

All BUNDLES Must Be Left at the DOOR...

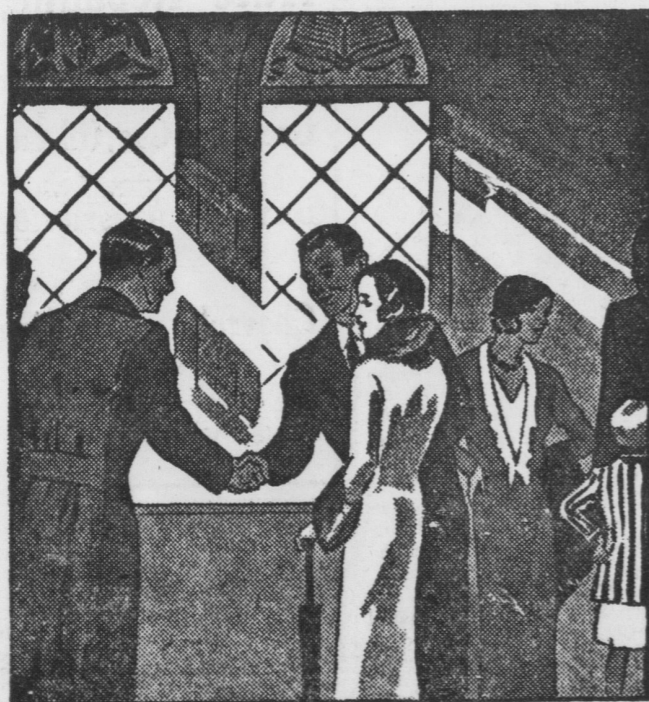

STRANGE ruling! Yet a ruling that is adhered to strictly by every church. The bundles in question are WORRY, CARE. They must be left at the door when you enter your Church. And when you come out again, the bundles will be gone! No matter how heavy your burdens, no matter how long or far you have carried them, they will be lifted from you as you enter. Remember that! When things are darkest, and you are weary, and the hill ahead looks too steep, and you feel that you cannot take another step, remember your Church.

Leave Worry and Care at Home

Your Church offers you strength, rest, courage. Let your Church help you. Come Let your Church help you. Come often. Come in sorrow, but come, too, in joy. For though the Church can make your sorrow less bitter it can also make your joy more sweet. Come to Church next Sunday and leave WORRY and CARE at the door.

Flower Show At Bainbridge

(From page 1) new classes of exhibits. The entire arrangement was impressive in that its simplicity provided added beauty. Bird houses, erected by boys were attractively arranged. An old draw-well, near the center of the exhibit, including the "old oaken bucket" attracted considerable attention as did the Old Cabin, in which Mrs. Mary Kuhn, of Elizabethtown, portrayed the grandmother character in appropriate Colonial costume. A tea room, near the mill, was decorated in red, white and blue. The show will be continued this Saturday and it is expected that 1,000 people will be present. The exhibits were judged by Mrs. John Fox, wife of Judge John Fox, of the Dauphin county courts, and Mrs. Carl Davis, also of Harrisburg. Both women are officials of the Harrisburg Garden Club.

Cheap Seeds Are Nothing But Weeds

(From page one) sales agency through a farmer or grain elevator in rural districts, the investigations of the Federal authorities and State Agricultural agencies show. With the agency established, the farmer or grain elevator sells directly or takes orders for the seed and the truck owner tends to avoid legal responsibility and has to spend only a little time in the State. By the time the seed buyer tests the seed, the truck seed salesman is gone, or is in another state where seed officials are powerless to reach him. Recently the State seed laboratory examined a sample of 'bootleg' soy bean seed and found it contained morning glory seed at the rate of 10,560 seeds to the bushel. A farmer buying this seed would sow from 15,000 to 20,000 weed seeds to the acre.

Both State and Federal agriculture officials are urging that farmers and seed dealers report the activities of peddlers of illegal seeds at once so that the responsible parties can be apprehended and prosecuted.

COUNTY MERCANTILE PAYMENTS LAGGING
County Treasurer I. Scott Smith, of Bainbridge, has warned county merchants in arrears in their mercantile license payment that all accounts not paid by July 1, will be turned over to an alderman for collection. The taxes became due May 1, and must be settled by July 1. Only 2900 out of a total 5700 accounts have been settled to date, Mr. Smith pointed out. This is about 200 behind the same period in 1931. Robert Carter, Ephrata, Mercantile appraiser, and Joseph Lutz, Columbia, assistant, have completed the annual survey and all mercantile establishments have been visited. Payment of dance hall licenses this year will be stressed, Mr. Smith indicated. Licenses for the operation of dance halls in the county became due on June 1, Mr. Smith announced. Representatives of the state will make a survey in Lancaster this year, in order to enforce the payment of these taxes. In previous years, Mr. Smith said, a number of operators did not pay.

SUN NEVER SETS ON OLD GLORY REVERED BY NATION SINCE 1777

Less than a year after the Liberty Bell rang out to celebrate the Declaration of Independence, the Stars and Stripes became the official flag of our country on June 14, 1777. The anniversary is now observed as Flag Day. At Right: U. S. Marines on parade with the National Flag and their regimental colors.

We Americans may well be proud of our flag. It is the most beautiful of all national colors, and has pointed the way to freedom for countless thousands. It stands for patriotism, loyalty, fidelity to the ideals of America. For 155 years it has been waving in the breeze, the most-beloved symbol of our country. Woodrow Wilson said: "The flag, which we honor and under which we serve, is the emblem of our unity, our power, our thought and purpose as a nation. It has no other character than that which we give it from generation to generation. The choices are ours. It floats in majestic silence above the hosts that execute those choices, whether in peace or in war. And yet, though silent, it speaks to us—speaks to us of the past, of the men and women who went before us, and of the records they wrote upon it." On June 14, 1777, the Continental Congress decided "that the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation." In the intervening years it has remained unchanged, save only for an occasional variation in the number of stripes and the addition of a star for each new state. The story of the flag is the story of the nation. It has kept pace with the march of events that followed the Revolution, and has braved the battle and the breeze during more than a century and a half of national growth. Its influence has gradually extended around the globe, and in our generation the sun never sets on the Stars and Stripes. Every minute of the twenty-four hours, somewhere on our planet the folds of Old Glory are flying in the breeze. It is the custom of the U. S. Marines to raise the flag every morning at eight o'clock. It remains flying until sunset. Three hours after the U. S. Marines at New York, Boston, Norfolk and other East Coast naval stations have raised the flag, the Marines at posts along the Pacific seaboard present arms to the colors as they are hauled martily to the top of the flagstaff—the time interval varying only when daylight-saving is in vogue. About two and a half hours later the ceremony is repeated in the Hawaiian Islands. More than five hours have rolled around before the flag is raised by the Soldiers of the Sea in the far-off Philippines, and at virtually the same hour in Shanghai, China, the Marines of the Fourth Regiment hoist the flag above their regimental headquarters. Several hours later the westward march of daylight catches the fluttering folds of the Stars and Stripes flying over American Consulates in the Near East or in Europe, and when the sun has passed its zenith in the Old World, the flag is again flung to the breeze on the Atlantic seaboard. Thus the Stars and Stripes makes its appearance in the early morning in all parts of the globe, and remains flying until the sun disappears over the horizon. Our flag has never been a symbol of military aggression. At home or abroad, afloat on the seven seas, or in some far distant outpost, it is America's guarantee of justice to those who seek protection under its folds.

The World's At Your Door

IMMORTALIZED in story and song, the old "corner store" has passed—along with the free potato on the kerosene can, and the customers' access to the crack-crack-box. It was picturesque, but you never quite knew what you would find there. Half the time it was full of people who didn't know what they wanted. The other half, it was empty. It was more of a club than a store.

Today, when you enter your grocery store—or any store—you know what you want, how much you want of it, and the price you are going to pay. Advertising has rendered you this service. It brings you weekly through the columns of The Bulletin, the merchandising opportunities of this community. In the quiet of your own home, you are enabled to select everything you want to buy!

The modern way to be certain of quality and value is to read the advertisements. Representing almost every field of opportunity, the advertising columns of The Bulletin bring you the fascinating story of the whole world's market-place!
