EDITORIAL

CAN'T SEE IT

All this feverish flying around the world in an effort to lower the record of someone else, gives us a pain. We recognize the value of the test flights, and the necessary stimulus to make us air minded, but we can not quite grasp the value of this competition.

UNIFORM TRAFFIC LAWS

National uniformity in traffic regulations is a most desirable goal which has long been recognized by automobile clubs and traffic authorities. It seems hard to achieve at times, but it is bound to come. With a large part of the population touring all over the country at one time or another, safety demands that the rules for driving be the same everywhere.

YOUNG PEOPLE, BEWARE!

There is a great temptation, apparently, for young people in motor cars to stray away into the quiet country roads and lanes. There is no need to impute immorality to such excursions. It is as natural as it is used to be to take a walk into the suburbs. But it is attended with terrible risks in the present day. These lonely places are the haunts of fiends at times, who stop at nothing. Young people should beware.

MORE OPTIMISM

The editor has been surprised at the number of people who have expressed to him their views that the turn for the better in business has arrived. When asked for their reasons they admit they cannot give any; they just "feel the worst is over." As the depression is due, to at least some degree to mental attitude, a more optimistic view of the future is welcome because that in itself will help business back to where it should be. People who have been putting off making purchases should watch closely for the first turn of the tide because as conditions improve prices will have an upward trend.

SAFETY PATROL

The School Board, Boro Council, the Rotary Club and others are active in inaugurating a Safety Patrol in our public schools.

This means that the children who attend our schools are to be guarded against accident while crossing the streets at congested crossings during the school term.

What could be better? Can you imagine the relief upon parents of many of the younger ones (who never see danger) who will be carefully guided across streets so crowded by automobiles today?

This action shows to what extent these men are interested in the kiddies and if it prevents but one accident a year, the movement was well worth many times its cost.

THE HORN HONKER

There may be a few nuisances that it is possible to get rid of, but the chronic horn honker is not one of them. There surely must be a way to eliminate him, since there is no difference of opinion as to whether or not he constitutes a nuisance. The horn was put on the auto for a good purpose. When preparing to pass a car on the road, when children are playing on ahead in the street or highways, or when a pedestrian, falling to note the car's approach, steps into its path—then is the time to use the horn. And those are about the only occasions on which it is necessary. To use it to summon someone from the house or store, or to use it in a traffic congestion, constitutes a nuisance and a danger. It is apt to confuse a pedestrian, or a new driver who is trying to get out of a traffic tangle without injury to himself or someone else. Be considerate and you'll be safe. And that is especially applicable to the horn honkers.

A GOVERNOR'S CABINET

There is some talk in the state of a plan to make state house officers be low governor appointive instead of elective. For sometime there has been agitation on the theory that very few voters know the qualifications of candidates for these offices. The plan has merit for this very reason. Many times men are elected to office in the state house who would not have received their positions had the public known them better.

Describes Milk Cooling
Milk can be cooled economically by electricity, agricultural engineers of the Pennsylvania State College have found. Results of the experiments and recommendations have been published as Bulletin 267, "Farm Electric Milk Refrigeration." Probably the governor could appoint men who would prove to be equally capable as any elected, and at the same time there would always be harmony among all officials. The president has his cabinet, whom he appoints with the consent of the senate, and why not the governor have his cabinet, composed of men that he knows he will be able to work with. Possibly the office of lieutenant governor, whose duties in the state government are similar to those of the vice president in our federal government, should remain elective. But as for the rest, it would seem a good plan to take them out of the election. The people know whom they want for the outstanding offices of governor, U. S. senator and congressman, but they are utterly in the dark as regards the unknowns who seek nomination for the lesser state offices—A much better plan (than selecting the candidates for the lower state offices) in state conventions, would be to let the governor appoint such officials and then hold him responsible for his choices.

It might be an improvement over our present system to nominate candidates for the state house job in convention but perhaps a still better plan would be to allow the governor to select his own "cabinet."

JUDGE RULES NEAR BEER SUBJECT TO TAX

Near beer is 'brewed, not manufactured' according to Judge John Fox of the Dauphin County Court in determining the Stegmaier Brewing Company, Wilkes Barre, subject to the Pennsylvania capital stock tax.

Judge Fox ruled that the company shall pay the state $5.825 as the capital stock tax and commission charges for 1927 as the law provides for the taxation of all corporations "brewing or distilling spirits of malted liquor."

The company protested the tax on the grounds that brewing stopped when the prohibition law became effective and manufacture of cereal beverages replaced it. The decision will effect other brewing companies in their tax payments.

"INSIDE" INFORMATION

Make an oilcloth bag to slip over the top of the ironing board that stands on the floor when the board is put away. This will keep it clean.

There are three possible causes for sour pickles. One is a vinegar that is too strong. Another is too much salt in the solution. A third is too much sugar in the solution. Before you start pickling be sure you have reliable directions.

Cottage cheese is delicious in salads. Pile it lightly on lettuce leaves or shredded cabbage. Add a colorful garnish such as diced pickled beet, strips of pimiento, chopped green pepper, or sliced raw tomato, and French, mayonnaise, or boiled dressing. Or, for a more elaborate salad, mix the cheese with chopped nuts or olives and form into balls or mold in cups. Cottage cheese also combines well with fruits, fresh, stewed, or canned, in salads.

Is your boy in his "teens" always hungry? Scientists say it is quite normal for him to crave more food perhaps, than anyone else in the family. Because of his great activity he requires almost as much energy food as a grown man doing very heavy, active work, and because he is growing very rapidly, he needs almost one and a half times as much food that supplies him with protein and minerals, as a fully grown man. Give him plenty of milk, eggs, fresh fruits and vegetables in addition to the energy foods that are usually present in his diet, such as bread and butter, cereals, potatoes, cake and pastry.

Are You Ashamed Of Your Business?

IF NOT, WHY DON'T YOU ADVERTISE

HERE'S WHAT THE AMERICAN BANKERS DECLARE

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The life of a town depends, upon the live wide-awake and liberal advertising business man."

Lanc. Co. Tourists In Sunny South

VACATIONISTS WILL SOON BEGIN (BUT NOT SO LONG AS THIS HOT WATER LASTS) TRAVELING SOUTHWARD

By John Lodwick
St. Petersburg, Fla., Sept.—(special) With the passing of Labor Day, the last of the big summer holidays, thoughts of Lancaster County tourists and vacationists will again turn to Florida, its balmy and invigorating climate, its outdoor educational and recreational facilities, its long calendar of smart social activities and its annual introduction of fashionable styles to be worn in the ensuing Spring months.

Right now, Florida is preparing for its biggest list of guests who will soon start the Southland trek by automobile over highways paved every mile of the way, by boat, airplane and by rail.

Internationally known figures in the social, financial, business, literary and political world will again make seasonal visits to the Sunshine State and St. Petersburg will, as usual, attract more than its share as in last season when famous artists and writers, United States Senators, army and navy officials, multi-millionaires, leaders in the sport world, and social mentors were here participating in gay and colorful society events.

With the improvement of four municipal yacht basins during the past summer, St. Petersburg is now in a position to harbor 200 more yachts and house boats than last season, when the pleasure craft of Cyrus H. K. Curtis, Harry G. Haskell, Truman H. Newberry, Senator A. R. Gould, A. M. Andrews, Edwin Guggenheim, Murry Guggenheim, Uzal H. McCarter, Walter P. Murphy, Clifford Hemphill and other national figures were among those here.

St. Petersburg's growing art and literature community will be added to this season with reservations already made for a score or more newcomers to the colony now made up of James Montgomery Flagg, W. E. DeBeck, W. R. "Pop" Mom, North Plum St.; John G. Diller, on and, Robert L. Dickey, Cliff Sterrett, S. Peter Wagner, Frank Flore, Gordon Colton, Julius Deibes, Charles Edwin Kinkaid, Miss Gladys Atwood, Ennis, George Pearce Ennis, Hilton Leech and Herbert Meyers, all artists; and Will Payne, George Adair, Rex Beach, Joe Mitchell Chapple, Carl Sandburg, Grantland Rice, and

Lancaster County was exceptionally well represented here last winter and most of the residents have already made arrangements to return here for a gay, healthful and happy sojourn in the sub-tropics. At the city information bureau, new illustrated booklets containing recently taken views of St. Petersburg are being mailed free to those writing in for them.
