THE PRINTER'S DEVIL GETS ALL OF US IN DUTCH

The printer's "devil" was making up the forms. The paper was late and the boy got the galleys mixed. The first part of the obituary notice of a peunicious citizen had been dumped into the form and the next handful of type came off the galley describing a recent fire. As a result of the mixture the obituary read like this: "The pallbearers lowered the body into the grave and it was consumed in the flames. There are few if any regrets as the old wreck was an eye-sore to the town for years. Of course, there was an individual loss, but that was fully covered by insurance." The widow thinks the editor wrote the obituary that way because the partner of her joys owed him five years' subscription.

Capital Punishment for Corrupt Officials is a New Regulation in China

Some of the most notable officials in the past have been most notorious for stealing public funds. But the Nationalists declare they intend to discourage this practice and will make an example of the first officials in north China who are caught. It has been rumored that Nationalist officials have stolen large portions of the public funds, following age-old precedent.

Stone Age People Made Toys to Amuse Children

Stockholm.—Whether or not there was a Santa Claus in the Stone age primitive people provided toys for the amusement of their little ones. Ivar Schnell, archeologist of the state historical museum, has found miniature stone objects, clearly meant as playthings for children. One of these was a tiny but well-made stone ax 2.5 centimeters in length, evidently fashioned by some fond Stone age daddy for his little boy to play with.

Pittsburgh.—J. S. Trees, who has made money in oil, is giving a peach orchard to the school for boys at Warrendale. In return he is getting an elm, weighing forty tons, which will cost him $5,000 to move to his estate.

They need butter-milk, alfalfa leaf meal, granulated meat, bone meal, wheat germ and other ingredients to make bone, flesh and feathers. We have all of these ingredients carefully chosen, tested, balanced, uniformly mixed and ready to feed. Purina Chick Startena is the name of the feed. You'll know it by the checkerboard on the bag. The new feeding discoveries that come to you in this year's Startena will give 15 to 20 per cent greater growth than ever before. More than 2,500 hatcheries say, "Feed Startena." So do we.
