Auto Mishaps Over the Week End

FIVE WERE INJURED WHEN F. ZIMMERMAN'S CAR UPSSET AT MANHEIM THURSDAY MORNING

Five persons, all residents of this place, and Florin, were severely injured Thursday morning about 6:30 o'clock when the automobile in which they were riding skidded on the highway, near Manheim and overturned as the driver swerved the car from the road in order to avoid hitting another car going in the same direction. One woman was admitted to the Lancaster General hospital for treatment.

The injured are Anna Walker, of 16 Mount Joy street, Mount Joy, patient at the hospital, who suffered possible internal injuries of the hip and back and bruises of the face and left shoulder; her mother, Mrs. Adam Walker, five broken ribs and minor cuts and bruises; Elizabeth Zeager, North Barbara street, Mount Joy, injuries to back and possible internal injuries; Mrs. Longenecker, of Florin, body bruises; Mrs. Harry Hinkle, West Main street, Mount Joy, cuts of the face and body and fractured ribs.

The driver of the car, Frank Zimmerman, of town, and a boy named Mateer, also of this place, who also occupied the front seat of the machine, were uninjured. The others were treated by Drs. A. F. Snyder and William Workman, here, and Dr. J. D. Hershey, of Manheim, and later removed to their homes.

According to reports Zimmerman turned off the road to avoid hitting the sign and as he did the machine skidded and was hurled down an embankment into a corn field where it overturned. Mrs. Longenecker was thrown out before the car stopped, while the others were thrown on a heap on top of Miss Walker.

All are employees of the United States Asbestos company, at Manheim, and were on their way to work when the accident happened. The automobile was brought to Mr. P. Frank Schock's garage for repairs.

STUDENTS TO PRESENT "SEE YOU LATER"

The students of the Mount Joy High School will present a three act musical comedy entitled "See You Later" on Thursday and Friday evenings, October 11 and 12 in the High School Auditorium. The directress sent here by the Triangle Company is now busy coaching the characters for their various parts. This play, which has an interesting plot as well as several snappy chorus groups has been given in many other towns and proven a great success. The proceeds of the play will be used for the benefit of the "Pattersonian," which merits the whole-hearted support of every Mount Joy citizen. Let's not forget the time and place and turn out on this occasion, showing the students of our high school that we are behind them in all their undertakings.
