Rapho Township To Improve Schools

FOUR DIRECTORS AND COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT MYLIN MADE A TOUR OF INSPECTION

The regular meeting of the Rapho township school board was held last Saturday at Sporting Hill. The teachers' salaries together with a number of current bills were ordered to be paid. Secretary J. W. Moyer was directed to represent the board at the State School Directors' Convention in session at Harrisburg last week.

On account of the pressure being brought on by the State Department of Public Instruction for better school accommodations in certain of the northern end schools four of the members of the board together with County Superintendent Mylin and Assistant Superintendent Geist were on an inspection trip to Leacock, East Earl, Brecknock and Ephrata townships. Special attention was given to two room and four room buildings which were erected during the past few years. All of the buildings inspected were built according to the specifications of the State Department. They were modern and practical.

NISSLY CASES WILL BE HEARD MONDAY, MAR. 5

BUICK SEDAN RAN INTO A TELEPHONE POLE

There was an auto accident in town late Sunday afternoon and just how five young men from here escaped with their lives was more of a miracle than anything else.

Messrs. John Rollman, Sylvester Hendrix, Carl Engle, Donald Bishop and George Klugh were coming up Main street in Rollman's Buick sedan. Traveling in the same direction was Mr. John Lehman, of Landisville, in a Dodge sedan. As both cars reached the intersection of Jacob street, Mr. Rollman tried to pass Mr. Lehman.

The latter made a left hand turn, and seeing the Rollman car coming he, Stehman stopped. The Buick being unable to stop, struck the other car and then banged into a telephone pole on the Engle corner. The Buick which was taken to Tryon's garage, was badly wrecked while the occupants were only slightly injured.

Mr. Bishop was cut about the wrist and was attended to by Dr. D. C. Stoner. Mr. Engle sustained cuts on his head and was attended by Dr. A. F. Snyder. The other three occupants escaped with bumps and bruises.

The Lehman car was only slightly damaged and all the occupants escaped unhurt.

News Concerning Our Fire Company

HELD A PUBLIC MEETING FRIDAY NIGHT TO CONSIDER HOUSING THEIR ENTIRE EQUIPMENT—APPOINTMENTS MADE

A large number of local business men met with the local firemen in the Council Chamber last Friday evening to discuss the matter of building suitable headquarters for housing the present fire equipment. Some suggested that a municipal building be erected to replace the present housing headquarters for the fire equipment, as well as a suitable Post Office building.

It was suggested that a petition be circulated among the citizens of Mount Joy to determine if they desire such a building.

It was suggested that such a petition be drawn up by a Petition Committee, after which the meeting was adjourned until the call of the chairman.
