Local Missionary Home On Furlough

MRS. NAOMI LADY, OF SOUTH RHODESIA, A BRETHREN IN CHRIST WORKER IN THE FAR EAST

Mrs. Naomi Lady and son, David, of Bulawayo, South Rhodesia, South Africa, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wolgemuth on Saturday. Mrs. Lady also spoke at the cottage prayer meeting on Saturday evening at the home of Graybill Wolgemuth, near Mt. Pleasant church.

Mrs. Lady has been a Brethren in Christ Missionary for the past nine years and is now on a year and a half's furlough in this country. Some times the missionaries are allowed more, on account of their health or other conditions.

Mrs. Lady and her son made the trip from Bulawayo to Capetown by railroad; from Capetown to England they had passage on the steamship "Beltana," requiring 24 days; they traveled on the steamship "Celtic," requiring ten days. They were overdue when traveling on both boats, due to the very stormy seas. The journey was made by herself and son, her husband (Turn to Page Six)

DONEGAL FARMER GETS $1,200 FOR LAND TAKEN

Henry Beshler, of Maytown, has been awarded $1,200 by viewers for land taken in condemnation proceedings by the school board of Maytown. The viewers were Willis G. Kenig, H. H. Koser and George W. Hensel.

A hearing was held in the Court House Thursday, when a number of witnesses were heard. Beshler values his ground at $1,000 per acre, and there were other witnesses who gave similar testimony. The land taken includes about 2 1/4 acres on a five-acre tract. It was alleged that the best part of the farm was taken for the school site.

For the school board, a number of witnesses testified the land was worth $150 to $200 per acre for farm land. The school board also will provide a playground.

A LOCAL HARPISIT WILL PLAY AT PHILADELPHIA

OBJECT IN THROAT IS FATAL TO CHILD

Edward Thomas Murphy, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy, of Rheems, died Saturday afternoon after he fell from the porch at the home of his parents during a coughing spell. The child is said to have started coughing when he swallowed an object which became lodged in his throat.

Dr. I. S. Simons, of Elizabethtown, was summoned, but he arrived just a few minutes before the child died and was unable to remove the object before death occurred. Neither the physician nor the parents were able to learn what the child swallowed. No autopsy was held.

Besides the parents, these sisters survive: Margaret, Mary, Catherine, and Anna, at home. Services were held Tuesday morning at the home, with burial in Mt. Tunnel cemetery.

The School Board Of Rapho Township

ALL MEMBERS RESIGNED EXCEPT TWO—TWO WERE RE-ELECTED BUT WHO THE FIFTH WILL BE IS A QUESTION

There is quite a mixup in the school directorate of Rapho township at present. Our readers will remember the election of Cyrus Good and then the ousting proceedings which have been in progress. The situation as it now stands is best explained in the following article taken from the last issue of the Manheim Sentinel:

"In our last issue of March ninth we called attention to the controversy then in progress concerning the legality of the election of Cyrus H. Good as a member of the school board of Rapho township. It was stated at that time that the matter had been taken to the Court of Quarter Sessions and that decision was awaited following argument (Turn to Page 4.)

Summer House Damaged

Out firemen were called out Saturday afternoon to extinguish flames at the home of Mrs. Alice Hoffman, on North Barbara street, where the summer house in the rear of the dwelling caught fire. Only a small portion of the roof was burned due to the quick response of our firemen. The origin of the fire is not known.

Mount Joy Girls County Champions

LOCAL TEAM DECISIVELY DEFEATED ST. ANTHONY TEAM OF LANCASTER LAST THURSDAY NIGHT

Among other things, Mount Joy has the champion Girls basket ball team of Lancaster county. That question was settled at Lancaster last Thursday evening when the local sextette, for the second time this season, met and easily defeated its nearest rival, the St. Anthony team, by a score of 38 to 21.

Mount Joy played a wonderful defensive and offensive game. The guarding of our girls can be ascertained by the fact that Miss Long, who is the county's leading scorer, could only get two field goals while Miss Toland had one and Miss Reiner five.

Due to the assistance of Al Boyer, of Lititz, the Lancaster ladies were given quite a boost at fouls as he called anything and everything (Turn to page eight.)
