A WOMAN SEEKS CRASH DAMAGES

SUES RESIDENT OF THIS COMMUNITY FOR INJURIES IN AN ACCIDENT TWO YEARS AGO

Damages for serious injuries sustained in an accident at Salunga nearly two years ago are sought in a suit tried Monday before Judge John M. Groff at the opening of this week's session of Common Pleas Court.

Miss Henrietta Stumacher, of Philadelphia, the plaintiff in the suit, is asking damages from Levi W. Newcomer of this boro.

Miss Stumacher was injured May 11, 1929, when struck by the machine operated by Newcomer, it was testified during the trial. She had alighted from the automobile that had parked along the side of the Harrisburg pike and was about to cross the road when struck by an open door of the Newcomer machine, she testified.

She said she was confined to the Lancaster General hospital for nearly three months. Since the accident, she testified, she has been unable to work at her profession of sewing and has been unable to secure another position because of her injured right arm.

Deliberating nearly six hours before arriving at a decision, the jury last Tuesday afternoon returned a verdict in favor of Levi W. Newcomer.

TRI HI Y. CLUB HELD INTERESTING MEETING

The Tri Hi Y. of Mount Joy High School held a very interesting meeting last week. The programme was opened with the Devotional Services which were in charge of Elsie B. Hoffer. She read Matthew 5:1-16 which was followed by a prayer. This was followed by an open forum in which different members discussed the value of "Pure Thoughts, Words and Actions" in our school life. The next part of the programme was on the "Boyhood of Christ" given by Edna Shelly, and Christ as a Bible Student" by Mildred Longenecker. It was also decided that certain girls should serve as monitors after our gymnasium classes to see that our dressing room is in order. As there was no further business the meeting adjourned.

INJUSTICE TO A LOCAL RESIDENT

ARRESTED ON "INFORMATION FURNISHED" BUT THERE WAS ABSOLUTELY NO EVIDENCE AT THE HEARING.

In fairness to one of our local residents, and business men, Mr. J. Rahm, watch maker and jeweler, on East Main street, we want to publish facts concerning a case in which the accused was recently implicated.

Several weeks ago County Detective Weller, of Lancaster, came here and arrested Mr. Rahm, charging him with having received stolen goods. The accused was taken to Lancaster and questioned at the office of Alderman Burkhardt as was also his son. Both emphatically declared they were not guilty and said they knew absolutely nothing about or bought stolen jewelry. The elder Rahm was released on bail for a hearing and the son left go.

A hearing was held at the Alderman's office.

SCHOOL BOARD MET ON MONDAY

DECIDED TO ADD A COMMERCIAL COURSE IN HIGH SCHOOL BEGINNING NEXT FALL

The regular monthly meeting of the Mount Joy School Board was held Monday evening with all members present.

Supervising Principal Nitrauer made his report. At the previous monthly meeting Prof. Nitrauer was instructed to get figures on the cost of installing a commercial course in our High School. At this meeting he made his report, presented two plans and the cost of each. The installation of this additional course would mean the employment of another teacher.

After hearing his report the Board decided to adopt one of the plans, same to be installed and go into effect at the beginning of the term next fall.

Some repairs were reported made in the High School and guards were reported having been placed over the lights in the gym.

The cartload of coal ordered at the last meeting, was received and delivered.

Tax Collector James Metzler was present and reported on his collections.

The usual bills were paid and the Board adjourned.
