1935 f this ents a mn

Coffee Com-r.10-1t

darage,

. Joy. r.10-4t

on alce gar-

o sec-ch. Al-Chairs.

r.10-2t

& Gas

seen at Joy. 0-1t-p

POTA-

bushel

pr.3-2t

Call ne 1R2

r.27-tf

Com-

5, Pea

r.20-4t

NED-

g ma-

0-4t-p

R PO-

First ercher,

r.20-tf

corner

Mount

ge lot, ce ac-

phone

the U. velop-cents

ce, 408 r.28-tf

on a water,

o. 449. 41J. tf

RENT

ist the

. Rent

o Jno.

A very et, Mt.

t heat

Vacant

11, Mt.

OME-

'35

olstein

in this of the ntario, 75 lbs. ecords day of

there l sold

IMAU

.10-2t

miles ag the perty,

Bug-

horse -hole rind-

r, 16-Rake,

Lawn dle of

Har-

Pike

Boring

Ax, Saws,

e and hests, eles.

Bed, and , Re-

hests.

Stone Bench,

lable,

urner

ANK

Carley States

935

WS

WS

tf

BAINBRIDGE

The members of the Ludwig Meth-

Raber; recitation, Jimmy Miller; solo, Miss Miriam Herr. County Treasurer, I. Scott Smith, superintendent of the Sunday School, welcomed Rev odist church held a reception Friday night in honor of the new pastor, ber, president of the Ladies' Aid Rev. A. B. Herr and family. The Society, presented Rev. and Mrs. program featured a solo, by Ruth Herr with a plant.

Save Systematically—Invest Wisely

Except the bonds of our own Government there is no safer security than a first mortgage on improved real estate. Our funds are loaned only on first and reducing mortgages on local real estate. Franklin Said: "A Penny Saved, Is a Penny Earned" Save the Building & Loan Way and get a good return on your Savings

$1.00 a month means $200 saved when the series matures. $5.00 a month means $1,000.00 saved when the series matures. $10.00 a month means $2,000.00 saved when the series matures. 15th SERIES NOW OPEN

MOUNT JOY BUILDING & LOAN ASSO.

Under Supervision of the State Banking Dept.

Clarence Schock Mount Joy, Pa.

We Ask Patronage

We Give Service

Lumber-Coal

ANNOUNCING... MEMILLA SPRING PRICES

-buy now-save money

Wolgemuth Bros.

Phone Mt. Joy 220 FLORIN, PENNA.

pril10-tf

You Can Depend On The Man Who Advertises

NINE times out of ten you will find that the man who advertises is the man who most willingly returns your money if you are not satis-He has too much at stake to risk losing your trade or your confidence. You can depend on

He is not in business for today or tomorrow only-but for next year and ten years from next year. He knows the value of good will.

You get better merchandise at a fairer price than he could ever hope to sell it if he did not have the larger volume of business that comes from legitimate advertising and goods that bear out the promise of the printed word.

Don't miss the advertisements. This very day they call your attention to values that tomorrow you will be sorry you overlooked.

To 1935

(From page 1)

years ago in Pasadena, California from whence this "tour" celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of that early day trek started on January 15. '35. It's a far cry from the horse-drawn vehicle lined streets, the worm like traversing of the city by the Pennsylvania Railroad in and out among the eves and sides of residences along the right-of-way, the old Red Lion Hotel and still older machine shops and the banks housed in the living quarters of their chief sponsors in 1885-to its horseless automobile lined streets, its straight railroad course with grade crossings eliminated and finally its banks with the latest and most modern housings and equip-

> To one entering the city in the dim dusk of an April rainy day as we happened to enter it savored quite realistically of Rip Van Winkle lore. Motoring here from Florida, we passed through Washington, York, Columbia and Marietta where we picked up Highway No. 141 (but to us the Mount Joy and Marietta Pike. Soon and in rapid succession were seen faintly in the dark such land marks as (old timer's call it), Horner's Mill, the Union School at the fork of the roads; in vain, we looked for the old Camp Meeting and Picnic Grounds (I think of it as Eberlys-Detwilers), then for the Toll Gate and Keepers Residence at the outskirts of the Borough, they, too were not in evidence—not even relics of by-gone days. A few blocks further on towards the center of the borough on the right hand of the street, there was the self-same High School Building where in 1879 I had the dis inct honor to matriculate-I say honor for few indeed were the lads privilege in those days. The next day with the sun out in all its glory I began my meanderings JUNIORS LOST SATURDAY 6-5; through the place I once knewstarting from Miss Annie Stauffer's at 210 East Main Street, our presen residence (by the way Miss Stauffer was for some years a resident of Paonly of Pennsylvania but of California as well). A half block west no Red Lion Hotel but an up to the Mt. Joy ... 1 0 0 1 0 1 2 0 0-5 2 12 minute filling station—just across the street a bank instead of the trianguar train approach (where as a boy in 1876 I boarded the train with my father, my elder brother and my siser, Mrs. Reist, for a day at the Cen ennial Fair,) instead of the old frame ticket office a fine commodious hardware establishment. In vain, again, a few doors further on I looked for the old general store sign of Breneman and Longenecker-it too is an A and P sign. So I might continue the story on through the full length of Main and other streets, but similarly the record would be indefinitely continued. My feelings and reactions in all this can possibly best be expressed by sugesting-What hath Man wrought?

gone and instead taking its place is

We are very happy, indeed, to once again be here. There are many nany nooks and crannies that Mrs Nissley and I hope to explore-many aces that we are desirous of seeing and above all such places as Meeting House and Grounds, the Lit-tle Red School House, the Blacksmith Shop on the corner, the Mill by the creek, the meadows-streams, fishing and swimming pools ad infinitum, all are in the offing to be seen. I fear our demeanor may at times appear unethical, if not childish, but this is a rather rare, a unique experence that we have at this time-hence due apologies now. Unless our enthusiasm wanes, our riends desert, our duty demands us elsewhere, it is our present plan to spend the greater part of the Spring and Summer in and about the places and peoples among whom we now happily find ourselves.

April 6th, 1935

RHEEMS

J. E. NISSLEY

An Easter program will be render ed at the Green Tree church this Sunday evening, April 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Detra, of Lan caster, called on Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoover on Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. John Musser of near Mount Joy visited with Mr. and Mrs A. S. Lenhard of this place on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Werner, daugh ers, Elizabeth and Miriam, and son, Paul, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Enos Floyd on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Weaver, two laughters, Janice and Jean, and two sons, Jimmie and John, visited relaives in Lancaster on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Shelly, daughter, Mary, and son, Paul, of near Manheim, visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Zeager and family on Saturday

A birthday surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Breneman of near this place last Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Jonas Parrett, of Elizabethtown.

Mr. Clayton Brandt and son, Harold of Elizabethtown; Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Flory and Mr. and Mrs. Levi Flory of Palmyra called on Mr. and Mrs. Phares Brandt on Sunday.

Mrs. Susan Wolgemuth of this place died at her home on Monday morning. Funeral services will be held at the Cross Road Brethren in Christ church on Thursday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Heisey of near this place attended the Fourth Anniversary of Community Hymn Singing of Harrisburg, on Sunday. Rev. S. L. Michaena, of Washington, gave the address at these services.

When in need of Printing, (anything) kindly remember the Bulletia.

By "Mikey" Weaver

RACING SEASON OPENS AT READING, SUNDAY, APR. 28

Reading, Pa., April 10-Automobile racing devotees have already started planning an exodus to Reading Sunday, April 28 where the 1935 eastern AAA championship campaign will be opened under the direction of Hankinson Speedways, Inc.

Ralph A. Hankinson, president and general manager of the organization bearing his name, has taken personal charge 'of arrangements for Reading inaugural as it will mark the start of his 25th anniversary year in the field of auto race promotion, and he has promised to leave no stone unturned in making this the greatest year of his career.

Reading's fast half-mile track always has been a favorite of the leading drivers in the east and middlewest, and Mr. Hankinson expects to experience no trouble in lining up a banner field. Such stars are Billy Winn, Johnny Hannon, Bobby Sall, Doc MacKezie, Ken Fowler, Mac Fox and Vern Orendorf are virtually sure starters, and it would not be surprising if more than 100 cars are arrayed for the qualifying trials.

Hankinsons enjoyed one of the best season's of his long career in 1934 conducting 36 meets and attrac ting a record attendance of 821,400 persons. His plans for this season are even more extensive.

Headquarters for the Reading ener of April 28 have been established at 441 Washington St., Reading, where advance tickets have been placed on sale. Inquiries regarding from far away farms who had that this inaugural event should be addressed there.

WIN SUNDAY 18-8 SCORE

Playing the third game this year the Mt. Joy Junior baseball team failed to hit its stride and lost to the adena, California an old friend not Marietta Mystery Boys by the score of 6 to 5. Score by innings:

Marietta 00210300x-33 Sunday's Game

In the fourth game played Sunday afternoon the Juniors after having the infield revised played like a house on fire and burned up the Marietta Hustlers to the tune of 18-8. Score by innings: Marietta .. 3 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 2— 8 8 4

Mt. Joy .. 1 0 0 7 4 3 2 1 x—18 24 0 The juniors will play one more practice game before opening the The next game will be this Saturday afternoon playing the Mystery Boys on the Mt. Joy diamond.
Mgr. Dressler had intended opening the season last Saturday but due to the fact that he is organizing a Co. League the team will not open until the first week in May.

Four teams have entered League so far. Mt. Joy Juniors, Marietta Hustlers and Bainbridge. The Leagu

eams, all players being 16 years of ge and under. Invitations have been sent out to Manheim, Lititz, Ephrata, Columbia Elizabethtown and Maytown.

E-town Shooters Win Elizabethtown High School's rifle team defeated Mt. Joy Thursday afternoon on the latter school's rangel

E'town H. S. C. Kaylor 99 Forney 97 T. Barley 97 F. Moore H. Brown 93 R. Fletcher 93 C. Gerberich 92 K. Haines 90

Soft Ball Meeting

A soft ball meeting will be held on Sunday, April 14th at 10:00 A. M. in social room of Fire Company. Two or three more teams are wanted, so please have your representatives present. The league is desirous of nearing from Richland Club, Maust, Newtown, Lincoln, Former Turton Jewels, Florin, Fire Company, Legion or any new teams.

Sale Register

If you want a notice of your sale inserted in this register weekly from now until day of sale. ABSOLUTELY FREE, send or phone us your sale date and when you are ready, let us print your bills. That's the cheapest advertising you can get.

Thursday, April 18-At his place of business on West High Street, at Manheim, Canadian cows and heifers and some Juniata Co. cows by A. R. Mummau. J. R. Mummau, auct. See advertisement.

Good Friday, April 19-At their place of business near Mt. Joy, 55 head cattle, 42 cows, 10 heifers, 3 bulls, 8,000 baby chix, 100 shoats, apples, potatoes, merchandise, etc., by C. S. Frank & Bro.

The flivver age has advantages but it offers nothing to replace the horse shoe nail as an emergency pants button.

You can get all the news of this locality for less than three cents a week through the Bulletin.

Sidewalk Cafe

By LEONORA WOODWARD ©. McClure Newspaper Syndicate. WNU Service.

THE rain swept suddenly down upon Fifth avenue and drove the diners indoors. All but Constance who left her young man for a gap in the boxed hedge and ducked around the nearest corner. Like a bedraggled chicken run- largest loan to one farmer this year SPECIAL ATTRACTION terically, and hailed a passing cab.

"And that's that," murmured Constance settling herself as comfortably ten a rather clever ending to an eve-

Once back in her hotel room, surof shame as well. She was glad that she had got dust in her eye and had to have it removed by the best looking man in New York!

It had all happened because she had spent a two weeks' vacation in New York alone and this had been her last night. And dining all by yourself in one of those romantic sidewalk cafes between Madison and Washington squares wasn't so pleasant if you remembered that very shortly you must return to Mr. Berring and his typewriter back in Midvale.

The best looking young man she had ever seen was dining just two tables

A bit of Fifth avenue lodged in her eye. It felt more like the Empire State Local Doings building, although it came out at the first dab of Constance's handkerchief. But Constance discarding all her aunt's teachings, had continued to wipe her eye and had even moaned a little for good measure. It had worked! The tall blond young man had left his seat lowing: Mr. and Mrs. Miles Leedom to offer assistance. He had said: "You and daughter, Evelyn, of Reading; see, I've had a great deal of experi- Annie Daub, of Lebanon; Mr. ence; my mother was always getting Mrs. Frank Strickler and children things in her eye. So if you'll permit Bobby and Jimmy, of Rowenna; Mr.

having her ridiculously long lashes and Mr. Earl Leedom and family, of rolled back on a match and to having Mount Joy. the corner of a very large, very clean A birthday party was held at the linen handkerchief inserted in a person, Constance. I mean-real." Constance had wanted to say that she wasn't real, at least she wasn't and Mary Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs what he thought her. She wanted to Wm. Hamilton. tell him that she was just a stenog- A birthday surprise party was givrapher from the Middle West enjoying en in honor of Mr. Harry Leedom's a vacation in New York.

behind my ears; that hard work never hurt anyone; and not to tell lies."

Rev. and Mrs. Oliver Mease, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Greenawalt, Mr. and Mrs. "So many people do," murmured poor Joseph Witmer and son, Asher; Mr.

How could she tell him then?

streets of her home town, jobless. at an employment agency but nothing ma Musser of Ironville; Mr. and Mrs seemed to matter now. She had lost Harvey Leedom, of Camp Hill; Mr. her job and Bill. She looked at a store and Mrs. Miles Leedom and daughset back from the sidewalk and ter, Evelyn, of Reading; Annie Daub sidewalk cafe." Then said sternly to herself: "Look Mrs. Leroy Leedom and sons, John her, Constance, this won't do, you Harry and daughter, Jane of Rheems know. You've got to be nonchalant," A sumptuous and very enjoyable and took out her compact to repair the dinner was served to the guests and damages from not being nonchalant. After that she felt better. She could many useful gifts. even face the wind which was blowing off Main street and then it happened again! All the dirt from Main street was in her eye and no amount of rubbing did any good. She turned blindly toward the nearest door. She'd have to sit down and find her handkerchief; she'd have to find some one to help her. Only there wasn't any Bill now. Some one inside was taking her el bow, leading her to a seat. A profes sional voice murmured, "It's rather dusty, isn't it? Now if you'll just hold still a moment-"

And then gentle, efficient fingers

"There, do you want to see what did the damage?"

above which was a sign "We Are Glad bridge. to Romove Dust from Your Eyes Free of Charge." She looked up and there

"Constance!" "But how, when, where-" It simply couldn't be true.

"You darling! did you think I'd let you get away so easily? In all that nonsense you told me, you had said you were stopping at the Treymore. And when I found that you were from Midvale, well, Midvale was as good a place to hunt for a job as any, so-"You found a job and I lost one."

"You only need one job in a family," said Bill confidently. "I hadn't," and Constance smiled, "thought of that."

Speed racing alone is so precarious to cross the beach. A local veteran student of symptoms in the medicine almanacs has Stimulate your business by advertising in the Bulletin.

Planting Loans Are Available

(From page 1)

ning for cover, she thought a little hys- is $500 and the minimum $10, but no loan may be made in an amount greater than is actually needed to cover the costs of purchasing seed, as possible, meaning that she had writ- fertilizers, supplies, feed, etc. Loans will be made for the purpose of grow ning of adventure. Meaning that if a ing and harvesting crops, for summer girl has been so indiscreet as to pick fallowing, for purchasing feed for up a man, the better part of valor lies livestock; but not for the purpose of purchasing livestock or machinery, or for the payment of debts or taxes veying her rain-drenched self in the mirror, all fear vanished and all sense loans and must be repaid when crops are marketed.

> Loans will be made only to applicants who are co-operating with the Production Control Program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administra-

As in the past, the security for an emergency crop or feed loan will consist of a first lien on crop financed or on the livestock to be fed. A tenant must also give a first lien by getting the landowner to waive his claim in favor the crop lien; but the landowner is in no way obligated for repayment of his tenant's loan.

At Florin

and Mrs. Leroy Leedom and children Constance had submitted bravely to John, Harry and Jane, of Rheems; on Thursday night for their daughter "There!" the young man had an-Ruth who celebrated her fifteenth nounced at last and gravely showed her birthday. Games were played and a fleck of dust on his handkerchief. birthday. Games were played and prizes won by Edna Nissley, Leo fleck of dust on his handkerchief.

So the blond young man moved over Frank, Elwood Nentwig, Dorothy and they lingered over coffee and ciga- Hickernell, Ruth Hamilton and Philrettes. They exchanged names and ip Wolf. Miss Ruth received many other unimportant information which beautiful and useful gifts. Refreshon Constance's part, at least, was ments were served to the following: strictly misleading. She still preferred Helen McElroy, Lorraine Hilt, Marto be a New Yorker down for her shop- tha Moose, Margaret Shireman, Milping. His name was Bill Maynard. dred Hamilton, Dorothy Hickernell, He was the sort you called Bill at Ruth Gutshall, James Wolf, Jackie once. He had lived in New York all Hamilton, Leo Frank, Elwood Nentwig, Philip Wolf, Jewel Brooks, Em-Bill was saying: "You're a real per- ma Barley, Dick Kauffman, Evelyn Wachstetter, Edna Nissley, Kathryn birthday anniversary on Saturday "I'd like you to meet my mother, evening at his home here. The fol-She's a darling. Taught me to scrub lowing invited guests were present: Constance, "tell lies, I mean." and Mrs. Earl Leedom and son, Earl and daughter, Doris, all of Mount Joy; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wagenbach, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Krall and children, Pauline and Maurice: A few days later she was walking the Elizabeth Hess, Emma Raffensperger, of Florin; Mr. and Mrs. C. Snavely. She knew she ought to be registering H. H. Musser, Dan Musser and Emthought, "What a grand place for a of Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. Phares Brandt, Mr. David Flory, Mr. and Mr. Leedom was the recipient of

Planted 181 Trees At the Col. Bridge

newal of $3,500 insurance covering toll collections while they are in the toll houses and bridge office or being were rolling back her ridiculously long taken to the commission's two depos-Bentz reported the planting of 181 trees, bought from the York Water Constance opened her eyes. She saw a glass case filled with eye glasses near the Columbia entrance to the

PRINTING PRICES are LOWEST

THE BULLETIN

MOUNT JOY

"PETE" and HIS OLD TIME FIDDLERS Will furnish the music at the

SUSQUEHANNA INN

Friday, April 12, 1935

GOOD EATS and BEER FANNIE SHEARER, Prop.

apr.10-1t

A THEATRE M MANHEIM, PA.

Wed. Thurs., April 10-11 Special Mat. Wed. 4 P. M. Shirley Temple Lionel Barrymore

"LITTLE COLONEL" Friday, April 12th MYSTERY WOMAN Mona Barrie Gilbert Roland

ADDED FEATURE Saturday, April 13 Warner Baxter, Myrna Loy

"BROADWAY BILL" Mon. Tues., April 15-16 "ROBERTA" Ginger Rogers Fred Astaire

Wed. Thurs., April 17-18 RUGGLES OF RED GAP with Charles Laughton Mary Boland

Moose Theatre Saturdays and Holidays ELIZABETHTOWN 2 P. M.

Evenings 7 and 9 P. M. Saturday 6-8-9:30 P. M.

Fri. Sat., April 12th & 13th

"ROBERTA"

Thursday, April 11th Double Feature "AGAINST THE LAW" "LUCKY TEXAN"

Monday, April 15th George Raft Carole Lombard

Irene Dunne Fred Astaire Ginger Rogers Tuesday, April 16th

Frederic March WE LIVE AGAIN"

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, APRIL 17th and 18th BENEFIT PARK & PLAYGROUND ASSOCIATION Edw. G. Robinson in THE WHOLE TOWN'S TALKING a pastime, Daytona has never felt under compulsion to invite a railroad "RUMBA" just read himself into a case of upside-down stomach.