

Taxes Consume Nearly One-Third of Average Dollar Spent for Gasoline

Twenty-nine cents of every dollar the average motorist spent for gasoline in 1932 went to pay State and Federal taxes! These levies reduced approximately by one-third the gasoline purchasing power of the dollar. Money with which the motorist could have bought a fourth gallon went to pay taxes on the first three. A car travelling 10 miles per gallon, went only 75 miles instead of 100 to the dollar!

Showing how gasoline taxes took 9¢ from every $1 spent for gasoline in 1924, 11¢ in 1926, 14¢ in 1928, 21¢ in 1930. At this rate, about 35¢ of the 1933 gasoline dollar will be tax!

Although tax reduction has been promised, government appears determined to make the motorist the "Forgotten Man." States are contemplating increases in gasoline tax rates this year. Congress appears to be inclined to continue, if not to increase, the 1¢ Federal gasoline tax supposed to expire July 1 next.

The gasoline tax first was imposed by Oregon on February 25, 1923, at 1¢ per gallon to finance roads. Cumulative federal, state, county, and community gasoline tax rates now range from 3¢ to 12¢ per gallon.

Gasoline tax revenues for 1932 are estimated at $600,000,000. At least $100,000,000 was diverted from roads, and further diversions this year, combined with rate increases, further will load the tax burden upon the motorist unless he protests. Additional tax money paid by motorists was lost to tax evaders and gasoline bootleggers, government finding it impossible to collect such taxes at high rates. This year the motorist will be asked to pay for a subterfuge for tax reduction, tax shifting—to the motorist!

Noted Preacher To Speak Here

The Honorable Oliver W. Stewart, president of the Flying Squadron Foundation and chief of its field force, will be in Mount Joy on Wednesday, February 22 at 8:00 o'clock, to speak in the interest of National Prohibition in the Methodist church.

Mr. Stewart is one of the foremost leaders of the prohibition movement now in active service in this country. His has been a life devoted to this cause. More than 40 years ago he was released from his contract as a young school teacher in the middle of a term that he might go out to do organized work in his behalf. From that hour to this, he has never been without vital connection with it.

While yet a very young man he did what was regarded as impossible in winning an election to the most Illinois Legislature on the prohibition issue as a candidate in the city of Chicago. As a member of the House of Representatives of his state, he rendered distinguished service to the cause of prohibition. Almost immediately he became a man of marked influence in that body.

Mr. Stewart is a writer of unusual ability. As the editor of the National Enquirer, which paper he founded accompanied with the former Governor J. Frank Hanly, of Indiana, he has won recognition for the paper as one of the foremost reform journals of the nation.

Mr. Stewart is probably best known for his work on the platform. He has a remarkable sense of humor, a rare sanity, an utter lack of fanaticism, and a wide range of thought. Within the last year he has been heard in hundreds of the most significant centers in the nation, touching every State in the Nation.

...and got it bad. With twitching mouth and bended head, his eyes are set in a glassy stare. He's got jig-saw-puzzle-itis. . . the great American indoor sport.

Poor fellow! Look at him crouching there, nerves ragged, eyes red rimmed and tired and he wonders why he has a headache. . . yet he won't give up.

Can't blame him though, for jig-saws are good fun. . . but take a little warning. Don't try to do jig-saw puzzles unless you've got plenty of light on your work. Under poor light, the constant shifting of the eyes from piece to piece, trying to match curves and colors at the same time is one of the worst strains to which you can subject your eyes.

Try a lot of good light when you work the next one, and see how much easier it makes them, how much quicker you can do them.

And here's a little lesson to be learned. . . good light will help a lot in many things besides working jig-saw puzzles. . . reading, writing, card playing, sewing and a hundred others.

Bad Light! Bad Eyes! Eye Strain, nervousness, premature need of glasses, and other troubles are largely the result of bad lighting conditions—glare, gloom, inadequate light.

Light up and save your eyes. . . the cost of little more light is trivial in view of the damage that may be wrought without it.

All BUNDLES Must Be Left at the DOOR...

STRANGE ruling! Yet a ruling that is adhered to strictly by every church. The bundles in question are WORRY, CARE. They must be left at the door when you enter your Church. And when you come out again, the bundles will be gone! No matter how heavy your burdens, no matter how long or far you have carried them, they will be lifted from you as you enter. Remember that! When things are darkest, and you are weary, and the hill ahead looks too steep, and you feel that you cannot take another step, remember your Church.

Leave Worry and Care at Home

Your Church offers you strength, rest, courage. Let your Church help you. Come Let your Church help you. Come often. Come in sorrow, but come, too, in joy. For though the Church can make your sorrow less bitter it can also make your joy more sweet. Come to Church next Sunday and leave WORRY and CARE at the door.
