Families from Maytown, Elizabethtown, Falmouth are visiting at Camp Hill, Pa. and Marietta will be present, and number in the 500 or more persons that will motor to the grounds.

The affair begins in the afterevening. A real old fashioned picnic planned and continuous entertainment will be given by two "red hot" entertainers from Billmyer, Mr. John Diggs, jig dancer and Mr. Daniel Winston, guitar player. The music will be furnished throughout the day by the Bainbridge Band, and a two act comedy will be given in the evening.

A great supper will be given on the grounds by the J. E. Baker Company to its employees. Games and sports in which everyone can participate will take place throughout the afternoon and evening. The children will have the benefit of the playground which is located on the Silk Mill grounds.
