AUTO CLUB MEETS HERE FRIDAY NITE

THE GREEN ROOM CLUB PLAYERS OF FRANKLIN & MARSHALL COLLEGE, WILL ASSIST IN THE PROGRAM

A treat is in store for all who attend the monthly meeting of the Lancaster Automobile Club to be held in the Mount Joy Hall at Mount Joy on Friday evening. This treat is in the form of an unusual entertainment to be presented by the Green Room Club players of Franklin and Marshall College.

"Pokey," a delightful comedy by Philip Moeller has been selected for presentation at the Auto Club meeting. The Lancaster Collegians scored a big hit with this sketch before a capacity audience at Hensel Auditorium of Franklin and Marshall last week and there is no doubt that it will meet with equal approval at the Mount Joy meeting.

Costumes, scenery and properties used in the presentation at Lancaster will be transported to Mount Joy. (Turn to Page 8)

MASONIC HOMES FARM THIRD IN HERD TEST

The third highest production average of cows tested under the Ayrshire Herd test plan in Pennsylvania during September was secured by 60 head owned by Masonic Homes Farm at Elizabethtown with an average of 666 pounds of 3.83 per cent milk, 25.54 pounds of butterfat.

Every cow in the herd that had once freshened was included in computing this average, regardless of age or stage of lactation, according to reports of Advanced Registry Superintendent W. A. Kyle, of the National Ayrshire Breeders' association at Brandon, Vermont.

REV. KERCHER DELIVERS STIRRING ADDRESS

Rev. Geo. Kercher, pastor of the Mt. Joy Lutheran Church, and President of the Lancaster Lutheran Ministerium, opened Education Week at Elizabethtown College by delivering an inspirational address on "Youth and Citizenship." His address expressed the sentiment of Armistice Day very fittingly, for he made an appeal for a larger citizenship and a broader nationalism. The students were very favorably impressed.

MANHEIM MAN HURT, DRIVER UNDER ARREST

James Barr suffered a fractured skull, and Samuel Dowell, both of Manheim, was arrested on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor, as a result of an accident on the highway between East Petersburg and the Harrisburg pike, at 6:45 o'clock Sunday evening.

Barr was taken to the St. Joseph's hospital, where his condition was regarded as not serious.

AUTO CLUB MEETING WILL BE HERE ON FRIDAY

The Lancaster Auto Club meeting will be held on Friday evening, November 15, in Mount Joy Hall, and an interesting and entertaining program is being prepared. Remember this date and come to the meeting.

Held For Court

George Warner, of Maytown, was released under bail for a hearing before Alderman John F. Burkhardt following his arrest by Constable W. C. Sweigart Tuesday on charges of passing a fraudulent check and larceny by bailee.

Groff Property Sold

On Friday evening auctioneer C. S. Frank sold at public sale at the Bulletin office, the former saddler shop building of the late Frank B. Groff, on North Market street, in this place. It was purchased by Mr. George Groff for $850.00.

2 HIT-RUN-DRIVERS SOUGHT IN CRASHES

Two hit-and-run drivers are being sought by State Highway patrolmen in connection with accidents which sent two victims to the Columbia hospital early Thursday evening.

While returning from school, Leroy Hoffines, eight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoffines, of Bainbridge, R 8, was run down by a motorcycle near Stackstown, west of Maytown. He suffered a fractured right leg and severe lacerations on the head. The driver failed to stop to render assistance.

Cyrus Markley, twenty-nine, of Kinderhook, sustained lacerations on the head and body and a possible fracture of the right foot when his motorcycle was sideswiped by a motorist near Columbia, forcing his cycle off the road. It crashed into a tree.

COMPARISONS IN PA. FLA. RAINFALL

ONE MONTH'S RECORD HERE IS ONLY EQUAL TO ONE DAY'S RAINFALL IN THE VICINITY OF MAINE

One of our subscribers, Mr. W. W. Cassel, of Miami, Florida, writes us that when he left here in October, the Lancaster papers stated that we had a 3 1/2 inch rainfall in four days the heaviest in our history.

Just a matter of comparison he sent us a clipping from a Miami paper which follows:

"Miami experienced a total precipitation of 20.18 inches during October, a rain excess over normal of 11.74 inches. Richard W. Gray, meteorologist reported when the monthly summary of weather was completed. (Turn to page 4.)

AARON H. ENGLE LEAVES BEQUESTS TO CHURCHES

Bequests to a county church and a Harrisburg institution amounting to $500 were made in the will of the late Aaron H. Engle, of this borough, which was filed for probate at the office of the Register of Wills.

The will provides that $200 is to go to the elders of the Brethren in Christ church at the Cross Roads, near Florin, while $300 is left to the Messiah Rescue and Benevolent Home at Harrisburg. The remainder of the estate which is estimated at approximately $6,000 is left to relatives.

ORDERS TO ARREST UNAPPROVED CARS

AFTER FRIDAY MUST HAVE STICKERS, SAYS CAPTAIN PRICE

Harrisburg, Pa.—Captain Wilson C. Price, superintendent of the State Highway Patrol, has issued orders to the several hundred members of the patrol, directing the arrest November 16 of all persons operating motor cars which do not bear the "approved, inspected" windshield sticker.

"Since late in the summer owners and drivers of motor vehicles have been hearing about this inspection campaign," said Motor Vehicle Commissioner Benjamin G. Eynon. "Official inspection stations have been in operation since October 1. The period in which inspection is to be made will end November 15. After that date an unlicensed, unapproved car or truck will operate illegally, if it operates at all; therefore the patrol has been directed to (Turn to page 8)

Quite a Success

The concert given in Mount Joy High School Thursday evening by the combined musical clubs of the Mount Joy schools was quite a success. Miss Dorothy Schock and Mr. Harold Shaar were the soloists. Every number was well rendered and from the manner in which many of the participants performed, there is every indication that we have some very talented vocal and instrumental musicians in our public schools.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. Joseph Detweiler celebrated his birthday Saturday.

Miss Pearl Schroll celebrated her birthday yesterday.

Pauline Edwards will celebrate her birthday on Friday.

Mr. M. M. Leib, on West Donegal street, celebrated his birthday yesterday.

Mt. Joy Man Released

Lewis Blong, of town, was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct and spent the night in the borough lock-up. He was arraigned before Squire John Keener next morning and released after payment of a fine and costs.

WELFARE DRIVE STARTS NOV. 18

MOUNT JOY'S PROPORTION FOR THE SUPPORT OF THIS WORK IS $3,019.32—THAT'S OUR GOAL.

Once each year, during Welfare Week, the thousands who live in health and comfort are reminded of those whom fortune has struck down. While Lancaster County has gone its prosperous and happy way, many have fallen by the roadside.

5380 patients were admitted to the Lancaster General Hospital during the past year, of which 2194 were county residents. 2120 patients were admitted into St. Joseph's Hospital during the past year, of which 762 were county patients. Rossmore Sanatorium the tuberculosis hospital, has been filled to capacity during the past year. Of the 51 patients who are being given the very best of treatment in their fight against the great white plague, 21 are residents of the county. (Turn to page 8)

OLD MEMBERS NEW

If You Are Not a Member, Two New Garments Will Make You One

The Mt. Joy Branch of the Needlework Guild of America is preparing for its Annual Gathering to be held Thursday, Nov. 21st, in the Legion Home.

If you are not a member, join now. Two new garments constitute a membership. Men, women, boys, girls. Anyone. Everyone. Call 74R2 and give your name to Mrs. O. G. Longenecker, who is president of the Mt. Joy Branch or any one you know who is a director.

Last year the Mt. Joy Branch distributed nearly a thousand garments among its homes and outside charities. We want to do even better this year.

If you are in doubt as to what to give: the Rossmore Sanatorium needs sweaters or bedroom slippers for men and women. The hospitals need bed linens, towels or garments for new born babies or outgoing patients.

For Home Distribution any kind of garment can be used. There is usually a scarcity of outside garments, such as blouses and bloomers for boys.

LADIES' BIBLE CLASS WILL HOLD A RUMMAGE SALE

The Young Ladies' Bible Class of the Trinity Lutheran Church will hold a rummage sale in the church property on West Main street, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. There will be clothing, shoes, hats, candy, cakes, etc. for sale. Anyone having any contributions for the sale can send them to the Lutheran parsonage or to the home of Mrs. Harry Brown on East Main Street. The public is invited to come to the sale.

Search For Man An extensive search has been instituted by state and county police for C. S. Hummer, 30, Elizabethtown, who disappeared July 19, apparently because of financial difficulties. Hummer, an auto mechanic who conducted a garage, left his place of business and no trace of him has been found.

Will Chief Zerphey Get You?

Beginning Saturday, Chief Zerphey will arrest all operators of motor vehicles in the Boro, if they are not bearing an Inspected and Approved Sticker. The fine for operating without sticker, between Nov. 15 and Dec. 15, is $10.00, plus costs.

Shooting Matches

ESCAPED PET BEAR KILLED BY GUNNER

A pet bear that escaped from a cage at Indian Echo Cave, near Hummelstown, fell a victim to the deadly aim of a hunter on the Landis estate farm, two miles north of Hoernewstown, Saturday.

The cub was brought to the cave from Kutztown and it escaped from its cage about two and a half months ago.

Wending his way home after a gunning trip for rabbits, Frank L. Hoffer, Hummelstown, R. D. 2, saw the bear and went to his home and obtained "pumpkin" ball shells.

Four or five others who were on the hunting trip joined the hunt for the bear. After trailing it three miles, Hoffer shot the animal.

When the gunners went to claim the bear it was found that a collar encircled his neck and it was recognized as the bear that had escaped from the Indian Echo Cave. The bear weighed eighty-five pounds.
