Boards Must Fix Tax Rate

DR. RULE ADVISES BOARDS TO CALL IN CONTRACTS OF TEACHERS WHO ARE TO REMAIN IN SERVICE — LEGISLATION MAY EFFECT SALARIES

Pennsylvania school boards are confronted with unusual conditions as they prepare to make budgets and set tax rates for next year. Pending legislation which may effect salaries of teachers has been summarized and sent to all county and district school superintendents of Public Instruction.

He strongly advises school boards against wholesale termination of teachers' contracts until the Legislature acts upon a bill to make salary reductions permissive. He indicated how contracts of acceptable teachers can be continued and possible salary changes adjusted in keeping with pending legislation.

To change a teacher's contract, the school board must notify the teacher in writing not less than sixty days before the close of the school term. Dr. Rule (Turn to page 5)

LANDISVILLE MAN HURT WHILE RIDING MOTORCYCLE

State Highway Patrolmen Friday night were conducting an investigation to determine the cause of an accident on the East Petersburg-Neffsville road, Friday, in which Elmer W. Leaman, twenty-five, of Landisville, was seriously injured when thrown off a motorcycle he was riding.

Conveyed to the Lancaster General hospital in the institution's ambulance, Leaman was found to be suffering from a possible fracture of the skull and a laceration of the head. He was admitted.

According to Patrolman J. A. Aumon, Leaman was traveling toward Neffsville when the cycle spilled on a hole. Questioned briefly at the hospital by the officer, Leaman said he did not know what caused the accident. Aumon expressed the opinion that the cycle might have run off the hard road surface and skidded in loose stones at the side.
