Hunting Season Opens Thursday

ALTHOUGH STATE GAME COMMISSION OPENED SEASON MONDAY, ONLY DUCKS AND GEESE MAY BE SHOT NOW

Monday ushered in the hunting season in Pennsylvania but only ducks and geese may be shot now. Tomorrow, Thursday, opens the season for everything in small game but rabbits.

The season for male ringneck pheasants and partridges is from October 15 to November 30, with hunting on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of each week. Pheasants are limited to two birds a day, or six in a season; partridges 8 a day or 25 in a season.

The season for rabbits will begin on November 1 and will extend until November 30, with hunting on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of each week, and will continue from December 1 to 15th, with hunting permissible six days a week. Hunters are limited to five rabbits a day or thirty a season.

The season for antlerless deer is from December 1 to December 15, with special license permits.

The office of the county treasurer was crowded by people securing hunters' licenses for the season of birds and squirrels which opens on next Thursday. Several hundred licenses were issued and the offices remained open until 3 o'clock in the afternoon to accommodate the rush.

Over 6,500 permits have been issued thus far, which is more than 1,000 ahead of the number last year, it was announced. Officials say this is due to the fact that hunters who desire to hunt for deer, purchased their licenses early in order that their applications would be filed in the county in which they desire to hunt.

REACH LETTER "E" IN AUTOMOBILE LICENSES

For the first time in history, registration of passenger automobiles in Pennsylvania has become numerous enough for the State Highway department to begin issuing the "E" series of tags.

To avoid having more than six characters on automobile license plates, the department uses letters to indicate each hundred thousand above the millionth tag. After tag 999-999, "A" is used to indicate 1,000,000; "B", to indicate 1,100,000; "C", 1,200,000; "D", 1,300,000; and "E", 1,400,000. Last year the passenger car registrations went as high as D64,000, indicating issue of 1,364,000 sets of tags for passenger cars.

750 MEMBERS ATTENDED RIVER ROAD MEETING

More than 150 members were present at the October meeting of the Susquehanna River Road Association held Thursday evening in the Creswell school house. Amos Shank, of Rowenna, president of the association, presided. Isaiah Schock, of near Creswell, is the chairman of the committee of arrangements and as a result of the untiring work of that committee the attendance was the largest for some months and much enthusiasm was injected into the session because of the desire of the organization to secure a connecting link between the river road at Washingtonborough and the Maryland state line.

YOUNG'S TIRE SHOP AT NEW LOCATION

They have erected one of the finest and most modern gas and service stations to be found anywhere. The building is of brick and concrete and is up-to-the-minute in every way. The equipment is the most modern to be had and this firm has left nothing undone to give the public the best there is in service and otherwise.

This fine new place of business which replaced an old frame stable, an eyesore for years, is another step toward progress. It is a credit to the owners, the town and that vicinity.
