LARGE STRUCTURE AND CROPS ON THE HENRY MUSSER FARM COMPLETELY CON-SUMED BY FLAMES

During a heavy electrical rain storm, which struck hard in parts of Lancaster county Friday afternoon, lightning fired a barn and a group of adjacent sheds on the Henry H. Musser farm, skirting the Lancaster-Marietta highway near Silver Spring. Flames spread with hungry fury to completely destroy the cluster of structures and consume everything in their wake, including newly harvested crops of hav and wheat, various implements, an unused auto, sleighs, wagons and other equipment, entailing a loss estimated between $15,000 and $20,-
