EDITORIAL

On political issues the world cannot agree; in matters of religion there are eternal differences of opinion; all people have ideas, others think but lack sound reasoning; but on one point we all agree: "Everyone wants to see his Home Town prosper and grow."

A good many intelligent citizens who would examine an automobile or a house or a garment thoroughly before Christ Hess, of Marticville; Mrs. investing in it, insisting on getting full value for their money, refuse to Elvin Hess, of Central Manor; Mr. scrutinize government expenditures in the same thoughtful and appraising

When a state or the nation starts "economizing," the first thing done is to cut off workers who immediately join the army of unemployed. The workers to be cut off ought to be those who ornament but do not work.

PRIVILEDGE ABUSED

At the regular monthly meeting of the School Board Monday evening, an order was issued that the janitor remove the play ground equipment at the Grade school. The Board took this action because the grown ups go there at night and abuse a privilege which so many of our children enjoy during These grown ups broke the swings, see-saws, chutes, etc. and as a result, all are now denied the pleasure of play at a place that parents can rest assured their children were safe.

What a pity that this practice could not be stopped in some other way and that our kiddies could not continue to enjoy the much needed recreation at a place maintained by the taxable people of our town.

CALLING A HALT

If we are to have sound and lasting prosperity in this country, the government must stop looking for new places to spend more money, and to Monday. levy additional taxes. HEALTH TALK

VRITTEN BY DR. THEODORE B. APPEL, SECRETARY OF

"Among the many diet fads that irk us today is that of vegetarian-Thanks to high-powered publicity and the natural enthusiasm of devotees, there is an all too general on abroad that meat somelow is harmful to the smooth-runing of the human body. The fact that certain internationally famous individuals subsist on vegetables o and nuts alone, adds impressive weight to such claims," states Docfor Theodore B. Appel, Secretary of Health.

"At the outset it may emphatic ally be stated that a mount of meat daily for the average normal healthy person is very excellent and entirely within the natural bodily demands. The very shape of the teeth indicate that nature intended humans to use the flesh of animals for food. Moreov er, there is no evidence to prove that the continuous eating of meat throughout life is conducive to dis If such were the case, literally millions of our forefathers and mothers, heavy meat eaters that were, would have suffered from all sorts of dire and lifehortening maladies. Which phatically they did not. The fact that in a sense they had a more active, less sedentary life and sibly did not need as much ani food as we do, does not militate against the argument. Nor in connection must one forget the millons of healthy meat-eating contemporaries. "However, an entirely different roposition arises in the certain diseases. For example, the kidneys become impaired, the eduction of meat eating physician's advice is entirely proper for reasons unnecessary to mention stressed is that it by no means follows that the plight of the kidneys was connected with eating meat in first instance. Causes and the treatment of disease are two very different propositions. "Meat, therefore, is not the acker of health as many persons have been led to believe that it is. It is an essential food element which is nutritous and affords the ody certain constituents highly irable for health.

'Of course, it is entirely possible or anyone to eat too much meat, is it is equally possible for one abitually to eat too much of any ther type of food. But this fact in no way connected with the isguided notion that meat is unealthy for healthy persons. "The fact that persons can subsist on a vegetable and nut diet loes not prove that meat is harmful any more than the fact that those within the Arctic circle living successfully on an exclusive meat liet blackens the eye of the vegetables

The meat problem, like problems, simply boils itself down to assuming a common sense attitude toward it. Fanatical underconsumption or over-consumption of meat should both be tabooed."

DECREASE IN MARRIAGES AND DIVORCES IN 1931

Marriages and divorces decreased in ancaster county last year compared to 1930, according to a report of the United States Census Bureau made public today.

There were 1,242 marriages in Lancaster county last year compared with 1,272 in 1930. The number of divorces decreased from 141 in 1930 to 120 in Practically the same situation prevailed in the state as a whole. During 1931 there were 60,160 marriages in Pennsylvania compared with 64,770 in Pennsylvania compared with 64,770 in 1930, a decline of 71.1 per cent. Divorces decreased from 8.021 in 1930 to 7.241 in 19313, a decline of 9.7 per cent.

FOR YOUR INSPECTION

The merchant and manufacturer who advertise, actually are placing their merchandise before you for inspection. They invite your most critical attention and an uncompromising comparison.

And their advertisements, so to speak, say to their products: "We have introduced you to the public now stand on your own merits."

If the manufacturer and merchant did not have confidence in their wares, they would hesitate to call attention to them. For advertising rigidly tests the maker, the seller and the merchandise.

Business so tested, and found not wanting, is prosperous.

In the long run, you can depend on the man who advertises, as well as on his product. That is one reason why people have found that it pays to read advertisements.

It is through advertising that the excellent things of the world are brought to the attention of those who are seeking for the best and most economical way to spend their money.

Read the advertisements. They are news.
