BUSINESS PEOPLE SHOULD REPORT SALES EVEN THO THEY ARE EXEMPT FROM TAX SAYS LEON D. METZGER

"Play safe and mail your emergency relief sales tax report to the Department of Revenue even tho' every sale made during the six nonths' tax period comes under the exemptions provided by law." This advice was given business people today, by Secretary Leon D. Metzger.

"It is advisable for merchants who have no taxable sales to report to mark the return form accordingly and send it to the Department."

know its sales have been made which are taxable.

The law gives the Department the right to estimate and assess a tax against any one who neglects or refuses to make a return and pay the tax on or before April 1. Merchants not filing a return by themselves open to this assessment. If the form is marked indicating all sales as exempt and returned to the Department, no tax will be estimated or assessed without an investigation first being made. Intentional refusal or neglect to most make a return to the Department is days. $500 and costs, or imprisonment for tersonville. not more than six months, or both.

P. R. R. TRAINS DELAYED

Pennsylvania Railroad passenger trains were slightly delayed at 3 P. M. Thursday when a locomotive attached to a local freight train was derailed on a siding near Landisville. Eastbound passenger trains were rerouted over the westbound tracks

The engine was derailed when it backed onto the siding. The dam-age was slight. 'the wrecking crew from the Lancaster yards put the locomotive back on the rails.

Rapho Man Hurt

William Mahler, Manheim R D 1, was treated at the General hospital for lacerations of the face, a sprained knee, possible fractures of the ribs and body bruises. He told at-tendants he fell out of a moving auto near East Petersburg.

News In General

31, Last Day A suit to recover demages sus-tained when a large portico roof was torn off the front of a gasoline ervice station on East Main Street, n this boro, was filed at the court ouse on Friday. Plaintiff in the action is Ira K. Newcomer, of Elizabethtown, owner of the service station. In papers TROPHIES filed by George F. Hambright, attorney, it is claimed that an employe in the station attempted to stop the large truck before it drove beneath the extending roof but that the driver refused to obey. The top of the truck crashed into the roof, causing it to collapse on top of the truck and badly damaging the building. Defendant in the suit is David Halpee, Philadelphia.
