Youthful Thieves Confess

min Waltz, son of Abram Waltz, on West Donegal street, were "picked up" by Officer Elmer Zerpey and questioned. The theft of a bicycle, personal property stolen from cars of Henry G. Carpenter and Miss Louise Schock, were in question. Both boys confessed, promised to behave and were left go under those conditions. They are about 12 years of age. No charges will be brought against them at present.

Older Thieves Too—We might add that older thieves too netted watching here. Some time ago a man from Florin came here, bought his supply of meats and groceries, placed them in his car and went into a business place to make another purchase. When he returned all his provisions were gone. This, however, was not the theft of boys.
