Portion of tented city which springs up annually at Indiantown Gap, Northern Lebanon County, a few miles from Harper Tavern on U. S. Route 22. The military reservation of the Pennsylvania National Guard is developing here one of the most modern military establishments in the East.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

This is the ninth of a series of articles designed to stir interest in Pennsylvania's advantages to the tourist. Prepared under the direction of Warren Van Dyke, Secretary of Highways, this series aims to outline briefly many of the places and scenes which are being recognized by travelers from other states as outstanding items in itineraries of the United States.

A tented city springs up each summer in the northern reaches of Lebanon County, in the shadow of Blue Mountain.

Indiantown Gap is expressive of the history and the nature of the place. A break in the long mountain wall wide enough to permit a stream and a road to pass through. Here Indians used bubbling St. Joseph Springs in the pleasant valley between Blue Mountain and Second Mountain, where fields of maize ripened in August sunlight.

About 21 miles east of Hamburg, on U. S. Route 22, is the junction of Route 343 at Harper Tavern. Turn north and watch for another junction on the left which leads directly into the Military Reservation of the Pennsylvania National Guard. From Pottsville the approach is made over Route 443 to Lickdale, Route 343 and connecting roads. Excellent roads lead out in all directions.

The tented city of khaki-clad citizen soldiers will appear in August, a concentration of 25,000 to 30,000 troops bent upon preserving peace by keeping in readiness for the hostile advance of invaders. Part of these will be stationed at Mount Gretna, 15 miles south of Indiantown, which served for many years as a military establishment and is the site of a summer cottage colony widely known for beauty and moderate temperature.

Some 2,000 acres at Indiantown lie south of the mountain. Kitchens, mess halls, bath houses, and offices to accommodate three regiments are installed. More are in the making. Water supply adequate for 60,000 men is provided.

Between Blue and Second Mountain the artillery has more than 8,000 acres in which to perfect gunnery practice. Cavalry, perhaps most romantic branch of the service, if the air service has not won that distinction, marches from Mount Gretna to maneuver thru the wooded hills and dales.

Both Indiantown and Mount Gretna offer pleasing rewards for the journey as well as an object lesson in patriotism and preparedness.

The Bureau of Publicity and Information of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, Harrisburg, will gladly answer inquiries concerning routes and destinations on receipt of a postal card request.

Suppose . . . YOURS were the hands to be tied . . .

YOURS the business to be Shackled!

America's most useful industry is now facing destructive governmental interference

Under the Constitution of this country, you have the right as an American citizen to engage in any decent, lawful business. Suppose you had done so . . . and had worked hard . . . invested money to provide a service which your friends and neighbors desired and needed.

What would you say if a law were proposed in Congress NOT designed as it should be, to keep your enterprise in line with honest business procedure, but effectively constructed so that you would shortly face ruin and ultimately have to hand your business over to the government?

Do you believe that such things can happen in this, a free country, where for generations the outstanding theme of all governmental action regarding private commerce and industry has been to leave the management of any honest, decent business to the concern itself? BELIEVE IT OR NOT, IT'S TRUE.

Right now, Congress is considering a bill, known as the Public Utility Act of 1935 (Wheeler-Rayburn Bill), which if passed, will first cripple . . . then destroy . . . one of the greatest, most necessary industries in this country . . . the public utility industry.

This Company would be seriously affected . . . under the Public Utility Bill demanding the abolition of the holding company, the Company would be deprived of many of the aids it receives, and upon which it depends to give you "EFFICIENT PUBLIC SERVICE."

Peccariously, and it is significant, this destructive legislation at present is aimed only at holding companies engaged in the electric business. Apparently, it is thus designed in order that holding companies in other lines of business won't be alarmed and raise too much hue and cry over the line of action proposed in Congress.

Experts in legislation believe that this bill is only the opening wedge in putting the government into many lines of business . . . in other words, NATIONAL SOCIALISM, is your business going to be the next?

Pennsylvania Power & Light Company

If you agree with these views, you can aid greatly by protesting to your Representatives and Senators in Congress against the enactment of the Wheeler-Rayburn Bill, also known as the Public Utility Act of 1935.

 Standard accessory group, including bumpers and spare tire, extra.

before you buy any car at any price

If YOU are judging the Ford car on the basis of price, you are making the mistake of your car-buying life. Ford—with a V-8 engine in a low-priced car—has shattered all "price class" ideas.

When you sit behind the wheel of a Ford V-8 (the only car with a V-8 engine selling for less than $2,300) and feel its tremendous wealth of smooth-flowing power . . . when you prove to yourself that the back seat of this new Ford is as easy riding as the front . . . when you feel the security of a Ford's extra-large, positive mechanical 4-wheel brakes . . . then you realize that here is a car that cannot be judged on the basis of price.

That's why we say—"Before you buy any car at any price, drive one of our Ford V-8's." A phone call will bring a demonstrator to your house . . . no obligation . . . no charge.
