Feed Deserving Cows One cow often eats the profits made by another. Feed each cow according to her production. A producing cow needs much more grain than a low producer.

Keep Milk Clean Wiping the cows' udders before milking, cooling the milk quickly, and scalding milk pails and strainers will reduce milk rejection at the plant or factory.

MASQUERADERS AT H. SPANGLER'S

(From page 1) es in their checks, they were called in, where the masqueraders were entertained by a surprise program, which included Tambourine duet, "America," by Betty Anne Greenawalt and Miriam Shank, after which all joined in; Song by the girls and boys of the first class, "Go to Sleep Dolly;" Song, "Jumping Jack," by second class; Song, "Lovely Dancer," by the third class; Song "The Circus Parade," by children of the fourth class; Song by all, "Jesus Loves Me," and "Welcome;" Song by Park Neiss; Duet, "I Don't Want to Play in Your Yard," Dorothy and Pauline Edwards, the entire audience joining in the chorus; Song, "Slumber," Dorothy Edwards, Helen Derr, June Peiffer and Jane Habecker; Recitation, Jean Zimmerman.

The judges decided on the cutest costumes for the girls and boys, the prizes being won by Mary Habecker, for the girls, as "Martha Washington," and Donald Rettew for the boys, as a "Jester."

Another call was given to the happy hearts when races were announced for outside. The "Roly-Poly" race for boys was won by Ray Haug and Warren Kuhn; for the girls, Dorothy Newcomer and Catherine Weidman; "Blind" race, Helen Derr and June Peiffer.

The appetites were exceedingly well tested by this time and all were then taken into the house, where they sat "gypsy" fashion and were treated to a surprise.

Everyone received an orange colored paper napkin, the corners of which were held together by a toothpick. After each child had their "surprise package" word was given to open, sounds of delight became audible when they saw candy decorated cakes, saline sandwiches, pretzles and "surprise" sandwiches. Pretzles, potato chips, crackers and Hallowe'en "faces" were distributed to all. The favors which each child received was a candy "sucker" in a shiny red apple.

As it became dusk the tired, but happy, children were prepared for the homeward journey. Before leaving, they all sang a "Thank You" song to their hostess, Mrs. Harvey Spangler, for the glorious recreation given to them.

The children of the Primary Department and their guests included the following folks: Catherine Weidman, Dorothy Stauffer, Naomi Oberholzer, Bellerma Spangler, Myrtle Bates, Mae Steffy, Helen Derr, June Peiffer, Dorothy Newcomer, Mable Breneman, Evelyn Kuhn, Pauline Edwards, Miriam Shank, Jean Derr, Dorothy Edwards, Jean Zimmerman, Betty Anne Doebler, Merle Petra, Mabel Jane Engle, Louella Witmer, Betty Anne Greenawalt, Marianne Neiss, Dorothy Stauffer, Justine Darrenkamp, Mary Habecker, Jane Habecker, Jean McCord, Wanda Alexander, Robert Bentzel, Albert Breneman, Harold Zimmerman, Donald Rettew, Robert Germer, Warren Kuhn, Harold Wagner, Park Neiss, Paul Stauffer, Ray Haug, Robert Peiffer, James Spangler, Richard Boyer, Mrs. Maude Edwards, Mrs. Butzer, Mrs. Rinchart, Miss Mae Hinkle, Mrs. Frank Haug, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Spangler.

The home was very appropriately decorated with corn stalks and orange and black crepe paper.

THE EXHIBIT HERE WAS BIG SUCCESS (From page 1) the various display locations. Good Corn Exhibit Over 100 separate articles were included within the exhibits by the celebrated 4H Girls Sewing club of this vicinity and the boys corn club display was noteworthy as well. In quantity and perfection, this year's display of corn exceeded that of last year, according to Clarence Garber, chairman of the exhibit. The class of 30 ears was exceptionally fine. Chicken Entries Refused Some forty entries were refused for lack of pens for chickens and the poultry show far surpassed the committee's expectations. It was reported. In the home products division the number of pieces of fancy work, sewing, etc., also was ahead of the 1929 display.

Mount Joy First Art awards in school work were made to follow: Mount Joy High school, first; Elizabethtown High school second. Maytown High school, third. The various premium winners appear elsewhere in the Bulletin.

Store Flower Bulbs Gladioli, dahlias, cannas, and tuberose should be lifted after the first heavy frost. They should be cleaned and stored in a clean cellar. Save Flowers from Disease Peony tops and leaves may carry disease which will damage bud formation next spring, therefore it is necessary that they be destroyed this fall. Save Berries from Weeds Mulch the strawberry bed with material that is free as possible from seeds, or the bed will become foul with weeds.

LOCAL LAD SELECTED FOR NATIONAL ORGANIZATION

Chester Rettew, the oldest son of Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Rettew, 25 E. Main Street, has just been notified of his selection for membership in the League of Curtis Salesmen, an honor organization maintained by The Curtis Publishing Company for boys who sell its publications.

Chester began his work with the Curtis Company late in July and his progress has been steady. By the latter part of September he had qualified for membership in the League, admittance to which depends upon efficient service to customers. According to Curtis records, only one boy in five who begins selling their publications, qualify for membership in the organization.

A badge of membership, bearing the names of the three publications, "Ladies' Home Journal," "Saturday Evening Post," and "Country Gentleman," together with an award of merit was received today by the young salesman. This award is in the form of a watch fob.

The purpose of the League is not only to recognize efficient service but to encourage those who thus qualify, to develop a sense of responsibility and self-confidence.

Feed Colts Well Oats is considered the best grain for colts, but corn or barley may be used in the ration if properly balanced with nitrogenous feeds, such as linseed oil meal or wheat bran. Alfalfa and clover hay are rich in lime, the principal mineral component of the bones.

Take Care of Sprayer Drain the water out of all parts of the sprayer and oil the working parts well before storing the machine for the winter.
