Pinchot Signs; Are Now Laws

JURORS' AND WITNESS' FEES REDUCED—TROUT LIMIT 20 A DAY—DEER LAW CHANGED CONCERNING CAMPS

The pen of Governor Pinchot created new laws for Pennsylvanians last week. Three of them concern jurors, witnesses, fishermen and hunters.

Fees Reduced
The Scott law reduces fees and expenses for jurors and witnesses. The act reduces jurors' fees from $4 to $3 a day and limits their traveling costs to six cents a mile. It reduces witnesses' fees from $3 to $2 a day and limits traveling costs to three cents a mile.

Trout Limit Reduced
The Rhodes (Monroe) bill provides that the limit of trout a fisherman may catch in one day shall be 20 instead of 25.
The act becomes effective September 1, a month after the close of the present trout season.

Deer Law Changed
The Ederer bill revises the deer kill limit to provide six to a camp instead of one to a hunter and six to a camp. It will permit a hunter, if a member of a camp, to kill more than one deer so long as the camp's kill does not exceed six. Under the previous law a hunter who was a member of a camp could not shoot at a deer after he had killed one.

Local Marble Tournament

COMPETITION ON THE GRADE SCHOOL GROUNDS IS SURE RUNNING HIGH NOWADAYS—SOME VERY CLOSE CONTESTS

Each and everyone of us should have enough of that Vitamin H—Happiness—to cast our cares aside for a few minutes and be happily interested in that big "ring" at the Marietta Street School—marbles.

And say—who in the wide world wouldn't be anxious to beat another player? Even some of the parents would enjoy being a winner if they would have a chance to receive a prize such as is being given this year—besides the trip to Lancaster and perhaps Ocean City.

Our physical instructor at our local high school, Mr. Caryl Stauffer, in his desire to urge the players on and put still more "pepp" into the game, has offered the following as prizes:

The winner of the first 6 grades—40 varied colored agate marbles, 12 large varied colored agate shoot (Turn to page 8)
