The City Council of Warrenton, Ga., has passed a resolution asking D. O. McBrayer to erect a theatre in the town. The council feels that trade would be stimulated by such a move.

Local Guild's Ingathering

BRANCH HERE IS PREPARING FOR ANNUAL GATHERING OF GARMENTS AS GIFTS TO THE NEEDLEWORK GUILD

The directors and members of our local Branch of the Needlework Guild of America are busy with the preparations for the Annual Ingathering and exhibition of garments on Thursday November 21st, in the American Legion Home.

All members are urged to give their contribution of garments or money to their respective director as early as possible next week so that all directors can be prompt with their report Thursday morning, the 21st.

Let every director and member give thoughtfully and carefully—make it a personal matter.

Perhaps there is some particular child you would like to help—make your wish known by marking your contribution of garments according and report same to your director. The committee will then see that the proper persons will receive them.

McIntosh is one of the best dessert apples. Many consider it the best to eat out of hand. It also is one of the finest sauce apples.

SAFE HARBOR CO. SUPER-VISES CUTTING OF TREES

The group of islands in the Susquehanna river about half mile below Columbia gives the appearance of a real lumber camp with the many laborers from the Safe Harbor Light and Power Company, who are cutting down trees due to the fact the level of the dam is to be raised. The Islands, familiar to many in this section, include the Kepper-
