Wedding Bells Ring Locally

with Rev. Hiram Kauffman officiating. The ring ceremony was used. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a dress of white tulle and tulle, made in Empire style, the puffed sleeves trimmed with Alencon lace. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids, gardenias, white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Kathryn Eby, sister of the bride attended her as maid of honor. She was dressed in blue point de spirite over blue satin and carried a light blue mull of pink roses, delphinium and baby's breath.

The flower girls were Jean Herr, of Lancaster, niece of the bridegroom, and Alta Newcomer, of Mount Joy. They were dressed in pink organdie trimmed with blue and pink satin sashes, carrying dainty bouquets of delphinium and pink roses, tied with blue ribbon.

The bridegroom's attendant was J. Donald Glenn, of Lancaster, and Harry Herr, of Lime Valley, was usher, Miss Mary Herr, of Lancaster, sister of the bridegroom played the wedding march.

The ceremony was witnessed by the immediate families and a few friends.

A reception followed the wedding at the bride's home, after which the couple left on a two-week's trip to Canada and the New England states. After their return they will reside in their home on the Millersville road.

The bride is a graduate of the Landisville High School, class of 1924 and Mr. Herr, a graduate of Lancaster High school, class of 1922.

Parker-Rich
The marriage of Miss Addie R. Rich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Rich, of Marietta, to George Parker, of Philadelphia, took place Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Prospect Place, Marietta. Rev. Samuel E. Gaskell, of the Marietta M. E. Church, officiated.

Zielinski-Keener
In a quiet wedding Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Miss Hilda Morris Zielinski, daughter of Paul Zielinski, Plane and Manor streets, became the bride of Joseph N. Keener, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Keener, of Maytown, in the Church of God, at Columbia. The Rev. Wesley N. Wright performed the ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families and a few friends.

The bride wore a dress of white canton crepe with a picture hat, gloves and slippers to match. Her dress was trimmed in ostrich plumes. She carried a bouquet of spring flowers which later was placed on the grave of her mother in Wrightsville cemetery.

The newlyweds went to housekeeping in their completely furnished home at Maytown which was a wedding gift from Mr. and Mrs. Keener.

Nolt-Felty
Miss Ruth E. Nolt, daughter of Mrs. Nettie Nolt, of Maytown, became the bride of Charles Felty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Felty, of near Maytown, in a beautiful church wedding on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the Church of God at Maytown. Rev. Wm. Hober, pastor of the church, officiated and used the ring ceremony.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Grace Nolt and the best man was John Herr. The ushers were Messrs. Charles Derr and Walter Derr, both of town.

Miss Elizabeth Davidson, of Newville, Cumberland County, was at the organ.

The church was massed in white peonies and ferns.

The bridegroom was white and her bouquet was of red and white roses, while her sister wore a gown of pink and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bride taught in the Maytown schools, and was organist and Sunation on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Felty left on a honeymoon to Niagara Falls, after which they will reside on a Hershey Unit Farm.

A wedding reception followed the ceremony, at which 100 guests were present. The members of her Sunday School class served the luncheon.

Two Couples Are Wed
A Columbia girl, a brother and sister of Mount Joy, and a Florin man were the principals in a double wedding ceremony performed Memorial Day in the Presbyterian church at Columbia, with Rev. Dr. Guy D. Winger officiating.

The two brides were dressed alike and both couples left together for a honeymoon trip to Atlantic City, New Jersey.

The Columbia girl before her marriage was Miss Mary D. Ashton, daughter of Mrs. Nettie Ashton, 318 Walnut street, Columbia; the brother and sister are Donald E. Bishop and Miss Ruth Bishop, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Bishop, of Mount Joy, and the Florin man, John Strickler.

Miss Ashton became the bride of Mr. Bishop and Mr. Strickler and Miss Bishop acted as their attendants. The newlyweds then acted as attendants for Mr. Strickler and Miss Bishop in the second ceremony.

Both brides wore light blue crepe gowns with large blue picture hats and accessories to match, with corsages of tea roses and baby's breath.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop will reside with the bride's mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Strickler will reside at Florin. On their way to Atlantic City, the couples were given a reception at Philadelphia at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Krause, uncle and aunt of the Columbia bride.

Attended the Meeting
Mr. and Mrs. J. Willis Freed, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Loraw and many other prominent Democrats from this locality attended the organization meeting at Hotel Brunswick, Lancaster, Monday forenoon.

GOODRICH WILL SPONSOR HEAVYWEIGHT BROADCAST

Local Tire Dealer Announces Air Program For June 14 Battle

The B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company will sponsor a ring-side blow-by-blow description of the Max Baer-Prima Carnera heavyweight championship fight in New York City on Thursday night, June 14, it is announced by H. E. Garber, Goodrich tire dealer, located at 208 East Main street, Mount Joy.

The broadcast of the fight will come over the entire National Broadcasting Company system, according to Mr. Garber.

Both NBC-WEAF (Red) and NBC-WJZ (Blue) and associated stations will carry the blow-by-blow description of the title battle.

"Because of the widespread interest in the coming fight, we were naturally pleased to learn that Goodrich has made arrangements to broadcast it," Mr. Garber says.

Goodrich is now presenting a dramatic radio serial titled "Taxi" featuring Baer in the role of a taxi-driver over a coast-to-coast network on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights. The programs come from Baer's training camp in New Jersey. The NBC-WJZ network and associated stations are on the hook-up.

This program can be heard in this vicinity over Station WJZ according to Mr. Garber.

He Cleans 'Em Right

Services were held at the home on Saturday afternoon in the Landisville Mennoite church, with interment in the adjoining cemetery.

Kill Weeds in Garden
Shallow cultivation prevents the weed growth but does not deprive the garden plants of moisture and food by cutting off the roots. As soon as the garden soil dries off after a rain is a good time to go over the soil with a rake, hoe, or wheel hoe with scraper attachments to check weed growth, break the crust, and create a fine mulch on the surface.
