and male quartette, of Altoona, will be with the Church of God on Saturday evening, November 12, and all day on Sabbath, November 13. Be sure and hear them.

Farm Was Withdrawn
The Benjamin F. Gerber farm, south of town, was offered at public sale last week and was withdrawn at $180 per acre.

Election Officer Appointed
A. S. Hoffman was appointed as judge of election in Elizabethtown, to succeed E. L. Ream, resigned.

MORE OF THE HOFFMAN PROPERTIES ARE SOLD

Saturday afternoon several more properties of Norman R. Hoffman were sold at public sale by I. Scott Smith, trustee in bankruptcy. Four lots of ground in Bainbridge were sold to John Orth, chairman of the Creditors' Protective Committee for $375. A 50 foot lot in Bainbridge was bought by Monroe Smith for $300. Three lots in Bainbridge were bought by W. G. Hawthorne for $313. The one story frame warehouse in Bainbridge was bought by Henry Hawthorne for $800. A warehouse, known as the "Tan House," was bought by the Creditors' Protective Committee for $655 and also a 200 foot lot in Bainbridge for $651. Four lots were bought by Monroe Smith for $711. John E. Malone was the attorney for the trustee and C. S. Frank was the auctioneer.

Celebrate Golden Anniversary

MR. AND MRS. W. BIGLER DETWILER, ON WEST MAIN ST., MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Detwiler quietly celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home here.

Mr. W. Bigler Detwiler, the son of Joseph Detwiler, and Miss Emma Hoffman, the daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth Rhodes Hoffman, were united in marriage by the Rev. Shoop on the Hoffman homestead in Conoy township.

Four children were born to this union, all of whom are living: Mrs. Parthena Wright, of Harrisburg; Joseph Detwiler, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Mabel Rohrer, of New York City, and Mrs. Beulah Rohrer, of this place. There are also the following grandchildren: Burchard E. Wright, Helen D. Wright, Benjamin Rohrer, Mary Elizabeth Rohrer, Mabel Detwiler and Gloria May Rohrer.

A splendid dinner was enjoyed by the following guests: Mrs. Parthena D. Wright and children, Burchard E. and Helen D., of Harrisburg; Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Rohrer, of New York City, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. (Turn to page Four.)

MAIL APPLICATIONS 1928 AUTO LICENSES

The bureau of motor vehicles of the State Highway Department on Thursday began the task of mailing application forms of the 1,500,000 motor car owners of Pennsylvania for their 1928 license plates.

A booklet of sixty-four pages containing the new motor vehicle law, which is a modification of the State's motor laws, will be received by each motorist.

SALES OF HOFFMAN PROPERTIES SHOW PROFIT

The creditors' protective committee of the M. R. Hoffman Leaf Tobacco Co. and the members individually, met Wednesday at the court house to hear a report of the committee on the sale of the properties. All the properties disposed of brought more than the appraised value, which will show profit for the banks who entered into the agreement for the sales.

We Congratulate You
Richard Latchford had his first birthday recently.

Winifred Latchford also had her birthday recently.

Harold Schatz, Jr., had his second birthday on Sunday.

Mr. Frank Shatto celebrated his birthday last Thursday.

Mr. Walter Derr is celebrating his birthday this week.

Miss Pauline Henry celebrated her birthday on Tuesday.

Harry Weidman, Sr., celebrated his birthday last Monday.

Injured by Fall
Thrown from his bicycle when struck by an automobile while returning from the Union school on Thursday evening, Lewis Diller, aged 12 years, residing at the home of Clarence Greider, of Mount Joy, R. D., was slightly injured. The boy suffers minor cuts and bruises about the body.

Children's Meeting
The Church of Brethren at Florin will hold a Children's Day program on Sunday at 2 o'clock. The Rev. B. W. S. Ebersole will be present.

Spoke at Paradise
Rev. C. E. Knickle, rector of the Episcopal church here, spoke at the Sunday morning service and conducted the Holy Communion at All Saints Episcopal church, Paradise.

Now Selling Chryslers
Mr. C. N. Mumma, who was a member of E. B. Rohrer's sales force, resigned and has accepted a similar position with Mr. John Longenecker, local Chrysler distributor.

County Teachers Institute Nov. 14-18

THE SEVENTY-FIFTH SESSION WILL BE HELD IN ST. PAUL'S REFORMED CHURCH, LANCASTER.

The 75th session of the Lancaster County Teachers' Institute will be held in St. Paul's Reformed church, Lancaster, November 14-18.

The speakers so far announced include: Dr. E. E. Kresge of Franklin and Marshall College, whose address will mark the opening of the institute; Dr. Charles H. Gordinier, principal of Millersville Normal school; Dr. Paul G. Chandler, professor of Education at Millersville Normal school; Hon. A. G. Seyfert, Lancaster; Dr. J. Linwood Eisenberger, principal of Slippery Rock Normal school; Dr. Frank D. Slutz, principal of Morraine Park school, Dayton, Ohio; Dr. Robert C. Shaw, Deputy superintendent of Public Instruction, Harrisburg; Mrs. Jesse B. Dotterer, director of elementary education of Cheltenham township, public schools; Dr. Martin D. Witmer, professor of English at Ursinus College; Dr. Hilton Ira Jones, noted scientist teacher, Chicago; Jesse Pugh, noted humorist; Harold D. (Private Peat) World War Veteran in the Canadian army.

Special music will be furnished by the Elizabethtown High School, under direction of Earl B. Landis, music supervisor.

A combined chorus of the Akron, Strasburg and Marietta high schools, under direction of C. N. McHose, music supervisor, will also furnish music.

Mrs. Elsa Meiskey, Lancaster, soprano soloist, will sing several several numbers.

The program for the institute is now being worked out and will be announced within two weeks.

Keller's Private Sale
J. B. Keller & Brother, will have a carload of Ohio coats, at private sale, on Friday, October 28, consisting of Jersey, Holsteins, Brindles, and some very choice Guernseys, among them.

Poultry Meeting Today
The Poultry Record Association will hold its final meeting for the season in the Marietta street school building here today.

They Were Lucky
During the Community Exhibit here last week our local merchants gave away a number of prizes as follows:

Bernhart's Store: Thursday evening, Blanket, Mrs. Ada Koser, North Barbara Street, this place; Friday evening, Roast Pan, Mrs. R. Kretzing, East Main Street, this place and Saturday evening, Umbrella, Marie Forry, R. D. Littitz.

S. H. Miller, prize at exhibit Saturday evening, electric Waffle Iron to Edward Weaver, West Main Street, this place.

Letters Granted
Letters were granted at the court house as follows:

Adelaide Kline, administratrix of Carrie Druckenmiller, late of Mt. Joy.

Harry H. Grosh and Anna H. Buller, administrators of Henry W. Grosh, late of Mt. Joy.

Banking Course
A banking course through which the students of the Mt. Joy Junior High school are taught to save a percentage of their earnings each week, is being conducted by the faculty members of the Junior high school.

Fancy Work & Food Sale
The Needle Guild of the Trinity Lutheran Church will hold their annual Christmas Fancy Work and Food sale in the Ricksecker Building on Saturday, Dec. 3rd.

Right Thing To Do
Elizabethtown's borough council is considering a public comfort station for its square and is also making an effort to secure a silk mill and shoe factory for that borough.

LYCEUM COURSE FOR MAYTOWN SCHOOLS

The pupils of the Maytown High School are having a successful campaign of ticket selling for the Lyceum Course to be given under the auspices of the High School. The season tickets are going fast and the house will be filled every night.

There are five numbers in the course which opens on Monday, October 31, with the Frazers, The Detric Company will be the second attraction on Saturday, December 10. The third number is Robert O. Briggs, lecturer and cartoonist. He is followed by The Brownie Trio on Wednesday, February 22, a musical company. The last number is Saturday, March 17, when the Slout Players will bring their play entitled "Sally From Our Alley."

All season tickets are reserved for the entire course.

The Entertainers and Their Guests

VISITORS WHO CALLED ON THEIR FRIENDS IN THIS LOCALITY AND WERE PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED

At John Newcomer's
Bank Director and Mrs. John W. Newcomer entertained a number of guests at dinner at their home on West Main Street Sunday.

With Eli Bentzel's
Mr. and Mrs. Eli Bentzel, on New Haven street, entertained the following on Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rice, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Wade Butler and son, of Baltimore, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bentzel and son, Robert of this place.

With John Pennypacker's
Mr. John Pennypacker and daughters had a number of guests over the week end which included: Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mowery, of Hershey; Mr. and Mrs. Blottenberger and daughters, of Elizabethtown. (Turn to page 5)

SCHOOLS HERE ORGANIZE A LITERARY SOCIETY

The annual Literary Society of the schools has been reorganized for another year, and the following persons have been elected to the respective offices: President, Robert Schroll; secretary, Edna Charles, and editor, Anna Weber.

During the past week the first session of the local literary society was held, which proved to be one of exceptional merit.

A program committee was appointed for the purpose of arranging the various programs of the society throughout the year.

Other committees have also been appointed to execute other portions of work, which is required by the local Literary Society.

DIVORCED AND MARRIED AGAIN IN EIGHT DAYS

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Mrs. Flora Metzger Villoe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Metzger, of Columbia, and Carl G. Orthwein, of Philadelphia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. A. M. Mehrikam, of St. John's Lutheran church Columbia, at the home of the bride's parents. After a wedding trip to Lynchburg, Virginia, and other places they will reside at Philadelphia. Just eight days before the wedding, the bride was divorced from Edgar R. Villoe, a leading business man of Marietta.

Starlipper-Krall
Miss Margaret Krall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Krall, of town, and J. Cameron Starlipper, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Starlipper, of Chambersburg, were united in marriage at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in the Lutheran church, the Rev. George A. Kercher performing the ceremony. They were unattended. After a wedding trip to New Orleans, where they will visit relatives they will reside in Philadelphia.

The bride is a graduate of Mount Joy High school and Temple University, Philadelphia. She was physical director in high school at Chambersburg for the past two years. The bridegroom is employed in the offices of the West Philadelphia Railroad Company.

Building an Addition
The Bachman Chocolate Manufacturing Company is erecting an addition to its factory to provide more room for the milk chocolate business. This is one of our best industries and is surely growing.

Suit For $1,000
Suit has been entered in the Common Pleas Court by Charles W. Eby, attorney, for Daniel E. Brubaker, of Ephrata, against William A. Miller, Mount Joy, to recover $1,000 damages as the result of an automobile accident.

Property Withdrawn
Mr. Albert Strickler offered his property at Florin, at public sale at the office of Henry G. Carpenter last Tuesday evening. No one attended the sale.

$200 Reward For Hit and Run Drivers

LANCASTER AUTO CLUB WILL START DRIVE TO ELIMINATE THIS MENACE TO TRAFFIC 138 NEW MEMBERS

At the October meeting of the Lancaster Automobile Club, held Friday night in the high school building at White Horse, it was decided to offer a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of hit-and-run drivers in this county. The Pennsylvania Motor Federation has also offered a similar sum for the same purpose, making the amount $200, which should spur officials to break up this practice.

The club went on record as favoring the construction of a hard surface road from the Old Philadelphia pike to New Holland where it joins the Horseshoe pike, or Sprout High.

(Turn to Page 4)

HORSE AND WAGON STOLEN NEAR ELIZABETHTOWN

The Amos R. Herr farm near Elizabethtown was robbed Friday night of a horse and spring wagon a pair of hogs and 15 bushels of potatoes.

It is apparent that two or more men assisted in the robbery. The barn, the hog pen and another building were broken open. Neighbors reported having heard a wagon go down the road about two o'clock. The horse was traced to Campbellstown by State Police and there the trail was lost.

The total loss is about $250.

FLORIN MAN GETS DAMAGE FOR KILLING OF HIS MULE

The jury in the case of John Ricedorf, of near Florin, against Nelson S. Sentz, returned a verdict in favor of the defendant.

Ricedorf sought $175 damages from Sentz for the killing of a mule on the Harrisburg pike, at the Ricedorfe home on January 30. Sentz was alleged to have struck the animal while driving his auto at a reckless rate of speed on the highway.

New Licenses December 15
The 1928 motor vehicle license plates may be used on and after December 15, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, announced last Thursday. No extension will be made for use of 1927 licenses after midnight of December 31, Benjamin G. Fynon, state registrar, said.

Young Folks Are Joined in Wedlock

NUMBER OF VERY WELL KNOWN YOUNG FOLKS ARE JOINED IN THE HOLY BONDS OF MARRIAGE

Musser-Reed
Elias Z. Musser, son of Rev. and Mrs. I. W. Musser, of near Mount Joy, and Viola Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Reed, of near Elizabethtown, were married Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Bishop L. O. Musser, at his home, assisted by the father of the bridegroom, Rev. I. W. Musser.

The couple left on a trip to Washington, D. C., and other points of interest, and on their return, will be at home on the farm adjoining that of Rev. I. W. Musser.

Starlipper-Krall
Miss Margaret Krall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Krall, of town, and J. Cameron Starlipper, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Starlipper, of Chambersburg, were united in marriage at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in the Lutheran church, the Rev. George A. Kercher performing the ceremony. They were unattended. After a wedding trip to New Orleans, where they will visit relatives they will reside in Philadelphia.

The bride is a graduate of Mount Joy High school and Temple University, Philadelphia. She was physical director in high school at Chambersburg for the past two years. The bridegroom is employed in the offices of the West Philadelphia Railroad Company.

Building an Addition
The Bachman Chocolate Manufacturing Company is erecting an addition to its factory to provide more room for the milk chocolate business. This is one of our best industries and is surely growing.

Suit For $1,000
Suit has been entered in the Common Pleas Court by Charles W. Eby, attorney, for Daniel E. Brubaker, of Ephrata, against William A. Miller, Mount Joy, to recover $1,000 damages as the result of an automobile accident.

Property Withdrawn
Mr. Albert Strickler offered his property at Florin, at public sale at the office of Henry G. Carpenter last Tuesday evening. No one attended the sale.

DAIRYMAN A. R. MARTIN MAKES AN ASSIGNMENT

Dairyman A. R. Martin, on Donegal street, who has had financial difficulties for some time, very suddenly and unexpectedly moved his household effects to Harrisburg last Wednesday. His store, milk and ice cream business which he was conducting, was abandoned.

On Friday Mr. Martin, entered a deed of assignment for the benefit of the creditors, in the recorder's office. It is in favor of Christian E. Charles. The property mentioned in the deed consists of a frame dwelling and shop on the south side of West Donegal street, Mount Joy situated on a lot 75 by 203 feet in size.

The assignee will arrange to continue the business in the very near future for the benefit of the creditors, we understand.

Local Doings Around Florin

ALL THE UP-TO-DATE HAPPENINGS FROM THAT THRIVING AND BUSY VILLAGE THE PAST WEEK

Mr. J. Ditzler and family spent Sunday with friends at Lebanon.

Mr. Benjamin Brubaker began his duty as mail carrier, on Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Wittel and daughter, Miss Clara, spent Saturday at Lancaster.

Mr. A. Peris and J. D. Easton motored to Penn Yan, N. Y. over the week end.

Rev. Brubaker preached the sermon at the United Brethren Church on Sunday.

Mr. W. H. Walker, of Downingtown, spent the week end with his son, L. H. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Roth and son John and Alvin Rutt, spent Sunday at Mount Alto.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schlegelmilch, returned home after spending several days at Charter Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Forney and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nissley visited friends at Shiremanstown on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Breneman spent Sunday at Elizabethtown as guests of her mother, Mrs. S. Z. Witmer.

Miss Lillian Olweiler, a teacher in the public schools at Hummelstown, spent the week end with her parents.

There will be a meeting of the directors of the Florin Hall Association in the hall on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Musseleman and children, of Lemoyn, spent Sunday with his father, Mr. H. S. Musseleman.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Walker and children and Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Walker motored to Downingtown, on Sunday.

THE REGULAR MEETING OF THE WELL BABY CLINIC

The Well Baby Clinic held its usual meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Legion Home.

There were 24 babies present with 17 mothers. The new registrations were two in number, viz Paul Thomas Buller, aged 2 1/2 years; Harold William Miller, 10 months, of Florin. Miss Martha Hancock, state nurse, was in charge. Dr. Workman was present with Mrs. C. E. Knickle as secretary.

The hostesses were Mrs. J. D. Newcomer and Mrs. E. W. Garber. The total registration at the clinic is 393.

Diphtheria Toxin - anti-toxin will be started next Tuesday. Parents can bring their children for first treatment.

3RD ANNUAL MASQUERADE BY KNIGHTS OF MALTAS

Thursday evening in their lodge room in Mount Joy Hall building the Knights of Maltas will hold their third annual masquerade party for the members and their families.

There will be games for old and young and lots of fun and eats. There will be prizes for men and ladies for the finest and most original costumes. There will also be a grand floor prize and everything will be free.

Manheim Girl Hurt
Virginia Dowell, aged 7, of Manheim, is at the Lancaster General Hospital with a fractured skull and possible internal injuries sustained when struck by an auto while leaving school.

Coming Next Wednesday
Rubin & Rubin, eyesight specialists of Harrisburg, will be at Chandler's Drug Store, Wednesday, Nov. 2 from 9:00 A. M. to 5 P. M. Don't forget the date.

Frank & Bros. Next Sale
C. S. Frank & Bro. will hold their next Community sale at their yards near Mount Joy on Friday evening, Nov. 4th, when they will sell the usual big lot of anything and everything.

Picked From Our Weekly Card Basket

PERSONAL MENTION ABOUT THE MANY COMERS AND GOERS IN THIS LOCALITY

Mrs. James Garber spent Friday at Lancaster.

Miss Martha Gibbons spent Sunday at Manheim with friends.

Mr. Harry Grosh spent a few days here as the guest of friends.

Miss Anna Webb and daughter, Betty Anne, visited at Lancaster on Sunday.

Miss Black, of Elizabethtown, visited Mr. and Mrs. Allen Schatz over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conner spent Sunday with M. Lyle Hornberger and family at Manheim.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Grosh and son, Howard, of Chicago, spent several days with Mrs. Ella Royer.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brown returned from Roanoke, Va., where they attended the Synod.

Mr. Earl Good and Mr. Arthur Nyer, of Manheim, visited friends in town Monday evening.

Mr. Charles M. Webb and family spent Sunday at Lancaster (Turn to Page 5)

ROTARY CLUB WILL HOLD LADIES' NIGHT TUESDAY

Dr. H. M. Kline, one of the instructors at F. & M., made an excellent address before the members of the Mount Joy Rotary Club here yesterday at the regular weekly luncheon at Stumpf's restaurant.

The club decided to celebrate Halloween next Tuesday evening by holding Ladies' Night at the Oaklyn Tea House, west of Elizabethtown.

As a special attraction the club has engaged the services of Charles Moore Caspell's Chanters. Mr. Caspell is now located at Hagerstown, Md., and has one of the best male quartets appearing before the public thruout his and adjoining states. We predict a banner attendance.

Recent Local Real Estate Matters

Realtor John E. Schroll on Monday consummated a local transaction whereby Mr. Harry E. Smith, purchased at private sale and on private terms the three story brick building and the one story frame annex, corner of Marietta and Walnut streets, from the owner Mr. Benjamin Groff. Mr. Smith at present conducts a restaurant and pool room in the brick building while Mr. Frank Yost occupies the frame building as a garage. The transfer will be made at once.

FARM WOMEN ELECT OFFICERS FOR TERM

Farm Women's Society, No. 8, held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Clarence Reist near Mt. Joy, on Saturday. Miss Agnes Ferriter, police woman of Lancaster, gave an address. The following officers were elected: President, Miss Anna Kellar, Elizabethtown; vice president, Mrs. D. Z. Witmer; recording secretary, Mrs. Clarence Reist; corresponding secretary, Miss Mabel Heisey; treasurer, Mrs. Robert Forney, Elizabethtown.

Boosters Held Banquet

The Boosters Club, consisting of the members and their ladies, thirty-nine to be exact, held a banquet at Chef's Place, near Anville, on Monday night. A three-piece orchestra from Lancaster, furnished the music and the affair was a big success.

A New Dairy

Messrs. Irvin and Elwood Martin, two well known young men of this place, have started a dairy here. They serve pure fresh milk daily and will be pleased to have a share of your patronage. See their ad on another page.

Gives $1,000 Bail

Samuel Kline, of Marietta, was arrested Monday charged with felonious assault and battery with intent to kill in connection with the shooting of Mrs. Earl B. Hertzler, at Harrisburg. He was released on $1,000 bail.

Florin Community Sale

The next Community Sale at the Florin Hall, Florin, Pa., will be held Friday evening, Oct. 28, Nov. 11, 25 at Florin Hall, 6:30 o'clock P. M. They will sell live stock, implements household goods, etc. Don't forget the time and the dates. Oct-5-27