Automobile Accidents

Hoffman, of near town, crashed into the rear of a machine driven by Harry Williams, Litzitz, R. D. 2, on the Harrisburg pike, west of the Florin underpass, at 10 p. m., Saturday, State Highway Patrolman Earl B. Keller reported.

Those injured were: Phyllis Hoffman, four, daughter of the one driver suffered shock; Miss Anna Hoffer suffered laceration of the head, and her father, Mr. A. B. Hoffer, suffered cracked ribs. Dr. A. E. Snyder, of this borough, administered emergency treatment and then ordered their removal to the Lancaster General hospital where they were treated. The Phyllis Hoffman is now a patient of the hospital while the others were discharged.

Patrolman Keller said he was standing on the crest of a hill near Florin and he motioned Williams to stop because only one headlight on his car was burning. Williams, according to the officer, stopped his car in a lane of traffic and Hoffman, who was traveling about 500 feet in the rear of Williams' car failed to see him stopped and not being able to turn out in time to pass, ran into the side of the car. The patrolman, however, escaped being hit, as he was inspecting the headlight in the front of Williams' car.

in the Junior Dept., with an attendance of 96 per cent.

On Saturday evening, May 25th, the Ironville C. E. Choir held an "Automobile Treasurer Hunt." After the hunt the group held a doggie roast at the Twin Oak's Pool. The following people took part in the hunt: Mrs. Fannie Ulrich, Mrs. Anna Albright, Mrs. Irene Heisey, Misses Frances Mummaw, Hazel Moore, Bertha Mummaw, Loraine Kauffman, Carolyn Mummaw, Hazel Moore, Charlotte Forno, Grace Melling, Janet Forno, Reba Rettew, Ruth Kauffman, and Elizabeth Forno. Mr. Robert Melling, Phil Metzgar, Richard Melling, Leon Forno, Donald Staley, Glenn Kauffman, Gordon Mummaw, Harold Albright, Charles Gingrich, Chester Weaver, Wilbur Rettew, and Andrew Musser.

Kinderhook's eleventh annual Memorial Day program was held Sunday, May 26th, at 1:30 p. m., in the cemetery across from the Kinderhook E. C. Church.

The program was as follows: Singing, America, by the assemblage led by the Rev. George Raker; reading, Miss Sarah Mischlich; address, Rev. Earl Ering, of the Conestoga Center E. C. Church; selection by the Kinderhook Male quartette, composed of John Kiser, Rev. Raker, Charles Lichty and Elmer Stauffer; and the Benediction by Rev. Raker.
