Consider Corn Soups

OVER a hundred years ago corn soups were as popular as they are today. A recipe comes down to us in an ancient yellowed cook-book which somehow makes us want to stop whatever we're doing and make "Corn Soup with Rivoles." It speaks glowingly of grated fresh sweet corn bathed in rich milk broth, and tiny rivoles, which incidentally, are egg dumplings rubbed into mere crumbs and cooked to perfect lightness and tenderness, so generously used that they fairly bump into one another in this creamy luscious broth.

Canned Corn is Delicious

Today we use canned corn, because it is really fresh sweet corn, and we can have it in the cream style or whole kernel—and either is delicious for coffee. This recipe, too, is something to consider and something to eat on a cold winter day.

Corn Chowder: Dice and fry one-fourth pound of bacon. Add one small diced onion and one diced green pepper. Continue sautéing until brown. Add four cups of diced boiled potatoes, and allow them to fry until slightly browned. Add the contents of one No. 2 can of corn, five cups milk, two and one-half teaspoons salt and one-fourth teaspoon pepper. Bring to scalding and serve. This serves ten persons.

Cream of Corn and Tomato Soup: Melt white sauce of three tablespoons butter, three tablespoons flour and three cups milk. Stew one cup of canned corn with one and one-half cups of canned tomatoes for ten minutes, then pour through a sieve and add to the white sauce. Season and serve with toasted crackers.

Beans in Brown Bowls

BEANS taste better, somehow, baked in brown bowls, or some sort of earthenware containers. The French know this, and they make most interesting earthenware dishes for such good dishes as bean casseroles, onion soups and foods which somehow belong in these cheerful homely containers—and happily stay hot in them.

Ever Try These?

There's a restaurant in New York which doesn't aspire to be fashionable but which serves some few foods which have made it famous. Noteworthy among these are baked beans and good coffee. The beans have the taste of those good oven-baked beans which can be bought in cans, and they have been placed in individual brown earthenware pots with brown sugar and a slice of bacon and browned until the bacon crisps and sizzles its fat through the beans. On a cold day, with a good friend, or good book—here's food for the gods, or the ungodly.

And here's a recipe for a good bean casserole dish to make at home:

Bean and Cheese Casserole: Dice four slices of bacon and fry crisp. Remove. Drain off most of the fat, add one-fourth cup pecans and brown gently. Add one-third cup diced cheese, the contents of one can of oven-baked beans, bacon diced and salt to taste. Pour into greased individual bakets. Cut two slices of bacon in halves and place a piece on top of each. Bake in the oven until the bacon is crisp. This serves four persons.

Hostetter. The table was decorated in yellow and gold crepe paper and had a lovely centerpiece of candles. Beautifully decorated cakes also served as an attraction, being decorated with inscription 1883-1933.

The entire family of the couple were present, except one grandson, Charles Brubaker, stationed with the Infantry, at Fort Davis, Panama. Those included were: Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gerber, Mrs. Amy Peoples, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bates and children, Alfred, Helen and Beatrice; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bates and two children, Barbara and Warren Jr., all of town; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Brubaker and children, Clarence and Ruth; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kipp and son, Raymond of Enola; Miss Carrie E. Hummel, of Hummelstown; Mr. and Mrs. James Gerber and sons, James, Jr., Jay Calvin and Jerwyn; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Coughlin, of Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerber received gifts in gold of money, also linen, chinaware, etc.

The fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Coughlin, of Elizabethtown, was also observed the same day, Mrs. Coughlin being the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gerber.

Get Up Nights? Make this 25c Test

Physic the bladder as you would the bowels. Drive out impurities and excessive acids that cause irritation burning and frequent desire. Get a 25c test box of BU-KETS, the bladder physic, from any drug store. After four days if you are not relieved of getting up nights go back and get your money. BU-KETS, containing buchu leaves, juniper oil, etc., acts pleasantly and effectively on the bladder stimulating to castor oil on the bowels. If you are bothered with backache, or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep. E. W. Garber, Druggist.

charged with forgery by Young's Tire Shop, of this place. In default of $500 bail he was committed to the county jail for a hearing at a later date. He is also wanted in Lancaster on charges of forgery. He was only recently paroled from the Eastern Penitentiary.

Seriously Charged

Last week Constable Zerphey arrested R. W. Fitzwater, former Police Officer at Elizabethtown, on a warrant from the office of Squire Grimm charged seriously by Mrs. Emma Hendrix of this place, on behalf of her daughter Esther. He furnished $500.00 bail for a hearing before Grimm, Jan. 11 at 2 P. M. This case has since been settled by an agreement of both parties.

Was Panhandling

Thursday Constable Zerphey arrested George Baker, colored of Baltimore, Md. He was charged with vagrancy and panhandling. He was soliciting money at the Mennonite church and on the streets of the Boro. Given a hearing by Burgess Keener he was committed to the county jail for a period of 30 days.

DR. SCHLOSSER SPEAKS TO FARM WOMEN NO. 8

Dr. Ralph W. Schlosser, president of the Elizabethtown college, delivered another of his series of lectures on American Poets at the regular meeting of the Farm Women's Society, No. 8, on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Reist. About fifty members were present.

Dr. Schlosser spoke on the life and achievements of Edgar Allan Poe. Vocal duets were given by Miss Margaret Lehn and Mrs. J. A. Lora and a solo by Martha Jane Reist. Mrs. William Bucher, of Quarryville, president of the county society, attended the meeting.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Mumma, near Maytown, on Friday evening, January 27, when Dr. Schlosser will continue his series of addresses.

Store Flower Bulbs
Gladioli, cannas, and dahlias demand proper storage conditions if the bulbs are to go through the winter safely. Separate boxes or trays should be provided for each kind.

All BUNDLES Must Be Left at the DOOR...

STRANGE ruling! Yet a ruling that is adhered to strictly by every church. The bundles in question are WORRY, CARE. They must be left at the door when you enter your Church. And when you come out again, the bundles will be gone! No matter how heavy your burdens, no matter how long or far you have carried them, they will be lifted from you as you enter. Remember that! When things are darkest, and you are weary, and the hill ahead looks too steep, and you feel that you cannot take another step, remember your Church.

Leave Worry and Care at Home

Your Church offers you strength, rest, courage. Let your Church help you. Come Let your Church help you. Come often. Come in sorrow, but come, too, in joy. For though the Church can make your sorrow less bitter it can also make your joy more sweet. Come to Church next Sunday and leave WORRY and CARE at the door.
