Norman Garber Is On the Honor Roll

NATIVE OF MOUNT JOY RETIRED AS PASSENGER CONDUCTOR, PENNA. R. R., PITTSBURGH DIVISION ON JAN. 1

We are pleased to publish the following which appeared in a recent issue of The Pennsylvania News, published at Pittsburgh, Pa., as it refers to a native of this borough. "Norman E. 'Bill' Garber, passenger conductor, Pittsburgh division, retired from active duty on Jan. 1, 1929 and his name is added to the Roll of Honor.

Born on a farm at Donegal, Lancaster county, Pa., Mar. 7, 1863, his early life was spent on his father's farm and attending public school at Mt. Joy, Pa.

In 1887, Mr. Garber came to Pittsburgh and secured employment with the Pennsylvania Railroad, beginning his career as passenger brakeman Aug. 2 of that year. On Oct. 3, 1891, he was promoted to passenger conductor which position he held continuously until retirement.

In his 41 years of railroad experience, Mr. Garber considers himself fortunate in never having met with a serious accident and he recalls many occasions when individuals of prominence were guests on his trains. Within the next year, he expects to return to Lancaster County and there make his permanent home.

His retirement will take him out of contact with friends and acquaintances he has known for years and he desires to take this opportunity to extend to all his sincere best wishes and to say that he will be pleased to welcome any one happening to be in or around Mt. Joy, Pa.

Mr. Garber is a son of the late Henry S. Garber. Three sisters, Mrs. M. A. Rollman, Mary Garber Miller and Miss Ellen Garber reside here.

FIRE DESTROYS GINGRICH BARN NEAR FALMOUTH

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the large frame barn owned by Edward Gingrich together with the season's crops and five head of cattle on Wednesday afternoon. The flames igniting a hog sty, due to a strong wind which burned to the ground.

Mr. Gingrich and Harry Hoener the tenant were on a point a distance from the dwellings engaged in cutting wood and when informed of the fire the barn was partially destroyed. The dwelling and two large tobacco sheds were saved. No fire companies were summoned to the scene and only quick action of a neighbor, Frank Nissley and son, saved four horses. The telephone system had been removed some time ago which may have added help from nearby farmers to assist in fighting the fire. The buildings were all in a good state of preservation and of frame structure were all large.

Faces Larceny Charge

Charles Minnich, thirty-two of town, is held in the Lancaster county jail in default of $300 bail, on a charge of larceny, preferred by F. H. Baker, local coal dealer, before Squire Elwood S. Grimm, of Elizabethtown, Wednesday. Minnich is alleged to have taken coal from Baker's establishment. He was arrested by Chief of Police Elmer Zerphney, on Tuesday. He will be held for trial in court.
