Our great party's attitude on farm-relief seems to be that, if tariff revision downward on the big campaign contributors is necessary to attain the desired end, then the farmer doesn't need any relief.
We aren't sure whether a donkey will eat that weed known to the botanists as strangulus rotulus, and to others as loco weed, but we have an idea that it is out Houston way that it grows.

ORIENTAL MUSIC TO FEATURE CANTATA

The boys' and girls' Glee Clubs, of the Landisville High School, under the supervision of Mrs. B. Froence Swarr, music supervisor, and Miss Eleanor Klemm, of the school faculty, have begun work on a cantata to be given at their musical program in a few weeks in the High school auditorium.

The story begins with the first day's journey by camel train across the great Arabian desert. The charms, passions and roving disposition of the orientals are pictured as the caravan of over-seers, slaves, and travelers pursue their journey on the swaying camels after bidding farewell to those remaining behind in the city. Then comes the guards' stirring song as it leads the procession to an oasis, where the weary travelers prepare to spend the night under the gently waving palms. Hardly is their evening prayer to Allah finished when a band of roving Bedouins attempts a surprise attack, but are repulsed by the guarding sentinel's sound of "all's well." After a song to the rising moon, the travelers seek rest and a short instrumental nocturne marks the passing of darkness. At dawn the procession begins to a resounding martial chorus to proceed on the second day's journey.
The time of this performance is about thirty minutes, and the stirring and weird oriental chants as well as the color and variety of music, are a rare treat and will delight every music lover.

Livestock shippers should take pains to protect animals from injuries that will cripple them while they are on the way to market. At one of the large markets two scales are provided for weighing crippled hogs. Last year 30,585 animals with a total weight of nearly 7,000,000 pounds were weighed over these scales. Four firms purchased these animals at a discount of from $2 to $2.50 per cwt. The loss to the shippers can be calculated easily, and much of it might have been avoided by proper care in loading.

The Marine commander in Nicaragua says that the natives are really very friendly. The pursuit of Sandino, you see, just shows the Marines' deep desire for companionship.

This is considerably larger than the total number of farmers served by cooperatives as farmers served by cooperatives are some farmers belong to two associations, some to three, and a few to four.

We'd laugh if Senator Borah would now get out a questionnaire propounding a few specific queries on the primary responsibility for the old scandals and present it to all the favorite sons, including ours of course.

Briefly Told

More tax; less tax. His clothes may make the man, but hers oft break him. Maybe a visit from Lindy would help the Houston convention.

Little more aviation and we'll have to start zoning the ozone. Democrats boast harmony—but factions speak louder than words. Texas frog lived thirty-one years in a corner-stone. It wouldn't croak. The next great European war will make the world safe for Orientals.

The trouble with a platform promise seems to be that it has no due date. Vicious criminals get too much rope of wrong sort and too little of right sort. Gold filling keeps the teeth from hurting, especially the teeth of the criminal code.

Favorite sons prove nothing, except that you can't trust the judgment of parents. It may be possible for a man to have more money than brains, but not for very long. The race is getting healthier, authorities say—but not the race to the railroad crossing.

A Georgia judge has decided that a husband is merely "a figurehead." And how he has to figure! The United States and Mexico are now on capital terms, with Mexico needing the capital.

The reason why the woman pays and pays and pays is because she buys on the installment plan. "United States to Meet Mexico at Tennis." Mr. Morrow will doubtless wish for a love match. The doom of warfare sounded when patriots began to rob the home folks instead of the enemy.

Anyhow, and at the very worst, Senator Willis is our great commonwealth's favorite son pro tem. Soviet Russia's disarmament gesture somehow carries the suggestion of a dove hatched in a buzzard's nest. Some Democrats are trying to dig up a running-mate for Al Smith and others are looking for a check-mate.

Can't the Interborough Rapid Transit Company and its employees compromise on a sort of companionship union? Once upon a time America was connected with Europe by means of a lost continent instead of a lost loan.

The fashion editor says that extreme latitude is now allowed in neckties, but we don't notice any longitude. The nation's doctor bill is now a million and a half a day, but apples are not cheap, either. What to do? What to do?

Psychoanalysis will be more valued which can be used more to prevent crime instead of exculpating criminals. We often wonder why they are called the secrets of success. Everybody is always telling them to everybody else.

However, after his experience in the Mississippi Valley, it was to be expected that Mr. Hoover would have dry leanings. About the only frills and furbelows now extant are those pantallete effects on lamb chops and roast chicken legs.

A railroad appoints a florist to beautify with flowers. Now let it appoint an official burglar to jimmy open the car windows. Washington views the outlook as favorable for agriculture as a whole. No reference is made to agriculturists in the hole.

A pessimist is a man who judges the unemployment situation by the number of persons who are preparing to run for office this year. During its lifetime, the oyster produces about 50,000,000 eggs. It's a good thing for quiet seaside resorts that oysters don't cackle.

Uncle Sam's role at the Pan-American Conference seemed to be an attempt to make olive branches grow on the Big Stick. If the fuelless motor proves practical, the only thing needed to make the automobile complete would be a driverless back seat. And now official circles in Indiana ought to get together and raise a monument to the man who invented the statute of limitations.

A horned toad has lived thirty-one years entombed in a corner-stone. Vice-Presidential possibilities might study the toad's technique. Maybe Mr. Lowden closed his New York headquarters merely because the New York City farmers are not so much in need of relief.

The old intrepid, daredevil spirit of the West is not dead yet, and we see that a man out in New Mexico hekkled Jim Reed the other day. Colonel Lindbergh has very calmly flown over and above the advice that he abandon flying, so the chances are it wouldn't do any good to suggest to Senator Heflin that he give up public speaking to conserve his voice.

We have arrived at a happy solution of the subway problem. Let us keep the five-cent fare and have the Interborough Rapid Transit's annual deficit paid by that generous sugar papa, the Continental Trading Company. At a conference on agriculture at the London School of Economics Mr. G. K. Chesterton gave an address on "The Fallacy of Mass Production." Still, England has no cause to regret having produced Mr. Chesterton.

Mr. Wilbur, Secretary of the Navy, jumps the critics of the $740,000,000 Navy program and recalls that the women in 1925 spent $1,825,000,000 on cosmetics. But, Mr. Secretary, just consider one catches 'em and the other kills 'em.

The School Board Of Rapho Township

which was scheduled for last Monday.

The facts and developments were about as follows: At the time of the election last November there were three vacancies to be filled on the school board. The County Commissioners in having the ballots printed stated "vote for two" which was an error. The republican candidates were A. H. Bucher and Amos Shelly and Cyrus Good on the democratic ticket. Instead of voting for two the electors should have been instructed to vote for three. Mr. Good being the third highest had his papers properly filled out and entered upon his duties as a director and member of the board.

After serving several months the question of his legality was raised and ouster proceedings started. Good took the position that the ballots defective as it had not been properly prepared in the office of the County Commissioners, and maintained that if he was illegally elected then the other successful candidates also were improperly chosen.

After several conferences the three men arrived at an agreement and all of the members resigned as members of the board. Immediately following the resignations the two remaining members J. W. Moyer, called a special meeting and A. H. Bucher to board membership. Following this another meeting was called and Amos Shelly elected as the fourth member of the board. This action replaced the two republican members who had received that highest number of votes at the election in November back on the board again.

This action leaves a vacancy of one member of the board for the present board has thirty days in which to fill this vacancy. Who the lucky man will be has not been intimated by the present directors although it is understood that there are a number of candidates. What Mr. Good's chances are for being elected to the vacancy could not be learned as the present directors are not willing to discuss the matter to the point of intimating who might be called upon to fill the vacancy.

Mammoth-Cave Wonders
Both Green and Nolin rivers, in the Mammoth cave, are points of interest for the fisherman, the swimmer, the canoeist, the motorboat fan, and for any other to whom the flow of clean, limpid waters is a lure. Green river is said to be the deepest river for its size in the world; at some points, in fact, it is said to have a depth of 80 feet. Into it flow the underground streams, such as Echo river and the River Styx, from the great caverns. Both streams, through the ages, have cut gorges of exquisite beauty, rivaling, in fact, anything of the sort to be found in the world. Nolin river in one spot has cut its way through cliffs said to be more impressive than the palisades of the Hudson river. These are but a few of the natural phenomena and scenic beauties to be found in the area.

Freedom Brings Light
There is only one cure for evils which newly acquired freedom produces, and that cure is freedom. The blaze of truth and liberty may at first dazzle and bewilder nations which have become half-blind in the house of bondage. But let them gaze on, and they will soon be able to bear it. In a few years men learn to reason, and the extreme violence of opinion subsides. The scattered elements of truth cease to contend and begin to coalesce. And at length a system of justice and order is educed out of the chaos—Mancuily.

Originated in Error
An explanation of the origin of the word "hoodlum" has been given in the following tale: One in San Francisco a great many years ago there was a man named Muldoon, who was the leader of a band of boy ruffians. A reporter who had been assigned to a story of this gang attempted to coin a name for them and transposed the name Muldoon, calling the gang hoodlums. The typesetter mistook the letter "n" for "h" and made the word "hoodlum." It passed the proof-reader and became a recognized word.

Ancient Wedding Gowns
Most of the Plantagenet and Tudor queens were married in that vivid hue which is still popular in parts of Brittany, where the bride is usually dressed in crimson brocade. It was Mary Stuart who first changed the color of the bridal garments. At her marriage with Francis II of France in 1558, which took place not before the altar but before the great doors of Notre Dame, she was gowned in white brocade, with a train of pale blue Persian velvet six yards in length.

Seemed Too Much for One
A little girl was traveling in a street car with her mother, a woman of very slight build. Presently an extremely stout woman boarded the car, and sat down opposite the little girl. The car started off with a jerk, and the little child contemplated the woman opposite her for some minutes, then, turning to her mother, inquired in a loud voice: "Mother, is that all one lady?"

SPRING FARM LEGHORN DAY OLD CHICKS Mr. Chick Buyers: Consider a few facts this year before you buy your chicks. First, think of the old hen whose business it is to produce chicks. Second, think how that old hen is cared for so that she can produce a healthy, hardy chick. Our breeding pens are filled with old hens, fed and handled to produce that quality chick. Why not raise 90% or better of your chicks? You can do it. Our chicks cost no more than you would expect to pay for other chicks. We invite you to come and inspect our flocks and see the stock from which you buy. We have a hatch every week. N. N. BAER, SALUNGA, PA. Phone, Mt. Joy 130R23 mar14-2t
