HOME TOWN THOUGHTS

ome of us have seen wonderful sights on our vacations, but these things do not produce daily happiness like welcoming smiles from our home town friends when we return. We are looking forward to a good business year but to obtain it we must save the resources of the community by buying at home so far as possible.

Modern advertising provides the means by which the receipts of any business can be doubled, while its expenses have not increased nearly so much.

RATES FOR GAS

At a recent meeting of the Lititz Chamber of Commerce the justice of the present rates charged by the Gas Company was questioned. It was stated that the rates charged were $2.25 and that was higher than the rates charged in any other town of the State. It was said that Gas Companies make a profit at a lower rate in other towns.

The Manheim Sentinel says: "The consumers in this Borough would be interested in any move Lititz for a cheaper gas The same rate is being charg-At the Lititz meeting it said that an application for a er rate would be presented to c Service Commission with why a lower rate should be or why the present rate is The Lititz body will an investigation thru the State ber of Commerce.'

people at Manheim and are kicking about a $2.25 gas why shouldn't the gas consum-n Mount Joy kick? Here we $2.50 per thousand, which is highest rate charged any where Penna. Surely it doesn't cost ore to make gas in Mount Joy than elsewhere.

If the consumers in our neighborng boros are complaining and con-cemplate going before the Public Service Commission, then why shouldn't the gas consumers in Mount Joy do the very same thing? It's about time the customers of the Donegal Gas Co., here wake up and do something that will benefit and every one of them.

no one ever discovered and was utterly without use or beauty, while before war, in the days of hoop skirts, ladies were frequently embarressed, if such thing were of any concern, by the taping of the hoop and the consequent revelations.

In the past which some hold perfect, women wore dresses at and germans and at dinners which would shock and flapper of today, there being a custom, which requir ed a lady to appear as much dressed as possible on the street and as llttle dressed as possible on social occasions. There was a style in very early days of wearing a sweepng empire skirt above which was a tight waist band and a low and full-fronted waist which revealed as much of the figure as any modern dress. Modern dress is sensible, modest enough for any practical and proper minded person, and so far superior to the feminine styles of the pas that there can be no comparison. Anyone who looks at the waspwaisted ladies in old photographs who sees the grotesque skirts. other time the hob- puff sleeves, the bustles, the hundred attacks on beauty that were made in the name of dress, must conclude that women today are attired in a sensible and graceful costume and look as charming as they ever have and ten times more healthy and capable.

THE RULES FOR THE OIL INDUSTRY

In a recent comment on the oil situation, President Farish, of the Humble Oil and Refining Company said: "That the potential present supply of crude is more than ample is fully realized by the industry, whose best interest will be served by further curtailment of production rather than an increase.
