(No. 53)

All that certain lot or piece of land with two and one-half (2½) story brick dwelling house (No. 41) thereon, erected, situated on the east side of Spence Avenue, between Ellwood and Elm Avenues in Colonial Park, Lancaster Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, and bounded and described as follows, to wit:

Beginning on the north by Lot No. 26, on the Plan of Colonial Park (on file in the Recorder's Office of said County) on the east by the fourteen (14) feet wide common alley hereinafter mentioned, on the south by part of Lot No. 26 on said Plan, now or late of Benerville Derr, and on the west by Spencer Avenue, aforesaid.

Containing in front on said Spencer Avenue twenty-five (25) feet and extending on depth of that width eastwardly one hundred and forty (140) feet to the fourteen (14) feet wide common alley hereinafter mentioned.

The south line of said lot passes through the middle of the nine (9) inch cement block partition wall, which is a party wall, between the dwelling on the lot herein described and the dwelling on the lot adjoining on the south.

The premises herein described are the western portions of Lot No. 27 on the aforesaid plan.

The lot described is subject to the following reservation, that is to say: There shall be no house constructed on the lot herein described costing less than two thousand dollars ($2,000.00); no building shall be erected within thirty (30) feet of the east line of Spencer Avenue; no frame houses or solid board fences shall be permitted, and no liquor sold or manufactured on said lot. No blocks or rows of houses shall be permitted. This shall not however, prohibit the erection of houses built in pairs. The building restriction of thirty (30) feet is imposed on said lot in conformity with a certain agreement dated March 1, 1913 and recorded in Record Book N, Volume 21, Page 69.

Together with the right for said Mabel F. Holland, her heirs and assigns, to come in common with Benenville Derr, his heirs and assigns, the fourteen (14) feet wide alley crossing Lots Nos. 27 and 28 on the aforesaid Plan and part of which alley is along the rear of eastern end of the premises herein described.

Said premises are conveyed subject to the easement of a twenty-four (24) inch terra cotta drain extending from the northeast corner of the lawn in front of the dwelling on the lot hereinabove described.

Seized and taken in execution as property of Mabel F. Holland.
