HERSHEY ESTATES WILL PROPAGATE GAME BIR

Three thousand game birds, quail, pheasants and mallard ducks, have Rep.: W. H. Strickler, 21; Alice been hatched in incubators by Hershey Estates and will be released this fall on the Hershey farms. The farms, 9000 acres, will be protected from hunters and food will be placed outside for the birds during winter. It has been announced by Hershey officials that greater num-bers of birds will be released each year. Eventually, it is expected, the birds will spread through Dauphin and nearby counties and furnish the sport for hunters.

Constable Resigned Maxwell Sargen, the constable of Rep.: P. P. Dattisman, 64; Famel Marietta, tendered his resignation to Judge B. C. Atlee. the Court House.
