Fined For Speeding

"Let me see your license, young lady." The man on the motorcycle frowned, while he drew a ticket from his pocket.

Merriment and laughter which a minute ago had filled the big blue sedan suddenly vanished. The passengers became silent.

But it took only a second or so until the plucky little driver regained her courage, jumped from the car, and stood facing the scowling State Cop, the card in her hand.

"I've a good notion to take you all to the police station," his sneering voice was just as bad as his ugly scowl, "Why the big hurry, going to catch a train?"

"Really sir, we didn't realize we were going so fast. You see we're going to—"

"Meet the Prince of Wales, I suppose," that sneering voice interrupted.

By this time the group in the car realized the plight they were in and soon a cry of "We're going to INSTITUTE" rang in the startled policeman's ear.

"Yes and we're late now. Please don't hold us up any longer," the driver added, her eyes pleading.

What is it that draws young people as well as the older ones to Institute? Why do they look forward so anxiously from year to year to Institute time? Summer Institute and Winter Institute alike are certainly times that can not be forgotten.

This Sunday evening the Young People from Cookman League who attended the Winter Institute held in Lancaster for six consecutive Tuesday evenings will have charge of the meeting. Let them bring some of the joys which they received from this Institute to you. Come out and hear them.

N. B. The Children participating in this Festival have been trained under different directors and have never previously sung together. They meet in the goodfield of music for the pure joy of large-group work.

Special recognition is made of the teachers who so faithfully trained the vocal groups, to those principals whose co-operation in handling details made possible the smooth handling of the groups, and to the Boards of Education whose interest in and support of our efforts encouraged our performance.

MATCH STICKS FOUND IN PILLOW 'FILLINGS' Easy rests the head that sleeps on a pillow inspected by the State Department of Labor and Industry's bedding and upholstery section. Inspectors announced they had found in samples for "fillings" for an order of 6,000 pillows, 220 lbs. of match sticks, bits of duck and chicken bills, and small pieces of bamboo mixed with the feathers. The order consigned to a United States government hospital, was given no soft treatment—it was rejected.

All BUNDLES Must Be Left at the DOOR...

STRANGE ruling! Yet a ruling that is adhered to strictly by every church. The bundles in question are WORRY, CARE. They must be left at the door when you enter your Church. And when you come out again, the bundles will be gone! No matter how heavy your burdens, no matter how long or far you have carried them, they will be lifted from you as you enter. Remember that! When things are darkest, and you are weary, and the hill ahead looks too steep, and you feel that you cannot take another step, remember your Church.

Leave Worry and Care at Home

Your Church offers you strength, rest, courage. Let your Church help you. Come Let your Church help you. Come often. Come in sorrow, but come, too, in joy. For though the Church can make your sorrow less bitter it can also make your joy more sweet. Come to Church next Sunday and leave WORRY and CARE at the door.
