Women who must be on the job every day need Lydia E. Pinkham's Tablets. They not only relieve periodic pain and discomfort...

"I am 27 and a textile winder in the mill. I had cramps so bad that I had to cry many times. I used to stay in bed two days a month. Lydia E. Pinkham's Tablets helped me wonderfully. For the first time in my life I do not suffer. I can work all the time now and feel strong.—Mrs. Bennie Coates, 1963 Terrace St., Muskegon, Mich.

OWL LAFFS

BY A WISE OWL

After the Inaugural parade at Harrisburg yesterday I was watching two defeated Republicans down their sorrows in a battle from one of the State Stores.

The first imbibor said: "I found (his) a half dollar. His pal said: "Tish mine, tish got my name on it." "What sh your name?" ask the first imbibor. E. Pluribus Unum," the chap answered. "yeah," said the finder, "tish yours."

We still aren't certain whether the garment workers went on a strike for shorter hours, higher waist lines or longer frowns.

One of our worldly wise young men from Donegal street went into Thomas' Restaurant and said: "Boy, I'm scared! I just got a letter from a man telling me he'd shoot me if I didn't stay away from his wife." "Chuck" Bennett said: "Well, you've got nothing to worry about. All you have to do is stay away from his wife." "Yeah," said the fellow, "but he didn't sign his name and I don't know which one I'm to stay away from."

He mumbled a few words in church And he was married. He mumbled a few words in his sleep And he was divorced.

Speaking of talking in one's sleep. There's a deaf and dumb husband who wore boxing gloves to bed so he wouldn't talk in his sleep.

A man from Florin walked reluctantly into Eshleman Bros. store. "I just lost a bet," he said, "and I want to get a soft hat."

The gentleman behind the counter selected a hat from the shelf, handed it to the prospective purchaser with the remark, "This is the softest hat we have." The customer gazed at it speculatively. "What I want, he said reluctantly, "is something a little more tender. I've got to eat it."

We've just made an arrangement with our laundry. We are to send back all their pins if they return all our buttons. Fifty-fifty.

A wealthy spinster from Harrisburg peeped into her living room and inquired: "Has the canary had its bath yet?" "Yes, ma'am," answered the servant, "you can come in now."

Then there's Dumb Dora. She thought a blocked kick was a square-toed shoe.

Tragedy

Ben be nimble Ben be quick Ben fall over the candle stick Ben burnie.

A gentleman from Milton Grove visited Philadelphia last week. While there he slipped on the stair of a subway and started to slide down to the bottom. Half-way down he collided with a lady, knocking her down, and the two continued their way to the lower landing.

After they had reached the bottom the lady, still dazed, continued to sit on the gentleman's chest. Looking up at her, in his most polite Milton Grove manner, he finally said: "Madam, I'm sorry, but this is as far as I go."

Now Dumb Dora's sister wants to know if a sonnet is a very small baby boy.

"Cappy" Mummum complained: "The water at the Grey Iron is unsafe for me to drink." The fellow to whom he was talking asked: "What precautions do you take against it?" Well, said Cappy, "I filter it." "Yes?" said his friend. "Then," continued Cappy, "I boil it." "Yes," remarked the other. "Finally, I add chemicals to it," said Cappy. "Yes," exclaimed his interested listener. Aw, protested Cappy, "Then I drink beer."

The Grand Canyon stamp may be very pretty but when there's a bill in the envelope it only adds to that empty feeling.
