ennial by the club member. Bring your record books along when you bring your flowers and leave them with the local leader, in order for you to receive credit for your work.

In addition exhibits can be made in the following classes: Most attractive Vase of Mixed annuals. Most attractive Bowl of Mixed annuals, Most attractive Basket of Mixed annuals, Most attractive Vase of one variety of annual Most attractive Bowl of one variety of annuals, Most attractive Basket of one variety of annuals, Most attractive Vase of Perennials, Most attractive Bowl of Perennials, Most attractive Basket of Perennials, Most attractive table bouquet, Most attractive Mantle bouquet Most attractive living room bouquet.

At three o'clock there will be a flow er identification contest for club mem bers and friends. The program in the evening will include awards, pictures on nature study and wild life or 4-H Club work, and talks by local leaders beginning at 7:30, S. T.

The dry weather has not been favorable to flower gardens the past few weeks, so they have decided to exhibit only three instead of six blooms. This is the time you show the results of your summer's work.

The Flower Garden Club work has been under the direction of H. S. Sloat, Lancaster, and Mrs. Abner Risser, Bainbridge, R. D. No. 1; Mrs. T. R. Peterson, Mount Joy, R. D. No. 1, and Mr. John Roland, Mt. Joy, R. D. No. 1, as group leaders.

At the same time and place there will be an exhibit of the sewing done this summer in the girls' sewing club, consisting of a school out-fit and done under the direction of Miss Anna Forbes, Lancaster, and Mrs. T. R. Peterson R. D. No. 1, Mount Joy, Pa.

The Bulletin TESTED RECIPE

-By Frances Lee Barton-IF you are planning meals for a family who demand pie several times a week, you can't have too many recipes for different pie fillings.
When Fall comes, of course, the good, old-fash-

good, old-fash-ioned substantial pies reign supreme. But in the summertime your pie filling "knit to fit" the tempera ture, and I know of no more fitting summer pie than this one.

Coconut Transparent Pie % cup butter; 1 teaspoon grated orange or lemon rind; 1 cup sugar; 1/4 teaspoon salt; 5 egg yolks; 1 baked 9-inch pie shell; 2 cups shredded coconut. 3 egg whites; 6 tablespoons

Cream butter with rind; add sugar gradually, creaming until light and fluffy. Add salt and egg yolks, and beat very thoroughly (about 10 minutes). Turn into pie shell, sprinkle with 1 cup coconut, and bake in slow oven (300° F.) 60 minutes. Beat egg whites until foamy throughout. Add sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating after each addition until sugar is blended. Then continue beating until mixture will stand in peaks. Pile lightly on filling. Sprinkle with remaining 1 cup cocourt. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 15 min-

CORN GIVES

"GIVE!" says the jazz band leader. "Give," says the boss—give us all you've got. Remember the song you used to sing in kindergarten, "Give, said the little stream, as it wandered down

To give, you've got to havewhether it's voice or ability for work. If you have energy — then you've got something. Fred Astaire has it, so has Ginger Rogers and many another stage and screen star whose gift we are apt to sum up in one word—"personality."

Where to get it? From foods. Energy-giving foods like corn, in delicious dishes like these:

Corn and Walnut Loaf: Drain

the contents of one can of No. 2 whole grain corn and run the corn through a food chopper. Add one-half cup of chopped walnuts, two beaten eggs, one-half cup milk and one-half cup crumbs. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Pour into a buttered baking dish and bake for 45 minutes in a moderate oven — 375 degrees. Serve with tomato sauce. This serves four persons.

Energy for Half a Dozen

Scalloped Corn and Celery: Bring one cup of diced celery and one-fourth cup of diced green pep-per to boiling in salted water. Drain. Put alternate layers of corn, celery and peppers, seasoned with salt and pepper, in a baking dish. Use all the contents of one No. 2 can of corn. Pour over one-half cup of milk and cover with one-half cup of bread crumbs. Bake forty-five minutes or until the celery is tender. Have the oven moderately hot - 375 degrees. This serves six persons.

Corn and Bacon Omelet: Fry six slices of bacon until crisp. Remove and break into small pieces. Drain the contents of one No. 2 can of whole grain corn. Add to the hot bacon fat and fry golden brown. Add the bacon, and season to taste with salt and pepper. Meanwhile make an omelet for six persons. Just before folding the omelet over, pour over the corn and bacon. Then fold over, cook for a moment, and serve at once. This serves six persons.*

Elephant Tusks Are Teeth

The projections on an elephant known as tusks are merely elongated incisor teeth in the upper jaw. If these teeth are broken off or extracted they are never replaced. They are preceded by milk teeth, which come out at an early age. Good-sized tusks are produced on both sexes of the African elephant, but they seldom occur on the females of the Asiatic or Indian spe cies. In Ceylon only about 1 per cent of either sex have tusks.
