Rahn Noted As Merited Jeweler

CARRIES A COMPLETE LINE OF WATCHES, DIAMONDS AND SIL-VERWARE OF HIGH QUALITY

The human desire for personal adornment which is present within us all, best finds its methods of expression in the wearing of jewelry. Since the time of the Pharohs, man has been conceited enough to think that the addition of a sparkling trinket to his apparel adds immeasurably to his anpearance.

Accordingly, the firms who specialize in satisfying this need are of the utmost importance. It has become symbolic to present your fiance with a ring upon the happy occasion of your engagement. Then another ring upon the happy occasion of the wedding. Then the first time she finds a blonde hair on your coat sleeve, the jeweler provides bracelet, or perhaps another

One of the foremost gentlemen in this important business is the well known William Rahn who maintains his attractive place of business on East Main street. All nationally recognized and advertised watches, and other ornaments are on display in sparkling array. Behind the neat counter of Mr Rahn's establishment is enough "ice" to win the most hard hearted female. During his many active years of business, five of which have been spent at his present address and fifteen previously in the field. Mr. Rahn has won the repeated patronage and confidence of more discriminate patrons who realize that they may avail themselves of his expert knowledge in the jewelry line. His name as a synonym for satisfaction has gained for him ultimate success.
