When Your Bridge Partner SCOWLS

Don't misjudge your partner's attitude in the game you play . . the disgusted look on his countenance may be attributed to poor light ... perhaps he cannot see the cards clearly, for ofttimes LIGHT is either too dull and dim, or too glaring.

Put a smile back on his face by using adequate light of proper wattage. Use nationally known, American-made Mazda lamps, shaded, in every socket. Keep a carton of "spares" on hand. Then you will always be sure of good light at low cost. Purchase these nationally advertised lamps from us or your Local Dealer.
