EDITORIAL
WE'RE ALL FOR YOU, MR. ROOSEVELT!

Regardless of how you voted in the November election, President Roosevelt is the president of all America.

TO BE BETTER
Is your mental attitude right for better times?

Looking on the brighter, and frankly, the more probable side, it seems almost certain that at least the beginning of the recovery from the great depression will come this spring.

WHAT CONSTITUTES EDUCATION?

We are opposed to a school system which places more stress upon athletics, theatricals and a lot of non-essentials than it does upon the fundamentals.

We are opposed to any school system which demands—not asks, but demands—more of the taxpayers' money than is necessary for the teaching of fundamentals in these times of financial distress.

We are opposed to any school system which is prevalent in schools, and other welfare organizations, that the young people must be amused, must be entertained, must be coddled, all the time, whether the people who support these institutions can afford it or not.

We are opposed to the idea, which is prevalent in schools, and other welfare organizations, that the young people must be amused, must be entertained, must be coddled, all the time, whether the people who support these institutions can afford it or not.

If athletics, class colors and banquets, constitute education, to the neglect of the fundamentals which are no necessary to any boy or girl who makes a success in life, we are opposed to it.

COOPERATION
It ain't the guns nor armament, Nor the funds that they can pay. But the close cooperation That helps us win the day!

It ain't the individual Nor the people as a whole, But the everlasting team-work Of every bloomin' soul.

It ain't the man who talks a lot And knocks things in his town, But the everlasting booster, Who looks up instead of down.

29 Postmasters May Lose Job

(From page 1) soon as possible or whether they will wait until terms expire. The department can, by seizing upon technicalities in the post office regulations, find sufficient grounds for dismissing even the most faithful officials, and in the larger offices of the country this has been done frequently, it has been pointed out. On the other hand, administrations have allowed postmasters to serve out their terms, anticipating that the new appointees would be allowed a full four years also by the incoming administration.

Charles H. Stormfeltz is Lancaster postmaster and A. M. Lichty is Paradise postmaster, both receiving salaries above the $3,200 a year class.

Second Class Postmasters
The second class postmasters who receive between $2,400 and $3,000 are: Columbia, Charles E. Taylor; Denver, A. S. Plummer; Ephrata, S. Y. Wisler; Landisville, F. H. Shenck; Lititz, Paul Saebler; Manheim, J. L. Coldren; Marietta, J. H. Miller; Mount Joy, William Tyndall; New Holland, Isaac Snader.

Third class postmasters, who receive between $1,100 and $2,300, are: Akron, P. D. Getz; Bareville, H. E. Harsh; Christiansburg, James Evanson; Florin, Arthur D. Garber; Gap, L. N. Ammon; Holtwood, H. C. Myers; Kiner, Harlan Stauffer; Leola, M. H. Stauffer; Maytown, H. B. Haines; Millerville, H. M. Stauffer; Mountville, A. R. Brooks; Quarryville, A. M. Wade; Ronks, Mrs. Mabel Myers, Safe Harbor, D. M. Wimer; Smoketown, Harry Rohrer, Strasburg, M. T. Weaver, and Terre Hill, H. M. Showalter.

Fourth class postmasters, of which there are more than 70 in the county, hold office continuously, changes being made only on death, resignation or removal by the department.

Unfinished Masterpiece
Sienna, perched on its three hills, is a fine medieval example of artistic Italian enterprise, though the city has dwindled to about one-fourth of the population it had in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth centuries. Its great buildings have survived the turmoils of the ages, and its cathedral is yet one of the grander sights of the peninsula. It was planned to be the largest Gothic church of Italy but the enormous nave which they started to build was left unfinished due to the cost and the ravages of "the Black Death" plague. A few ruined arcades are all that remain as a monument to their mighty discomfitment.

Will Train At Mount Gretna AND AFFLICTED ABOUT THE SICK

(From page 1) Shannon, the Lieutenant - Governor of Pennsylvania, will be in charge of the field training of the state troops this summer. He will succeed Major General William G. Price, Jr., who retires from military service after a long career on Mar. 23.

General Shannon will establish headquarters at Mt. Gretna during the training period. Also at Mt. Gretna will be the Headquarters Company, 56th Infantry Brigade, commanded by Captain Charles L. Supplee, Columbia, including two officers and 35 enlisted men, from July 22 to August 5.

Two units of the 103rd Medical Regiment, stationed in Lancaster, will train at Mt. Gretna.

Seek High Quality
High quality milk delivered in good condition to milk plants or consumers and its manufacture into high quality products are worthy goals for the dairyman.

Mrs. Ellen Smeltzer, on North Barbara St., is about again. Mrs. Fred Schneider, Sr., is a patient at the Lancaster General hospital. Mr. John Gantz, of near Green Tree, who was on the sick list, is able to be about again. John Ernest Nissly, son of Sam Nissly, near Rheems, is recovering from an attack of pneumonia. Mrs. John Shank, who was a patient at the Presbyterian hospital at Philadelphia, returned home on Sunday.

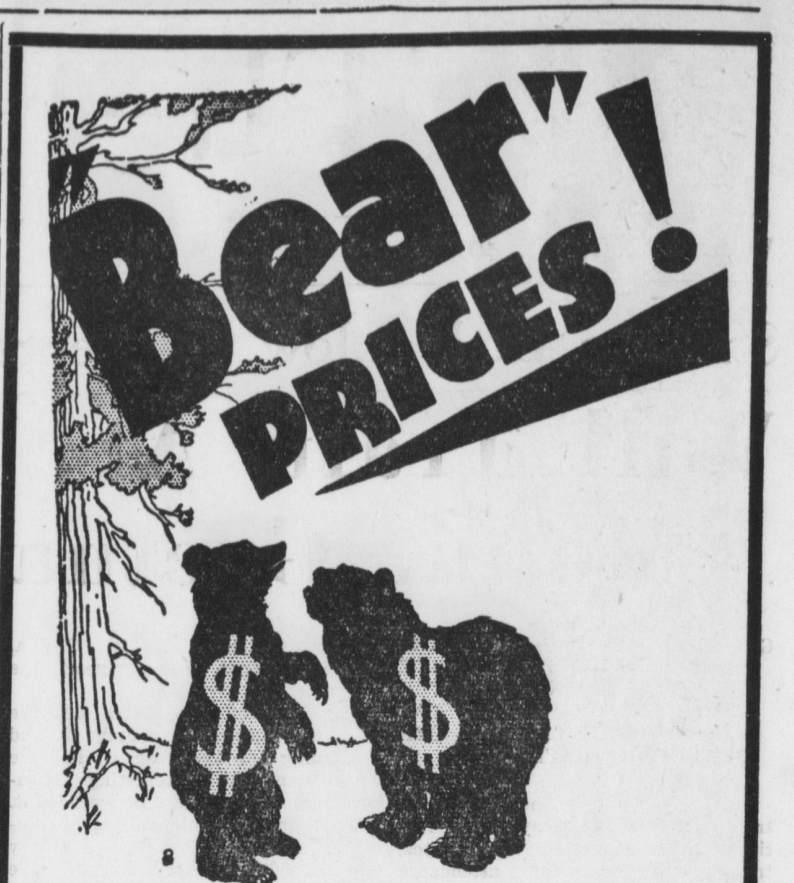

Mrs. Samuel Shaeffer, of Elizabethtown, (Florence Siler, of town) who is a surgical patient at the Lancaster General hospital, is improving.

Market Eggs Often
An egg cannot be improved by holding. Eggs should be shipped just as frequently as the method of marketing will permit. Whenever possible make an effort to market eggs at least twice a week.

Catch— Them Before They Climb...

PRICES today are below "sea-level", if we may be permitted to use the phrase as a simile for par.

They're actually "sub" prices in the sense that many commodities, and principally the necessities of life, are being sold below cost of production, or at least below the cost at which merchants, manufacturers and wage-earners can continue to produce them and maintain normal standards of living.

What, then, is the inevitable result? Prices must come "up for air" ... national and individual prosperity demands it and the upturn is immediately in the offing.

Today's prices are depression prices. They can only be compared with prices during other periods of depression of past years... they cannot remain in this country any more than depression can continue in a country so basically prosperous in resources, in enterprise, in wealth, in commercial and industrial leadership.

These are conditions which will, and are already, adjusted themselves... by inevitable laws of economics.

We've reached the low... and at the low is the time to buy. With Food, Clothing, Furniture and almost everything else at the lowest prices in 15 years; with the purchasing power of your dollar greater today by 40% to 100% than at any time since the war surely it's time to stock up... even to buy beyond your immediate needs because unless you buy now, or very soon, you're surely going to pay more... when prices come "up for air."
