EDITORIAL*PUBLICITY THAT TRAVELS

Visitors from other sections, who do not know us, judge the town by the outside appearance of our homes, our yards and streets. The impression that they receive on their first visit is usually the one that remains in their minds, and they speak of this and that town as "a beautiful little place," or the contrary, and it is publicity that travels farther than one might imagine on first thought.

BACK TO THE FARM

All of us would like to believe that times have reached the bottom and are going to get better. Some people seem to think it is all a state of mind anyway. Yet we all know that just talking it will not make times better. Something's got to be done. And there are evidences that something is being done. For instance out in the country there are signs of a "back to the farm movement." You see new houses being built and new clearings being made. The houses, as a rule, are small, and the clearings are not large, but they show that some new people are going to try to dig a living out of the soil. In our opinion this is the most hopeful sign of a change to a simpler and safer way of living.

HOW'S BUSINESS?

Feel discouraged? Business still in the doldrums? Not fighting mad yet? Then reach for the phone and call a life insurance salesman. When he arrives, tell him you don't guess you need any insurance; then sit back and listen to the man! He is a go-getter, a live wire. Rarely invited to call, he hears more undaunted lies than the income tax collector; to him every last man in the world is broke, poverty-stricken—at least we tell him so, and yet, listen! He sells! In good times, in hard times, on rainy days, on beautiful summer Saturday afternoons and at night, he sells a thing to you and me that we can't see, feel, taste, smell, eat, wear or use. The only blessed thing we can do with what he sells us is to brag that we have it and oft-times we have to die to cash in. But we buy it! He makes us want it.

SWIM CAREFULLY

With summer here, devotees of swimming find their recreation growing in popularity, as reflected in the facilities provided and the increasing number of pools opened annually. It has been estimated that there are 3,000 pools in use in the United States, about 200 of which are under the supervision of public schools, 1,600 connected with Y. M.'s and the remainder under municipal management.

There are other figures less pleasing concerning the sport of swimming. The census bureau estimates that 3,500 persons will be accidentally drowned in June, July and August this year. It is amazing, but in the past ten years 60,000 persons were drowned in this country. Of these the age group 15 and 19 years contributed the largest number. The second largest was made up of children between 10 and 14.

The number of drowned steadily increases with each succeeding year, rising with the increase in population.

THE ROADSIDE LANDSCAPE

At intervals of a few miles along every state highway in Tennessee there is an inconspicuous sign which reads, "No Advertising Is Permitted Within the Right of Way of Any State Highway in Tennessee."

For adopting this rule the state of Tennessee deserves a Pulitzer prize, or a Carnegie medal, or a tablet in the Hall of Fame. The state, of course, cannot control advertising signs not located actually on the highway property, but the mere fact that it has adopted this regulation, and is calling attention to it, undoubtedly has an influence on the whole subject of the defacement of the landscape by advertising billboards. These little unobtrusive signs create in the public mind a realization of the fact that advertising signs are a defacement and a nuisance.

Tennessee has some other pretty good highway laws and regulations. There is no speed limit in the state except such as municipalities set up, where traffic is thick. You may drive a hundred miles an hour in Tennessee, if your car will go that fast, but you are held strictly responsible for reckless driving and violation of the rules of the road. One of the things they are particular about in Tennessee is passing a car going in the same direction when both are going uphill. The state traffic police are vigilant, and the usual fine for this offense is $50. Tennessee has learned that most automobile accidents are not the result of speed but of carelessness.

Fifteen thousand Indians are said to be fighting over a boundary line in Bolivia which is our idea of nothing to fight about.

State Road Maps Are Now Ready

in other years, with improvement wherever possible. Maps of Pennsylvania cities on the reverse of the large map aid motorists in traveling through cities, while enlarged maps of the metropolitan areas of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia afford easy access to the congested centers, at the same time locating many suburban centers not shown on the larger map through lack of space.

Three colors were used in producing the tourist maps. The entire State highway system is shown in red with route numbers in shields for United States routes, and in circles for Pennsylvania routes. Connecting roads in county or township systems are indicated in blue as are names of towns. County lines, the names of counties and rivers, lakes and creeks are outlined in green. The map extends sufficiently into neighboring state to enable motorists to choose suitable connections for through journeys.

Connecting roads shown on the tourist map were chosen without regard to the township road system, which was not a part of the State highway system at the time the map was drawn.

A brief summary of sensible driving rules and major motor laws appear on the reverse with a scale of approximate distances between ninety-two cities and towns of Pennsylvania.
