59 Districts Get School Subsidy

(from page one)

the amount of the state aid which is granted annually.

Total Amount

The total amount of the state appropriations for school aid in the 59 county districts is listed at $173,545.25. Of this amount, $167,645.25 is the State's share of the teachers' salaries and $5,800 additional is the bonus for closing one-room schools to form consolidations.

There are deductions of $1,504.34 pro-ration among the districts, representing the amount paid to the superintendent of schools in excess of the amount the State pays itself and $2,135.57 for the maintenance of deaf and blind pupils at institutions not conducted by the districts, $86.55 for maintenance of orphan institutions, and $360.00 for retirement fund.

Bonus in County

The bonus for closed schools is at the rate of $100 for each school closed. Warwick township receives $800 additional as such bonus; East Hempfield township, $700; Manheim township and Salisbury township, $600 each; Ephrata township and West Lampeter townships, $300 each; Colerain, Conoy, East Earl, Mt. Joy, Paradise, and Rapho townships, $200 each; and Bart, Conestoga, Earl, East Cocalico, East Donegal, Elizabeth, Fulton, Little Britain, Manor, West Donegal and West Earl townships and Washington and Marietta boros, $100 each.

The largest check in Lancaster county will go to Lititz, and the smallest to the Lincoln Independent district. The net amount each district will receive is:
