Zug Family Reunion The Zug third annual family reunion will be held Sept. 28, at Chiques Church, Rapho township, near Mastersonville. Session at 9:30 and 2 o'clock.

The Ebersole Reunion The fifth annual reunion of the Ebersole family will be held Saturday, August 31, at College Hill, Elizabethtown. In the event of the affair will be held in the college auditorium. A musical and literary program will be given and sport program carried out. Luncheon will be served on the campus. John D. Ebersole is president of the clan.

The Ibach Reunion The seventh annual reunion of the Ibach family was held Sunday at Ephrata park, with about 175 descendants of Gustave and Carl Ibach, who came from Stuttgart, Germany, in attendance. A social afternoon was enjoyed and at a business session, opened with prayer by Rev. J. W. Smith, of Ephrata, the following officers were elected: President, J. Milton Ibach, of Lebanon; vice president, Mrs. Boyer, of Newark, N. J.; secretary, Albert G. Ibach, Reading; treasurer, Fred Ibach, Mount Joy; historian, J. Milton Ibach; and program committee, Byron Ibach, Reading, and Chester Bender, Trenton.

The Leedom Reunion The third annual Leedom reunion was held on Sunday afternoon at Keener's Park, near Elizabethtown, with about one hundred and fifty members present. The election of officers for ensuing year resulted as follows: president, Harry Leedom, of Florin; vice president, J. G. Leedom, of Hershey; secretary, Leroy Leedom, of Rheims; and treasurer, John Brown, of Elizabethtown. It was decided the fourth reunion will be held the second Sunday in August, at Keener's Park.

The following program was rendered: Hymn, Invocation; Rev. S. H. Hertzler; selection by the Gospel Quartette of Palmyra; recitations: Mildred Brown and Esther Slough; quartette, Mrs. J. Slough and three daughters, Dorothy, Esther and Mabel; duet, Earl Brown and Pauline Miller; recitations by May Foust, Pauline Slough and Dorothy Flory; address, Rev. S. H. Hertzler; quartette, Gospel Quartette of Palmyra.

Eckert-Flory Reunion The sixth annual Eckert and Flory reunion was held on Saturday at Landisville Camp Grounds. Oscar Flory, president, called the meeting to order with song, "Come Thou Almighty King." Opening remarks by the president; devotional by Bro. Henry Neiss, reading 1 Cor. 13th chapter, and prayer; song "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder"; address by Rev. W. H. Egge, of Tractville. The Rev. gave a very interesting and spiritual incitement talk. After a number of recitations and vocal music, reports were given by different officers; address by Milton Flory, of Bangor, Pa.

On motion the reunion will be held the third Saturday in August in Long's Park, east of Myerstown, Lebanon Co.

The following officers for the following year are: president, Harry M. Flory, of Mount Joy; first vice president, Oscar Flory, Lawn; 2nd vice president, B. H. Weber, of Litzitz; secretary, E. B. Carmany, of Palmyra; treasurer, D. B. Flory, of Lawn; chorister, Linn Neiss, Reading; assistant chorister, C. W. Kegereis, Palmyra.

The closing hymn was "In the Sweet By and By."

The Stehman Reunion The establishment of a Stamy-Stehman family tree was started on Saturday during the third annual reunion of the clan, on the campus of Elizabethtown college, when nearly 200 members of the organization assembled here from Lancaster, Lebanon, Franklin, Cumberland, York and surrounding counties, as well as Maryland, New Jersey and California.

With the election of Harry Stehman, Jr., of Philadelphia, as historian of the clan, a family tree will be worked out during the ensuing year, and the descendants of Christian Stamy, who came to America in 1747, will be traced from that period until the present day.

Among the newly elected officers of the Stamy-Stehman clan are: Rev. Monroe B. Miller, Elizabethtown, president; secretary and treasurer, Miss Minnie Will, Elizabethtown, and historian, Harry Stehman, Jr., of Philadelphia. An entertainment program for children, under the direction of A. Reese Stamy, of Lancaster, was presented, consisting of games, contests and athletic events during the morning.

The following program was presented in the college chapel, with President Monroe B. Miller, presiding; singing under the direction of Mrs. Eva Stehman Swords; invocation, Rev. A. Stehman Hottenstein; address, president, Harry H. Nye, of Elizabethtown college; response, Rev. M. B. Miller; welcome address, Margaret Stehman Antes; piano duet, Mrs. Maud Stehman Mohler and Mrs. Eva Stehman Swords; recitation, Ida Clark; trio, Irene Stehman Givler, Anna Stehman Givler and Mary Stehman Givler; recitation, by Willis Stehman; historical sketch, H. C. Stamy, Chambersburg; recitation, Russell Stehman Rohrer, and vocal solos, J. Ralph Stamey, son of A. Reese Stamey, Lancaster.

The fourth annual reunion of the Stamy-Stehman clan will be held at Elizabethtown college, during the third Saturday of August, 1930. The following program committee was appointed: Rev. Monroe B. Miller, Harry Stehman, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Stehman, Mr. and Mrs. John Stehman and Mr. and Mrs. E. Nolt.

The Witmer Reunion The attendance at the meeting of the Witmer clan has been steadily growing each year. This year the registration shows this clan to be one of the largest in the county.
