LUTHERAN CHURCH HERE, ALTHOUGH 39 YEARS OLD, STILL ONE OF THE HANDSOMEST EDIFICES IN THE COUNTY

The following article is from an old Mount Joy Herald in my possession, dated Oct. 3, 1896.

M. M. LEIB

The happiest day in the history of the Trinity Lutheran congregation of Mt. Joy, occurred on Sunday, September 27th, when their beautiful new building was formally entered and consecrated to the worship of Almighty God. Nature rejoiced with the congregation, the weather ideal, the crowds large, the offerings substantial, the ceremonies interesting and solemn. At 10 o'clock the officiating clergymen consisting of the Rev. Theo. L. Seip, D. D., president of Muhlenberg College and of the Ministerium of Pennsylvania, the Rev. Geo. H. Hancher, Ph. D., principal of the Kutztown Normal School, Rev. J. Fishburn, Elizabethtown and the pastor Rev. M. J. Bieber, followed by the church council, Messrs. Henry Miller and Lewis Seeman, trustee, elders Dr. F. M. Harry, M. M. Brubaker and Chas. L. Dierolf, deacons hearing the sacred vessels and the Bibles also accompanied by the choir, proceeded in a body from the home of Mr. John H. Buehl to the church entrance. After the invocation and prayer by the pastor, the keys were handed to Dr. Seip who unlocked the door and the procession slowly entered the temple respectively repeating the 122nd Psalm. After the Bible and sacred vessels were deposited in their places, the act of consecration was performed by the President. The morning services were conducted by the Rev. Fishburn, after which Dr. Seip preached the consecration sermon from Psalms 84:1. "How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of Hosts." The children's service in the afternoon commencing at 2 o'clock was well attended and given to congratulatory addresses from Revs. Seip, Fishburn, P. A. Laury, Marietta, W. H. Harding, Maytown and Dr. Hancher. The capacity of the house was tested in the evening when over 500 people were present. The service was conducted by the pastor. Dr. Hancher preached an eloquent and forceful sermon on Luke 22:63; "and the man that held Jesus mocked Him." Special music was rendered during the day by Wm. M. Mearig, Leacock, Pa. This beautiful churchy structure is situated on West Main street on the highest point in Mount Joy, on a lot 75x200 ft., partially donated by Mr. Philip Frank. Ground was broken on May 31st, 1895 and the corner stone laid on Sept. 27th, one year ago. On the anniversary of this imposing ceremony the consecration services of the finest church in the town was held. The building is 62x92 feet, built of local blue limestone with Indiana limestone trimmings, in Gothic, containing a covered tower 60 feet high, through which is the main entrance. The interior contains the main auditorium and Sunday-school room, separated by movable glass partitions. The Sunday-school room contains a library, infant department and two class rooms. It is lighted by a six-light chandelier, Welsbach burners, the floor is covered with matting, the furniture consisting of little settees for the primary department and chairs for the main room and a pulpit furnished by the willing workers. The furnishings in the Sunday school room are the gift of the Sunday-school. The main auditorium contains a robing room, chancel recess and organ recess. It is carpeted with ingrain and lighted by a beautiful sixteen light chandelier, the gift of the Luther League, which active organization also paid for frescoing the walls. The windows are memorial, of stained glass, the admiration of all. The principle subjects are "Christ on Gethsemane," donated by Rev. E. W. Welskitten, Phila. and F. M. Stettler, N. Y.; "Christ the Good Shepherd," by Walter Brown, Mount Joy; "Charity" by Mr. and Mrs. A. Haldeman, Mount Joy. The main auditorium contains four other windows, large, excellent in color and with appropriate emblems, gifts of the Buehl family Henry Miller, Rev. J. H. Umbenhen and Rev. A. M. Weber. The Sunday-school room and other windows were given by Infant School taught by Misses Annie Boyce and Maggie Baer, Mrs. Sarah Hartman, Mrs. J. H. Umbenhen's class, the Sunday-officers, Bible class, Mrs. Irene Carmany and class, Miss Sybilla Boyce and class, Mrs. S. W. Vandersaal, Mr. and Mrs. John Peifley class No. 1 taught by Miss Manning, Mrs. J. S. Carmany, Mr. and Mrs. David H. Behney, Ellwood R. Steckel and four by friends.

The chancel furniture is partly donated, the lecture by the Dillinger family, the altar by the Lutheran churches in Lancaster, the hymn boards will be the gift of Mr. D. H. Engle. Mr. H. U. Coble of Elizabethtown presents the baptismal font. The corner stone is a gift of Mann & Co., York; the chancel railing is given by Mr. Seachrist, York. Private donations have been liberal and numerous, the largest given by the Ladies' Aid Society.

The congregation organized in 1827 is 69 years old, the first in the town. It has 89 members and its school numbers 125. It has its 19th pastor. Eight are still living most of whom are occupying prominent positions. The present pastor received a call from this congregation while in the Theological Seminary at Mt. Airy, which he accepted and was installed on June 3, 1894. Services were held every evening during the week. On Monday the services were conducted by the Luther League. The Rev. H. L. Baugher, D.D., President of the General Synod and of the Penn's Luther League in his eloquent and interesting manner spoke on "The Young People." The devotional exercises were conducted by the Rev. Geo. Sieger of Lancaster who also addressed the meeting. Mrs. Andrew Dillinger of Philadelphia read a history of the League. The League was conducted by Will Heilig, president and Emma Dierolf, secretary. Music was rendered by Miss Staley and Miss Mame Kuhns. On Tuesday evening at the Union services Rev. H. R. Bozarth of the Methodist church preached an inspiring sermon and the Rev. A. H. Long offered congratulations in a pleasing address. Miss Elsie Kolp with Miss Grace Cling as accompanist rendered excellent music.

The Memorial sermon on Wednesday evening was preached in the German language by the Rev. A. M. Weber, a former pastor and Rev. E. Meister of St. Stephen's Lutheran church, Lancaster, offered congratulations. On Thursday evening the Ladies' Aid Society was addressed by the Rev. A. M. Mehrtsam, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, Columbia, on "Woman in the Church." Its history was read by the secretary, Miss Manning and excellent music rendered by Miss Nagle and Mr. Will Fendrich of Columbia. The "Willing Workers" on Friday evening rendered a fine program. Their history and aim were presented by the president, Mabel Brown and the Rev. C. L. Frey of Trinity Lutheran church, Lancaster, addressed them on "Missions."

The church completed cost $10,000. It is heated by hot air and is in all respects a model edifice. The untiring energy of the pastor, Rev. M. J. Bieber, has its reward in a monument that will proclaim to future generations his devotion to the object which he took upon himself to accomplish.

Many Clans Hold Their Reunions

THE TWELFTH ENTERLINE REUNION WILL BE HELD AT ELIZABETHTOWN, AUG. 10

The twelfth Enterline reunion will be held at the Community Park, Elizabethtown, Dauphin county, on Saturday, August 10.

This branch is directly descended from John Michael Enterline who was a missionary of the German Lutheran church and organized congregations and later built churches in Elizabethtown, Hummelstown and Lykens Valley.

Former reunions were held at Hershey Park, Rolling Green, Sunbury, Reservoir Park, Harrisburg and Elizabethtown.

The main speaker at this year's reunion will be J. Calvin (Haps) Frank, a member of the City Council and Park Commissioner of Harrisburg, who is an Enterline descendent.

Prof. Clarence Enterline, of Reading, is chairman of the program committee; Herman G. Enterline, of Elizabethtown, chairman of sports and activities; W. C. Enterline of Camp Hill, Harrisburg, is president and will have charge of the program which will consist of quartet music, readings and greetings from the various county groups in attendance.

Prizes will be awarded to the largest family present; the greatest distance traveled; the oldest direct descendent and the youngest present.

The family is settled in all parts of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Washington, D. C.

The Brubaker Reunion The seventeenth annual reunion of the Brubaker clan will be held at Litz Spring Park, Litzitz, Thursday, Aug. 22, 1935.

EDITOR PRESENTS PROOF

YOU don't catch a newspaper man spinning a yarn, fish or otherwise, unless he has the proof to back up his story. His acquaintance with "Old Subscriber" and "Pro Bono Publico" is too thorough. Viv Gray, Rod and Gun Editor of the Cleveland (O.) Plain Dealer proves the case in point. Here he is with the 22-pound lake trout that he took out of the clear, cold waters of Lake Timagami in Northern Ontario, one of the most noted lake trout and black bass fishing spots on the continent.

My Favorite Recipes

Frances Lee Burton says:

A FEW summers ago I discovered that our family was consuming entirely too many feed drinks for its own good, so I worked out this really delicious chocolate syrup that can be added to milk. (Or poured over ice cream.) I usually make two or three batches a week and keep it covered in the refrigerator ready for use. Of course, the boys love it (I discovered where whole pints of it disappeared after a few scout rallies at our house).

Chocolate Syrup
4 or 5 squares unsweetened chocolate; 1 cup sugar; 2/3 cup hot water; 2 egg yolks, slightly beaten. Melt chocolate over hot water; cool to lukewarm. Add sugar to water, stirring until sugar is dissolved; cool to lukewarm. Add syrup to egg yolks, about one-fourth at a time, beating well after each addition; add chocolate in the same way. Then continue beating mixture 1 minute, or until slightly thickened. Turn into jar, cover tightly, and place in refrigerator. Syrup can be kept for several days. Use 2 tablespoons chocolate syrup for 1 cup milk. Makes 2 cups syrup.

This syrup can be made with scalded milk rather than hot water, if a richer syrup is desired.

Pullets Need Nests

Where the laying house is already fully occupied by older birds, nests can be provided in the brooder house or summer shelter for early pullets. This is better than to allow the pullets to get in the habit of laying on the ground or floor. The nests should be protected from storms.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

PEACHES are almost as plentiful this week as last and plums even more so. Various kinds of melons are especially choice and inexpensive. The first Bartlett pears have arrived. Lower prices are anticipated as soon as they are more abundant.

Corn and lima beans, peas and green beans, red and white cabbage, beets and carrots are all moderately priced or even cheap. Lettuce is lower and tomatoes plentiful though somewhat affected by the humid hot weather.

Lamb is the best meat buy and pork of all kinds the highest. New crop broiling chickens are choice and unusually good value. Here are three menus made up from seasonable foods adapted to different budget levels:

Low Cost Dinner

Veal Chops Green Beans Creamed Potatoes Bread and Butter Stewed Plums Tea or Coffee Cup Cake Milk

Medium Cost Dinner

Cold Fried Chicken Tomatoes Pea, Green and Lima Bean Salad Hot Rolls and Butter Peach Rely Poly Tea or Coffee Milk

Very Special Dinner

Melon Roast Beef Parsley Creamed Potatoes Corn on the Cob Lettuce and Cucumber Salad Rolls and Butter Plum Ice Coffee Sponge Cake
