

The Mount Joy Bulletin

VOL. XXVIII, No. 8

MOUNT JOY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1928

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Mr. Business Man Remember That President Coolidge Says: Advertising Is the Life of Trade

36th Meeting of Central Manor Camp

WILL BE HELD FROM AUGUST 18 TO 26 THIS YEAR—BIBLE CONFERENCE IN CONNECTION.

The thirty-sixth annual session of the Central Manor Camp Meeting and Bible Conference will be held at Central Manor beginning Saturday evening, August 18, and closing Sunday evening, Aug. 26. Central Manor Camp Meeting was inaugurated Sept. 1893. It was under the pastorate of Rev. I. A. MacDannald, D. D. of the Church of God at Washington, Pa. It began with nineteen tents and was so successful that there was a demand for its continuation. It was conducted for a few years by the Church at Washington. The ground was rented up to 1904 when the present Association was organized.

SEEKING THE DEFENDANT IN A HOLDUP CASE

After being heard before Squire S. S. Demmy at Middletown on a charge of robbery, Martin Collins, Harvey Engle, Albert Bates and Lester Kaylor, of this place, and Lester Stauffer, of Florin, who admitted being with him at the time they were accused of holding up J. P. Haltman of Derry township, were discharged and a warrant sworn out for the arrest of the prosecutor on charges of possession of liquor, driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor and perjury. Haltman has not yet been found by the police. He is accused of having been drunk. After they had been driven home he is said to have attempted to fasten upon them responsibility for his missing money.

Reunion August 18

The Leedom and G-bhart families will hold their second annual reunion at Keener's Park, Elizabethtown, Saturday, August 18. All who are in any way connected with these families are urged to attend. Mr. Harry Leedom is president and Leroy Leedom secretary.

A New Auburn

Mr. Stanley Shank, son of Jacob Shank, last Wednesday received a fine Auburn Straight Eight Sedan.

Annual Meeting Of Farm Society

WAS HELD ON THE JOHN FOX FARM AT IRONVILLE ON SATURDAY AFTER-NOON

The Lancaster County Farm Women at the annual meeting held Saturday afternoon at the John Fox farm, Ironville, elected Mrs. Martin Moore, of Litzitz, president. Members of the 12 county Farm Women's Societies and their families were in attendance at the twelfth annual day meeting. Approximately five hundred persons gathered to enjoy this one day in the year when the county societies hold a joint business and social day's session.

(Turn to Page 4)

WANT TO RETAIN GRETTA AS CAMP

At the annual meeting of the Mt. Gretna Chauntanga Association the stockholders and board of directors resolved to exert every effort to prevent the removal of the Pennsylvania National Guard training camp from Mt. Gretna to some western point of the state.

Festival and Carnival

The festival and carnival will hold another big festival and carnival there on Saturday, Aug. 18. Music will be furnished by the Mount Joy band. There will be amusements for young and old so don't fail to attend.

A Trip to Iowa

Mr. Jacob D. Strickler and family, who reside west of town, and Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah M. Schock, of Washington, left on Saturday by auto for Dallas Center, Iowa, where they will spend a few weeks with the family of John M. Keller.

Tax Notices Out

Mr. James H. Metzler, collector, last week distributed his school tax notices throughout the boro. There will be no rebate for prompt payment but a penalty of 5 percent will be added Oct. 1st. The per capita tax is $3.00 this year.

Cows at Private Sale

Starting yesterday Messrs. J. B. Keller and Bro. will sell a carload of choice Crawford Co. Holstein cows at private sale at their yards here. This is a very fine lot of cows.

CONSTABLE ZERPHEY HAD A BUSY WEEK

Chief Elmer Zerphey made one arrest for traffic violations here the past week. The violator was Fred C. Boyd, of Christiansburg. Early Sunday morning Chief Zerphey caught four boys playing poker. They were taken before Burgess Engle and released on promising to behave. Last night Constable Zerphey arrested Wilson Schroll on a warrant from the office of Squire Zeller for defrauding his uncle, John L. Schroll, out of a board bill. He was heard before Zeller and paid the bill and costs and was discharged.

Autoist Kills Boy At Landisville

WALLACE A. MILLER, JR., AGED SIX, ACCIDENTALLY RUN DOWN BY A W. HOFFER, OF ELIZABETHTOWN

There was a bad accident at Landisville Saturday when a boy was almost instantly killed by an autoist.

Wallace A. Miller, Jr., aged six, of Landisville met his death when he ran into the path of a car. The boy was running across the street to join his father.

The driver, A. W. Hoffer, a lumber merchant of Elizabethtown, was exonerated of all blame by Deputy Coroner Denlinger, after an investigation.

(Turn to Page Two)

59 Districts Get School Subsidy

MOUNT JOY BORO WILL RECEIVE $5,004.33—SURROUNDING TOWNSHIPS FARE WELL

Fifty-nine fourth-class school districts in Lancaster county will receive their semi-annual allotment of the state school subsidy, amounting to $169,821.03, today. Checks were mailed by State Treasurer Lewis to all fourth-class districts in the state, for one half (Turn to page 5)

TRAMPS SUSPECTED OF ROBBERING SALUNGA HOMES

State police are looking for two tramps they believe responsible for robbing three homes in Salunga, Monday afternoon. The men, according to state troopers, were traced as far as this place where they are believed to have boarded a freight train and escaped. The homes of Benjamin K. Hess, H. M. Dissinger and John H. Groff, were entered and looted. Hess lost jewelry and cash totaling more than $100. Groff and Dissinger each lost about $25 in cash and jewelry. At the one home the thieves stole a bank containing dimes. Police were able to trace the men along the high way by expenditure of dimes at various stores between Salunga and this place. The thieves gained entrance to the homes by prying open rear windows.

LEBANON BUS LINE HOLDS TRIAL TRIP

The first trial trip by the Lebanon Auto Bus Line Company was made last Wednesday, from Mt. Gretna to Elizabethtown, preparatory to the opening of the new bus line service from Mt. Gretna, through Colebrook to Lawn, to Belaire, and thence to Elizabethtown. Officials said that a regular bus line service would probably start Thursday.

We Congratulate You

Mr. Howard Arndt celebrated his birthday.

Mr. Russell Kramer had a birthday this week.

Louise Baker celebrated her birthday this week.

Miss Annie Rhorer celebrated her birthday Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. B. Hendrix celebrated her birthday this week.

Observed Boys' Day

Boys' Day was observed in the Kinderhook Evangelical Congregational church on Sunday morning with a special program, which included music, and an address by Rev. Grant T. Billett, pastor of the Washingtonboro church.

A Banner Corn Crop

Members of the "Garden Spot Corn Club," returning from visits to contestants say that the outlook now is that Lancaster County will harvest a banner corn crop and probably the largest of its history.

Tunney Retains Title

Gene Tunney, heavyweight champion of the world, retained his title by decisively defeating Tommy Heeney in New York City on Thursday night in eleven rounds.

S. S. Meeting at Kraybill's Church

ALL DAY SESSION WILL BE HELD THERE ON SATURDAY, AUGUST 4 WITH GOOD PROGRAMS

An all day Sunday School meeting will be held at Kraybill's Memorial church, in East Donegal, Saturday. There will be a morning, afternoon and evening program. Mr. Noah Souder is moderator, Mr. Elam Brubaker secretary and the choristers are Christ Newcomer and Irvin Kreider. The following programs will be rendered:

Morning
9:15, Song Service; 9:30 Devotional; 9:45, The Sunday School as a Factor in Building Christian Life and Character; John Gochmayer; 10:15, The Place of the Sunday School in the Work of the Church; Wilson Moyer; 10:45, Responsibility of the Individual Member, Noah Risser.

Afternoon
1:00, Devotional; 1:15, Talk to the Children, David Groff; 1:45 The Duty of the Sunday School in Reaching Neglected Homes in the Community, John W. Hess; 2:15 Enemies of the Bible, John Moseman; 2:45 Reverence for God, the Word and the Church, Wilson Moyer.

Evening
8:45, Devotional; 7:00, Present Day Delusions, and the Dangers They Bring to Our Young People, John W. Hess; 7:30, Sermon, Wilson Moyer.

STATE OPENS BID FOR COUNTY ROAD

The State Highway Department, at Harrisburg, announce that the Ashland Lumber Company, of Ashland, Pa., had submitted a low bid of $78,899 for the construction of 9,512 feet of reinforced cement road, in Mt. Joy and Donegal townships.

File $20,000 Damage Suit

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Muth, Elizabethtown, filed suit in the court against Edward Semzian, Norristown, and the Suplee-Williams-Jones Milk company for $20,000 damages in the collision of their auto with the milk company's truck near Hershey, June 9.

Perry Countians Held Big Reunion

AFFAIR AT CASSEL'S PARK, NEAR MARIETTA LAST SATURDAY WAS QUITE A SUCCESS

Save for a brief shower in the afternoon, ideal weather helped make the 1928 reunion of Perry countians residing in Lancaster county, held Saturday at Cassel's park, near Marietta, one of the most enthusiastic and enjoyable in recent years.

Between 300 and 400 persons were present and enjoyed a full day's program which opened at 10:30 o'clock with devotional services. Prof. E. U. Amiller, assistant Superintendent of Lancaster County Schools, presided at the service, introducing the Rev. Geo. A. Kercher, (Turn to page eight.)

With Clayton Zink's

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Zink and family of Back Run, entertained at their home on Sunday; Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bradley and daughter, Esther, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bahand and sons, Wilbur and Leo, of Elm, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Brookmyer, of Kissel Hill; Mrs. Sarah Sheaffer, of Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Longenecker and daughter, Esther Mae, Misses Erla, Waltz and Carrie Zink, Norman Zink, of Back Run; Miss Katie Zink, of Landisville.

Letters Granted

Irvin B. Kraybill, Mount Joy township, administrator of Peter E. Kraybill, Mount Joy township, William B. Detwiler, Mount Joy, succeeding executor of Jacob F. Hershey, Mount Joy.

Cyrus M. Bomberger and John M. Bomberger, Penn township, and Elam M. Bomberger, Mount Joy, executors of Phares K. Bomberger, Penn township.

Sent To Glen Mills

Ida E. Nau, 13, of Marietta, taken before court on a charge of incorrigibility on complaint of her father, Charles Nau, of Columbia, was ordered sent to Glen Mills.

Meeting Postponed

The regular monthly meeting of Friendship Fire Company No. 1, has been postponed one week. It will be held Thursday, Aug. 9.

Had Finger Broken

Mrs. J. H. Stauffer, Route 2, Elizabethtown, was treated at Mastersonville for a broken finger.

BOOSTERS BANQUET AT OREGON MANOR TEA ROOM

The Boosters held one of the most successful runs on Monday evening ever held in the history of the club. Forty-two was the number present and the place they spent the evening was the Oregon Manor Tea Room near Lancaster.

The following people were present: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Greenwalt, Harvey Reheard, Mr. and Mrs. J. Willis Freed, Dr. W. D. Chandler, Mrs. Paul Smith, Miss Janet Smith, Donald Smith, Mr. Harry Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hipple, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Bishop, Harry Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Garber, John Keener, Esq., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Geimer, Irvin Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Shatz, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stambaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Heiserman, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Brubaker, Jerry Leonard, Miss Lehigh, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kessler, Arthur Burrell, Miss Dorothy Kissler, Miss Edna Heilig, Cornelius Weisberger.

Harvest Home at Mastersonville

TWO DAYS MEETING WAS HELD THERE SATURDAY AND SUNDAY WITH A GOOD TURNOUT

A very successful Harvest Home and Ministerial meeting was held in the Mastersonville meeting house Saturday and Sunday with a good attendance at all the sessions. The programs each day were well and interestingly rendered.

The meeting opened Saturday afternoon at 1:00 with devotional exercises followed at 1:30 with the Harvest service.

(Turn to page eight.)

REV. AND MRS. BEYER WERE TENDERED A RECEPTION

Dr. and Mrs. I. L. Moyer, Sixth and Chestnut streets, Columbia, tendered an informal reception to the Rev. William H. Beyer, former pastor of Cookman M. E. church, now located at Mt. Joy, and Mrs. Beyer.

In the afternoon the ladies had a fine time making all sorts of gaudy work. At six o'clock the guests were invited out on the lawn where they partook of a picnic supper, in the pergola. This was one of the most delightful features of the occasion. A picture was also taken of the party, which consisted of the following: Rev. and Mrs. Beyer, Mt. Joy; Misses Marion and Nan Edwards, Mrs. Albert K. Kendig, and son, Thomas, Mrs. H. O. Kauffman and daughter, Esther, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Becker, Mrs. C. A. Etzweiler, Miss Gladys Lyle and the Moyer family, all of Columbia.

Young Folks Are Joined in Wedlock

NUMBER OF VERY WELL KNOWN YOUNG FOLKS ARE JOINED IN THE HOLY BONDS OF MATRIMONY

Shuman—Ortman
Floyd E. Shuman, of Marietta; and Miss Reba Ortman, of Columbia, were united in marriage by Rev. J. W. Gable, pastor of the Maytown Church of God.

Brubaker—Ruhl

James Brubaker, brother of Misses Elizabeth and Gertrude Brubaker, of this place and Miss Emma Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ruhl, of near town, were married on Saturday, July 21st, by a Rev. C. Sleest, pastor of the Manual Baptist Church, at Covington, Kentucky. They are at (Turn to page 5)

MT. JOY MAN IN HOSPITAL AFTER AUTO COLLISION

R. D. Brubaker, 22 years old, of this boro, and Frank Fishman, Harrisburg, were admitted to the York hospital Sunday for surgical treatment, after they were injured in an auto collision. Brubaker was cut about the lower lip and Fishman received lacerations of the right and left legs, laceration of right thumb and cuts on his scalp.

TWO MEN ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF ARSON

George Alberts, 60, of Elizabethtown, was arrested Wednesday night by members of the State Police together with his brother, David Alberts, 50, of no address on a charge of arson, police said, as a result of firing the home of Jacob Alberts, of Anville, in an alleged attempt to defraud an insurance company.

Big Show This Week

The Reithoffer Shows are exhibiting here this week for the benefit of Friendship Fire Company No. 1, of this place. The show is located on Columbia Avenue and gives a good exhibition together with a number of features. The show is given every night this week and next week they will be at Manheim.

Blaze Destroys Stackstown Barn

LARGE STRUCTURE OF CHRISTIAN S. ALLERMAN, COMPLETELY DESTROYED BY FIRE SATURDAY

The barn on the farm of Christ S. Alleman, near Stackstown, was destroyed by fire, believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion in the hay or wheat, Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock. The loss, which was estimated at $20,000 is covered by insurance.

Fire companies from Bainbridge, Marietta and Elizabethtown, responded to a call. The flames, however, had gained considerable headway before discovered and they were unable to save the building directed their efforts to the preventing of the spread of the blaze.

The season's crops of straw, wheat and hay, which were stored in the barn, were destroyed together with a number of farm implements. Neighbors assisted in removing the stock from the burning structure.

The farm is known as the Michael Hoffman place and was recently purchased by Alleman.

The fire was discovered by Allen and Leroy Alleman, sons of the owner.

A binder, two wagons, six sets of harness and a fodder shredder were destroyed. The crops consumed by the blaze included 200 bushels of wheat, 45 tons of hay, 5 tons of straw and 200 bushels of corn. Eight horses and a mule were saved.

E'towners In Trouble

Michael Hummel, Elizabethtown, was fined $10 and the costs on a charge of malicious mischief preferred by M. D. Stephen, of Elizabethtown. Hummel was alleged to have gone into the Stephen home and damaged household articles.

Harry Long, of Elizabethtown, charged with assault and battery on his wife, Sarah Long, was fined $10 and costs.

Claims Paid Here

During last year life insurance companies paid to residents of Lancaster city $440,000. Three claims were paid in Mount Joy one for $7,088, one for $2,000 and one for $1,000.

Uniform Building Laws Are Urged

DR. RANCK OFFERS PLAN TO REDUCE FIRE HAZARDS AT FIREMEN'S MEETING AT RHEEMS

Every boro and town in Lancaster county was urged to adopt a uniform building law, by Dr. E. M. Ranck, at the meeting of the Lancaster County Firemen's Association, at Rheems, Friday night. The speaker suggested that all fire hazards, chimneys, barns and garages be eliminated. Owners of barns were asked to be in guard of spontaneous combustion. The meeting of the association was held in the new fire hall at Rheems which was dedicated this spring. Vice President Harry Trout of Manheim, was in the chair during the meeting.

THREE YOUTHS BURIED UNDER OVERTURNED CAR

Three young men, two from Columbia and one from Ironville, narrowly escaped death and sustained only slight injuries when an automobile in which they were riding, got beyond control of the driver, ran off the road, upset and landed against a pole.

The accident occurred late Sunday afternoon as their car was descending Chickies Hill in the vicinity of Sterline's school house.

The occupants of the car were Jacob Hiestand, 21, No. 268 South Fifth street; Joseph Heiland, 19, No. 331 Union street, and Samuel Weaver, 24, of Ironville. They were returning from Marietta with Heiland at the wheel.

MT. JOY POLICE CHIEF ACCORDED NEW HONOR

During the Convention of the Local League of Police, which was held at Waynesboro last week, Chief of Police Elmer L. Zerphey, of this boro, was appointed chairman of the organization for the district of Lancaster county.

The Local League of Police, is an organization formed many years ago, for the purpose of uniting Police officers of all ranks and classes, into one big family for the purpose of running down criminals and suppressing vice and crime.

Franks' Community Sale

C. S. Frank & Bro. will hold their next electric light community sale on Wednesday, Aug. 8 at 7 p.m. Live stock, merchandise, fruits, etc. Don't forget the date.

28 CHILDREN, 21 MOTHERS ATTENDED THE CLINIC

Starting August 14 there will be special clinics held in connection with the Well Baby Clinic with Dr. Workman and Dr. Snyder in charge, when the children will be given thorough physical examinations with a view of finding and having corrected physical impairments of eyes, ears, nose, throat, and chest, etc. At Tuesdays clinic there were twenty-eight children present with twenty-one mothers. Miss Ethel Kersey, R. N., was in charge and Dr. Workman was present. Hostesses were Mrs. O. G. Longenecker and Mrs. Elmer Garber, with Mrs. John D. Newcomer secretary.

Engineers Study Pollution Data

STATE ENGINEERS ARE INSPECTING EVERY PHASE OF STREAM POLLUTION THROUGHOUT STATE

Harrisburg, Pa.—Data gathered on every phase of stream pollution in the State during a series of conferences with representatives of the various industries affected today is being compiled by experts of the bureau of engineering and the sanitary water board in the State Department of Health.

The conferences covered not only the various industries which in some manner pollute streams, but also were held with officials of several municipalities which are releasing insufficiently treated sewage into the streams.

(Turn to page 4.)

Gain 1553 Members During Year

LANCASTER COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION MAKES RAPID STRIDE—CONVENTION OCT. 22 AND 23

Prof. H. K. Ober and Mrs. Ober, of Elizabethtown, entertained as guests to dinner at Hotel Kenwood, Elizabethtown, the officers and members of the executive committee together with their wives, of the County Sunday School Association, Thursday evening, over fifty in number. Prof. Ober had arrived home that week from attending the World's Sunday School convention in Los Angeles, Calif., and was full of enthusiasm gained there. He is and has been for several years the president of the Sunday School Association.

MR. HARRY M. FLORY'S NEIGHBORS ARE KIND

Mr. Harry M. Flory wishes to thank his kind friends and neighbors who assisted at harvesting his crops. Mr. Flory is ill owing to a sore leg. Those who assisted in the work were Messrs. Elmer Shearer, Daniel E. Brubaker, Paris Koser, Russel Wiseman, Nelson Stewart, Glenn Beaton, Henry Brubaker, David Eby, Henry Hostetter, Jacob Brubaker, Sr., and Mr. Matthew.

ALL DAY REUNION AT AIRY DALE SCHOOL

One hundred and ten former patrons, pupils, teachers and officials of the Airy Dale school at Lancaster Junction assembled at the first reunion held there on Saturday when a splendid program was rendered. The following officers were elected: President, Stauffer Heistand, Lime Rock; Vice President, Harry Saylor, Litzitz; Secretary, and Treasurer, Ella Snively, Lancaster Junction.

B. FRANK HIESTAND APPOINTED ELECTOR

According to word received late last night, B. Frank Hiestand, of Marietta, has been named by Auditor General Martin, chairman of the State Republican committee, as Republican presidential elector for the tenth congressional district (Lancaster county). Mr. Hiestand is in the lumber business.

Neat New Sign

One of the finest signs in town was erected at the shoe factory on West Main street, last week. It is 2 1/2 feet wide, 26 feet long and has the following lettering in raised gold: "Gerberich-Payne Shoe Co. The Most Popular Line of Boys' Shoes in American." The sign is the work of our local artist, Mr. Ralph F. Eshleman.

Trout Season Ends

Yesterday was the last day of the season for trout fishing in Pennsylvania. Owing to the muddy condition of county streams, the season has been a poor one.

S. S. Picnic At Donegal

The annual picnic of the Donegal Presbyterian Sabbath School will be held on Thursday, August 9, at Donegal Springs.

Local Doings Around Florin

ALL THE UP-TO-DATE HAPPENINGS FROM THAT THRIVING AND BUSY VILLAGE THE PAST WEEK

Mr. Jno. M. Raymond spent Monday at Lancaster.

Mr. Benj. Beech spent a few days at Columbia.

Mr. Harold Buller and family spent Sunday with friends at Hanover.

Mrs. Ida Heiner, of Philadelphia, spent Saturday and Sunday here with friends.

Mr. A. Peris and family have gone to Pen Yan, N. Y., where they will spend a month.

A 50-GALLON STILL SEIZED NEAR MT. HOPE

Walter Jackson and his wife Lucille, formerly of Washington, and Milton Kreider were arrested and a 50-gallon still seized and destroyed when state police raided a farm at Mt. Hope, Monday afternoon. The raid, followed numerous complaints from neighbors who reported drunken parties and fighting on the farm. They are held in bail of $1,000 each for hearings before Squire Geo. Danner, Manheim.

CARS IN A COLLISION, MRS. STAUFFER INJURED

Mrs. John Stauffer, aged 28, of Elizabethtown, received severe lacerations to her right hand and body bruises and is a patient in St. Joseph hospital at Lancaster.

Mrs. Stauffer was injured in a collision between cars driven by her husband and Frank Yost, of this place. The accident occurred in Mastersonville. Both cars were badly damaged, it was reported, but the cause of the crash could not be learned.

Deeds Recorded

John G. Moyer's heirs to Jacob D. Gantz, property in Mount Joy township, $7,000.

Samuel B. Baker, Jr., to Phoebe E. Rupp, building and tract in Mt. Joy township.

Road We Must All Travel Sometime

MANY WELL KNOWN PEOPLE HAVE PASSED TO THE GREAT BEYOND

Charles C. Seitz, aged 90, died at Mountville.

George Crasset died at Columbia aged 45 years.

Henry Gempending, court crier at Lancaster for 33 years, died aged 83.

Wm. R. Williams

Internally injured when a heavy flower box fell upon him Monday afternoon, William Roger Williams, (Turn to Page 8)

BIG CARNIVAL AT MANHEIM ON SATURDAY

The Manheim Firemen will stage an unusually large carnival on Saturday evening, August 4th, in a large field a short distance east of the Borough along the Manheim and Litzitz macadam road. Large parking space has been provided so that motorists will be well cared for.

The big musical attraction will be the Ringold Band of Reading. This is one of the best musical organizations in this section of the state and is always a favorite among the music loving people of the county. Exceptionally valuable prizes will be offered. Amusements of various kinds have been provided, games that will be of interest to the old and young alike. All roads will lead to the big carnival at Manheim on Saturday evening.

HELD FOR RESISTING ARRESTS ON SATURDAY

Charged with resisting an officer who attempted to serve a warrant off him, Robert Hake, of West Hempfield township, was arrested on Saturday by State police. He is being held for a hearing before Justice of Peace Charles Hicks, of Maytown.

A constable who went to Hake's place with a warrant and met strenuous resistance, it is alleged, and the warrant was then given to the State police. Another warrant, charging Hake with resisting arrest, was also given them. They experienced no trouble with him.

BIRTHS

Rev. and Mrs. A. Lee Barnhart, of this boro, announce the birth of a son at the Lancaster General hospital at 12:30 o'clock Saturday morning.