Weddings In Our Locality

NUMBER OF VERY WELL KNOWN YOUNG FOLKS ARE JOINED IN THE HOLY BONDS OF MATRIMONY IN THIS LOCALITY.

Peifer-Rohrer A pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Miller, when the latter's sister, Miss Mary N. Rohrer, of Manheim R D 2, became the bride of Clayton H. Peifer, of Manheim R D 1.

The ceremony was performed by Bishop Henry Lutz and the couple was attended by Miss Ethel Charles as bridesmaid, and Paul Buckwalter as best man. The ushers were Melvin Barge and Clarence Peifer, the brother of the bridegroom. A trio composed of the Misses Erla Hostetter, Fannie Shank and Kathryn Kilheffer played several selections prior to the ceremony, and the wedding marches.

Following the ceremony there was a wedding dinner at the home, with covers laid for more than 100 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Peifer left in the afternoon for a honeymoon trip to Florida. Upon their return they will reside on a farm near E. Petersburg.

SUNDAY DINNER SUGGESTIONS

By ANN PAGE EGGS and butter are again somewhat cheap, but meat prices have stiffened after a temporary easing, though certain cuts offer good value. Potatoes continue to be the most economical purchase possible though several vegetables of the type called "hardware" are inexpensive including bulk carrots, rutabagas, white turnips, parsnips, onions, old cabbage and kale. Green beans, peas and cauliflower are unchanged in price. Strawberries become more plentiful.

Recent weather has been favorable to salt water fishermen. Here are three menu suggestions which are suited to three budget levels and the season: Low Cost Dinner Braised Lamb Shanks Mashed Potatoes Carrots Bread and Butter Chocolate Pudding Tea or Coffee Milk

Medium Cost Dinner Roasted Shoulder of Lamb Pan-browned Potatoes Diced Turnips Bread and Butter Butterscotch Pie Tea or Coffee Milk

Very Special Dinner Consommee Julienne Rolled Roast Beef New Potato-Creamed Onions Apple and Celery Salad Rolls and Butter Banana Shortcake Coffee Milk

Fianna Reist, of Mount Joy; and two brothers, John E. Pasadena, Calif.; and Frank E. Edinburg, Wash. Private services were held at the home of Mrs. Landis this afternoon followed by public services at the Cross Roads Church of the Brethren in Christ. Interment in the adjoining cemetery.

Prisoners Expensive

STATISTICS, REPORT SAYS, REFLECT THE PROGRAM ON THE ABSENCE OF A PROGRAM WITH IN PRISON WALLS

Pennsylvania spends almost $3,000,000 a year maintaining more than 6,000 inmates in its four penal institutions, according to the prison report of the Department of Welfare submitted by the former secretary, Alice F. Liveright, and made public recently.

For the four years ending June 1, 1935, a total of $10,557,000 was appropriated for maintenance at the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries, the State Industrial School for Boys at Huntingdon and State Industrial School for the Women at Muncy, the report disclosed.

Additional appropriations were recommended by the outgoing secretary for construction of an institution for mental defectives in the Cumberland valley, completion of the Graterford Penitentiary, development of farm workhouses and industrial prison farms.

In 1934 it cost $1.70 a day to maintain a prisoner at Muncy; $1.21 at Huntingdon; $1.11 at the Western Penitentiary and its Rockview branch and .92 cents at the Eastern Penitentiary and the Graterford branch. The statistics, the report pointed out, reflect the program or absence of a program, within the prison walls.

HERE'S A NEW WAY TO GET RID OF CROWS

Since crows are so very numerous in Lancaster county, and many claim they are destructive, it might be well for our farmers to try a "winkler" which worked so very successfully for farmers down around Holland, Texas.

Here it is: "A novel way of killing crows has been tried out by farmers here, who report that it has worked successfully.

The farmer takes some shelled corn and threads each kernel with a long horsehair. He scatters this corn about the fields where crows are frequently found and withdraws to await results.

The crows, according to the reports, eat the corn but are unable to swallow the horse hairs. The crows after a time develop fits of frenzy trying to get the horse hairs out of their mouths, turn over on their backs and die of fatigue.

One farmer said he counted 59 dead birds the first time he tried the method."

My Favorite Recipes

Frances Lee Barton says: NEVER study your youngster when he's polishing up the last morsels of something awfully good! His chubby little hand grips the spoon with mighty determination and the world can go by unheeded. It's pretty satisfying—sort of like a medal for the time we spend in our kitchens. Here's one of those "awfully good" recipes—a pudding that's warm and filling; not too sweet, but sweet enough to be a real dessert.

Apricot Jam Pudding 3 slices white bread; butter; 1/3 cup apricot jam; 2 eggs, slightly beaten; 1 tablespoon sugar; dash of salt; 2 cups milk, scalded; 1/4 cup shredded coconut.

Remove crusts from bread; spread with butter and jam and cut each slice in half. Line bottom and sides of greased baking dish with bread. Combine eggs, sugar, and salt; add milk slowly, stirring constantly. Pour over bread. Place dish in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 50 minutes; then sprinkle coconut over top of pudding and continue baking 25 to 30 minutes, or until done. Serves 6.
